LOCAL MATTERS.

Fair Dates.—The Directors of the Talbot County Fair Association have decided to hold their next fair and race meeting on August 23, 24 and 25th, one week before the Kent and Queen Anne's fair begins at Tolchester Beach.

Hogs Had Fits.—Mr. Rol Hurlock, one of the most prominent farmers of Rich Neck, Queen Anne's county, lost three hogs last week which died of a strange disease. They were taken with fits and died soon after.

Farmers Have One Less Pest.—Prominent fruit growers and farmers throughout the State are of the opinion that the hard winter just past has killed the potato bugs and growers and truckers will not be bothered by the pest this summer.

Lost Valuable Cow.—Mr. James Willis, of near Melitota, lost one of his valuable cows last week. She was in a pasture field that borders on Mr. J. P. Price's Mill Pond, and while grazing near the edge of the bank fell down into the pond, got her head caught under a log and was drowned.

Bakery Sold.—Capt. George T. Sewell, of Rock Hall, has sold his bakery property to ex-sheriff James A. Casey. The transfer was made on Wednesday. Mr. Stanley R. Downey has resigned his position in Alexander's Department Store and has accepted a position with Mr. Casey in the bakery.

More Fine Colts.—Prof. William G. Smyth, of near Fairlee, has two fine colts which promise to make fast steppers. One of the colts is by Bedworth, Jr., and the other by West Morrell, Mr. George Rash's racer. Prof. Smyth has constructed a track on his farm, near Fairlee, and here he is developing the speed qualities of the youngsters.

Rev. K. M. Bull Honored.—Rev. K. M. Bull was elected moderator of New Castle Presbytery on April 19th, and on the 20th was elected Commissioner to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church in the United States of America which meets in Buffalo, N. Y., on May 19th, 1904. These are the highest honors that the Presbytery can confer on its members and one man rarely has both honors at the same time.

Convicted of Bigamy.—Rev. Irvin B. Taylor formerly of Wilmington, Del., and at one time stationed in this county, was found guilty of bigamy, at Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, on Saturday, and was sentenced to four years imprisoninent. Rev. Taylor was married some years ago to Miss Agnes Maser, of Wilmington. A year or so after his first marriage, he went to Iowa where he married Miss Florence Graves, of Martensburg. Taylor returned to Wilmington, and was arrested upon complaint by his first wife on the charge of bigamy.

Interesting to Rural Carriers.—A complete agreement has been reached between the National House and Senate conferees on the Postoffice Appropriation bill, whereby the House provision permitting rural free-delivery carriers to carry merchandise for hire upon the request of the patrons of their routes, is restored to the bill, and the Senate provision granting certain privileges to newspapers, magazines and periodicals, with respect to receiving subscriptions therefor and the delivery of the same is eliminated from the bill. Rural carriers throughout the county will do well to consider this matter.

Easton Has Her Troubles.—There is likely to be a bitter fight for town commissioner down in our sister town, Easton. For the second time in the history of the town a colored man is an applicant for the position, and there are already so many white candidates in the field that the white vote is seriously divided. It is feared that because of this fact the colored brother may walk in and capture the prize, as it is almost certain that he can control all of the colored vote. What's the matter with our friends, Shehan, Bartlett, McDaniel, Lambert, Jump and Haddaway down there? They'll have to do better than that, or we'll think their "instructions to voters" have miscarried.

Town Election.—The election for one member of the board of town commissioners to succeed Mr. Wm. B. Coleman, whose term expires the first of May, was held in the court house on Monday. The election was one of the most quiet elections in recent years, owing to the fact that there was only one candidate in the field, Mr. Thomas S. Bordley, one of our prominent and popular merchants. As a consequence but 78 votes were cast out of a total of between 250 and 300 votes, Mr. Bordley receiving all the votes cast. The election of Mr. Bordley will no doubt meet with the entire approval of every tax-payer in the town. He is a gentleman of aesthetic tastes, and fully competent to manage the affairs of the town in such a manner as will insure a safe, orderly and economic administration of the town government. The reorganization of the board will take place on the first meeting night in May, when the town officers will be elected. The present officers are: Day bailiff, Samuel Cooper; night bailiff, Jackson Coleman. While there has been no intimation that there will be a change in these positions, we have heard of several applicants for them—Capt. Hyland, Mr. Charles Rolph, Mr. Thos. V. Simpson and Wm. A. Hudson. The appointment will likely be made at the first meeting of the new board.

LITTLE LOCALS.

† The copious showers of the early part of the week have greatly facilitated the labor of the farmer, and crops generally have been greatly benefitted.

† Fishermen on the Chester river off Chestertown, have been catching a few shad the past week.

† The grass on the public squares has been cut and the cedars at the ends of the south and west walks have been removed during the week, adding very materially to the appearance of the squares. It is unfortunate that the cedars have been killed, but we hope the Town Improvement Association will replace them.

† The stranger who passes through the county nowadays can not help but think that Kent is the garden spot. Blooming peach and pear trees, blossoming vines, green wheatfields, budding woods, rich ground, ready for the seed corn, and cattle upon the hillside, together with the spacious lawns and cozy and beautiful homes, give the appearance of an ease and comfort of life that is a necessary consequence of the most advantageous environment.

† The editors of the Kent News are installing a new cylinder press this week. It is a double revolution Campbell, and will no doubt prove quite an addition to their plant.

† Mr. R. G. Nicholson has been planting and replanting shade trees around the court house enclosure during the week. The trees were taken from his nursery, near town.

† Mr. R. G. Nicholson lost a valuable driving horse one day last week in a peculiar manner. The animal was turned out to pasture and stepped upon a piece of rail which flew up and penetrated the horse's stomach, death ensuing in a short while.

† Mr. Wm. T. Maslin, of Quaker Neck, lost a fine mule some days ago.

† The School Board at a recent meeting decided to close the schools of the county on Friday June 24th.

† The merchants of the town who are in charge of the arrangements respecting the street fair and carnival to be held in the town the second week in June, are at work perfecting their plans and will have something to say in our columns later.

† Mr. Earle Duyer, who has finished an apprenticeship of four years as a typo in the composing rooms of the TRANSCRIPT, has accepted a position with the Kent News and will enter upon his duties in that office on Monday. Master Perkins Rolph, son of Mr. Charles Rolph, of this town, has been employed by the TRANSCRIPT.

† Jane Frazer, colored, was sentenced to 18 months in the House of Correction on Monday for assaulting Mrs. L. J. Smith, in whose home she was a servant.

† Master James Bacchus set 15 eggs under a hen some time ago and every egg hatched. Master James is now the happy owner of a fine brood of chicks.

† The St. John's College cadets will hold their annual encampment at Tolchester Beach from May 31st to June 8th.

† Contractor Frank E. Duyer is erecting a fine residence on Queen street extended for Miss Lizzie Wickes. Miss Wickes will occupy the residence when completed.

† The home of Mrs. Charles H. Baker and Marion Dek. Smith, Esq., are being very much improved by appropriate coats of paint. Thos. B. Elliott & Son are painting the former and M. E. Baker the latter. Carrara paint, sold by Joseph Guest, is being used.

† Contractor Wm. S. Carroll, began tearing down the Parish House of Emmannual P. E. church yesterday. The ringing of the bell for services will be dispensed with for the present. The Bible class will meet in the vacant room in the Hotel Imperial, and Sunday school will be held in Stam's Hall.

Hon. Leonard Ott, of the Baltimore bar, will deliver the annual address before the Mt. Vernon Liberary Society at the commencement this year. Mr. Ott is one the most popular lawyers of Baltimore and is an intimate friend of Senator elect Isidor Rayner.

Mr. Charles J. Reiche attended the Grand Lodge in Baltimore last week as a delegate of the I. O. O. F. of this town.

CHURCH NOTES.

Bishop William Forbes Adams confirmed a class of seven at the services in Emmanual P. E. Church on Thursday evening.

Rev. Edwin Gardner, pastor of the M. E. Church at Millington, has organized an Ushers Union, which will prove of great benefit to the church. Ushers for the coming month are Messrs. Fred C. Numbers and Edward Pinder.

Mr. Jesse Medders was the leader of a very interesting song service on Sunday evening in the Christian Workers service in Christ M. P. Church.

Rev. R. A. Elwood, the noted Wilmington preacher, has been asked to conduct religious service on the Steel Pier, Atlantic City, during the Summer. This will give an opportunity for all vistors to the resort who are religiously inclined to listen to the gospel under favorable circumstances. Rev. Mr. Elwood has just closed a most successful gospel meeting in the Opera House, Wilmington.

Dr. Wilbur F. Corkran, one of the most prominent ministers of the Wilmington M. E. Conference, but more recently of the Pennsylvania Conference, has been sued by Zill & Merceret, of Baltimore, who seek to recover $3,771.28 alleged to be owing by Dr. Cockran to them in commissions and other charges growing out of the minister dealing in stocks. Dr Corkran is one of the foremost Methodist Clergymen of Delaware, and recently was transferred from Georgetown, Del., to Bethlehem, Pa., in an exchange with Rev. Howard T. Quigg. Dr. Corkran is now in Los Angeles, Cal., attending the General Conference of the M. E. Church as a delegate from the Wilmington Conference. We are satisfied that the Doctor will make a satisfactory explanation of the above matter when he returns east.

Rev. Mr. Parris, the new pastor at Wesley Chapel M. P. Church, occupied the pulpit of his new charge for the first time on Sunday. Good Congregations greeted him at both morning and evening service.

Rev. Dr. Greenfield delighted his congregations on Sunday last with two fine sermons, the morning sermon being an especially fine discourse.

It is proposed to assess each charge in the Wilmington Conference with its pro rata share of the $7,500 dept on the Conference Academy at Dover, which the pastors will raise by contributions solicited privately.

Services at the Chestertown M. E. Church next Sunday as follows: preaching at 10.30 a.m. and 7.30 p. m. Morning subject: "The Preacher and his Theme;" evening: "Naaman, the Leper;" Sunday school at 2.15 p. m.; Epworth League service at 6.45 p. m. All are cordially invited.

Rev. R. S. Rowe is undoubtedly one of the most progressive horticulturists in the county. He has a very fine garden attached to the Kennedyville parsonage property and his potato vines are at this writing 3 inches high. Who can beat the reverend gentleman?

Rev. F. T. Little, president of the Maryland Annual Conference, will preach at St. James next Sunday at 10.30 A.M. and Lynch's at 3 P. M.

Kennedyville M. P. Church, Sunday, May 1st.: preaching at 10.30, a.m. by the pastor, Rev. R. S. Rowe; Sacrament of the Lord's Supper after the sermon; preaching at 7.30 p. m. by the Rev. F. T. Little, D. D., president of the Maryland Annual Conference. A cordial welcome and a hearty hand-shake for all.

The two highest honors that the Presbytery has to give were both given to Rev. K. M. Bull, of Kennedyuille, last week, at the meeting of New Castle Presbytery in Wilmington. He was elected Moderator of the Presbytery on Tuesday; and on Wednesday was elected Commissioner to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America which meets in Buffalo, N. Y., on May 19th.

A very pleasant and beneficial Willard Memorial service was held in the Chestertown M. E. Church on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Wm. J. Vannort presided with her usual grace and skill. Rev. Dr. Greenfield read scripture and offered prayer and interesting addresses were made by Rev. W. L. White pastor of the church and Mr. E. F. Hitch of the College. The music of the choir, under the direction of Dr. A. S. Hall, was of a high order and much appreciated.

Rev. S. J. Smith, pastor of Salisbury M. P. Church, has accepted an invitation to preach the Baccalaureate sermon to the graduates of Washington College on the occasion of their Commencement exercises in June. The sermon will be preached in Christ M. P. Church.

"Hear Him" will be the subject at the Presbyterian Churches to-morrow, Sunday, May 1st.

The concert to be given in Stam's Hall on Thursday evening next, May 5, by the Glee and Mandolin Club, of Washington College, promises to be one of the finest entertainments of the season. The club has been under instruction from Dr. Cain, the president of the college, for some months past, and both as to vocal and instrumental music the club has made excellent progress. Quite a number of prominent ladies of the town have consented to serve as patronesses, and everything has been done to make the evening one of rare pleasure and benefit. Tickets 50c. Seats reserved without extra charge.

OBITUARY.

MR. WILLIAM JONES.

The funeral services of Mr. William Jones whose sudden death was recorded in last week's issue took place from the residence of his son, Julian, near Kennedyville on Sunday morning at 10 o'colck. Rev. R. S. Rowe, pastor of Kennedyville M. P. Church, officiating assisted by Rev. T. F. Beauchamp, pastor of Still Pond M. E. Church. Rev. Mr. Rowe delivered a beautiful eulogy on the life of the deceased. Interment was made in beautiful Bethel cemetery Cecil county. The following pall bearers selected by the deceased before death served at the last sad rites:—Messrs. Jas. T. Dixon, William H. Ford, Jas. S. Bradley, Harry Davis, Willard Melvin, and W. S. Hurlock. Undertaker Wilson, of Middletown, Del., had charge of the funeral arrangements.

MRS. CAROLINE VIRGINIA MEDDERS.

Mrs. Caroline Virginia Medders, widow of the late Albert Medders, and youngest daughter of the late David and Mary Boyd, of Frederick city, Md., died at the her late residence, 1609 Madison Avenue, Baltimore, on Tuesday of rheumatism, after a long illness, aged 65 years. Mrs. Medders is survived by these sons, Mr. William Medders, of Still Pond, one of Kent county's most prominent merchants, Drs. Charles H. and D. A. Medders, of Baltimore, and these daughters, Misses Mary R., Ellen S. and Caroline C. Medders. The deceased was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church. Funeral services were held at her late home on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Interment was made in Mount Olivet cemetery, Frederick, Md., on Thursday.

EDWIN R. COCHRAN.

Edwin R. Cochran, who was well known in the lower part of Cecil County, died last Wednesday at his home at Middletown, Del., after a long and tedious illness. Mr. Cochran was a native of St. George's Hundred, being a son of the late Robert A. Cochran, and was prominent both in business circles and politics. He served two terms in the Delaware Legislature, and also two terms of five years each as Clerk of the Peace of New Castle County, being appointed by Governors Hall and Stockley. He is survived by a widow, a daughter of the late Charles Beasten, and three children—Judge E. R. Cochran, of the Municipal Court at Wilmington, and who is deeply interested in trolley lines; Misses Blanche and Ada Cochran. The funeral was held Saturday afternoon, with interment at Forest Presbyterian Cemetery.

MRS. CARRIE DADDS.

Mrs. Carrie Dadds died very suddenly at her late residence on Maple avenue on Wednesday evening of paralysis, aged 56 years. Mrs. Dadds was found upon the floor of her home by her daughter, Miss Merle, at about two o'clock in the afternoon. She lingered until about six o'clock in the evening. Funeral services were held at the residence yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Dr. H. B. Martin, officiating. Interment was made in Chester cemetery. Undertaker J. E. Ferguson had charge of the funeral arrangements. The deceased leaves eight children, Clarence, William, Oscar, Harry, Nellie, Merle, Minnie and Mrs. Lewis Lane.

REV. E. K. CREED.

Rev. E. K. Creed, one of the most prominent ministers of the Wilmington M. E. Conference, died in a Philadelphia hospital on Wednesday morning. The deceased had but recently been transferred from Galena to Bethel, and his very sudden death was a great surprise to his many warm friends in the upper section of the county. Before being transferred to Galena the deceased was the pastor of Centreville, M. E. Church, where he had many friends who will regret very much to learn of his sudden demise. He leaves a wife and several children.

MRS. SARAH A. REED.

Mrs. Sarah A. Reed, wife of Mr. Amos Reed, a highly respected farmer of this county, died at her late residence near Fairlee, on Wednesday of typhoid fever, aged 52 years. Funeral services were held yesterday morning at 10 o'clock in Fairlee M. E. Church, Rev. Mr. Habbert, officiating. Interment was made in Chester cemetery. Undertaker J. E. Ferguson had charge of the funeral arrangements.

ALICE ELIZA CALDWELL.

Died on April 20th, Alice Eliza, beloved infant daughter of Philip and Florence Caldwell, and granddaughter of Alfred and Mary A. Bryan, of Camden, N. J., aged 8 months and 20 days.

Sciatic Rheumatism Cured.

"I have been subject to sciatic rheumatism for years," says E. H. Waldron, of Wilton Junction, Iowa. "My joints were stiff and gave me much pain and discomfort. My joints would crack when I straightened up. I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm and have been thoroughly cured. Have not had a pain or ache from the old trouble for many months. It is certainly a most wonderful liniment." For sale by M A. Toulson, Druggist Chestertown, Md

Pe-ru-na a Prompt and Permanent Cure for Nervousness.

MRS. LULU LARMER.

Mrs. Lulu Larmer, Stoughton, Wis., says:

"For two years I suffered with nervous trouble and stomach disorders until it seemed that there was nothing to me but a bundle of nerves.

"I was very irritable, could not sleep, rest or compose myself, and was certainly unfit to take care of a household.

"I took nerve tonics and pills without benefit. When I began taking Peruna I grew steadily better, my nerves grew stronger, my rest was no longer fitful, and to-day I consider myself in perfect health and strength.

"My recovery was slow but sure, but I persevered and was rewarded by perfect health."—Mrs. Lulu Larmer.

Mrs. Anna B. Fleharty, recent Superintendent of the W. C. T. U. headquarters, at Galesburg, Ill., was for ten years one of the leading women there. Her husband, when living, was first President of the Nebraska Wesleyan University at Lincoln, Neb.

In a letter written from 401 Sixty-seventh street, W., Chicago, Ill., she says:

"I would not be without Peruna for ten times its cost."—Mrs. Anna B. Fleharty.
