DORCHESTER LODGE No. 19.

THE members of this Lodge are particularly requested to attend the Lodge, on MONDAY the 1st, of January 1849, at 7 o'clock, as business of interest will be before the Lodge on that night.

By order of the Lodge,
SAMUEL D. LECOMPTE,
Dec. 23, 1848—2w Secretary.

BY THE COMMISSIONERS
OF THE TOWN OF CAMBRIDGE,
December 16, 1848.

WHEREAS, our citizens have recently been much alarmed by fire on the outskirts of the town, evidently the work of an incendiary or incendiaries, and whereas if such outrages are not checked by all proper measures, these wicked persons may be encouraged in their evil propensities, and very serious consequences may effect the town and property therein; and whereas it is the duty of the commissioners of the town to make use of all vigilance in endeavoring to discover and bring to just punishment all disturbers of the peace and good order of the town, it is therefore Oordered by the commissioners of the town, that a reward be and is hereby offered of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS to any person or persons who will discover, or give such information as will lead to the detection of any incendiary or incendiaries, and the BAILIFF is hereby directed to use all endeavours to prevent if possible, any such outrages, and he is hereby directed, whenever there are any grounds of suspicion, to lodge a complaint in behalf of the commissioners of the town, before some Justice of the peace, and to have witnesses summoned to testify in such proceeding.

Ordered further that ROBERT BELL, Esq., be and he is hereby appointed WATCHMAN, to take observation as to the good order of the town, and to endeavor to find out any violators of the good government of our heretofore tranquil village.

The commissioners most earnestly invoke the friends of good government to assist them in the protection of the rights and property, of their fellow citizens. Without the aid and co-operation of the lovers of good order, and of the virtuous of the community, our laws will be powerless to prevent crime, and to bring transgressors to merited punishment, and of consequence vice must stalk abroad in all its deformity to the confusion and terror of us all.

By order.

Chancery Sale.

BY virtue of a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, I will offer at public sale, to the highest bidder, at the Court House door, in Cambridge, on next, between the hours of 11 & 12 M., the following very valuable Real Estate of which the late Levin Rawleigh died seized and possessed, and which upon his death descended to his daughter, the late Mrs. Hester Ann Rosse, and which is now sold for the purpose of fair and equitable division amongst her heirs at law, to wit: a tract or parcel of land called "Ennal's Wood-yard Regulated and Retaliation," containing 300 acres, more or less; Shaw's Adventure, 7 1-2 acres; Bartholomew Range, 75 1-4 acres; Ennal's Wood-yard Regulated, 58 acres; Part of Linkwood, 13 1-2 acres.

MONDAY the 8th day of January

These tracts comprise two very desirable farms of respectable size. The one occupied by Mr. Wrightson, the other by Moloch, (colored man.) There is also a small tenement on one of them, generally rented seperately, and now occupied by negro woman Chloe Waters. The 13 1-2 acres are cleared, and in Mr. Rawleigh's field, and occupied by him.—Ennal's Wood-yard Regulated, containing 58 acres, is woodland, near James Hutchinson's land All of these lands are well lolcated in Dorchester county, and the cleared land is of good quality for wheat or corn, and very productive. The woodland is also quite desirable.

The two farms will be sold separately, to suit purchasers, either laid off as now occupied, or better proportioned, as may seem reasonable.—The other lands will be sold in separate parcels, and any other lands of which the said Levin Rawleigh died seized and possessed, if any be here omitted. It is rarely such an opportunity offers for judicious investment or favorable location for residence. They have a high reputation as profitable property, and it is hoped that persons disposed to purchase will give them an attentive inspection. The tenants will show the property to any one wishing to examine them, and Doctor Rosse will furnish accurate information as to the usual rents and profits.

Upon the payment of the purchase money, the Trustee will by a good and sufficient deed, executed and acknowledged agreeably to law, and at the expense of the purchaser, convey to the purchaser of said property and to his heirs, the property to him sold, free, clear and discharged of all claim of the parties to the cause and of any person claiming by from. or under them.

THE LEADING PERIODICAL IN AMERICA.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK FOR 1849.

DEDICATED TO THE LADIES OF THE UNITED STATES.

Edited by SARAH J. HALE,
GRACE GREENWOOD,
and L. A. GODEY.

A Novelette by MISS E. LESLIE, who contributes to every No.

N. P. WILLIS' Original Scriptural Poetry.

T. S. ARTHUR, who contributes to every No., illustrative of Croome's Sketches of American Character.

We intend merely to give a notice of intentions for next year, leaving to others long advertisements—"full of sound and fury, signifying nothing."

Agreeably to the practice of last year, the publisher will issue as good a number each month as he does in January. This is a novel feature in Magazine publishing. During the whole of last year he gave more engravings and more reading matter than any of his contemporaries, and will continue to do so next year.—Those who subscribe to GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK, may do so under the assurance that they will receive more for their money in the Magazine alone, than by subscribing to any other work. To this is added and included in the same $3, the LADY'S DOLLAR NEWSPAPER, which contains in one month nearly, if not quite as much reading matter as the other months, making for $3, the amount of reading of two magazines a month. THERE ARE PECULIARITIES about Godey's Lady's Book for the ladies that no other Magazine possesses.—There is a Mezzotint and Line Engraving in each number—both by the best artists. In addition to these, there are given monthly what no other magazine gives—a Colored Fashion Plate, with a full description. This feature is peculiar to Godey, as no other work has them every month and colored. Then there are Caps, Bonnets, Chemisettes, Equestrianism for Ladies, with Engravings. The Ladies' Work Table, with designs for knitting, crotchet, and all other kinds of work. Patterns for Soaking Caps, Chair Covers, Window Curtains, D'Oy-
