GREAT FAMILY MEDICINE!

WARRANTED SUPERIOR TO ANY SOLD

WRIGHTS INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS

Every day is this celebrated medicine extending the sphere of its usefulness, and every year adding to the long catalogue of its triumps.

A MILLION OF BOXES.

are distributed annually without fully meeting the demand! For some time past, the sales have been limited solely for want of facilities of supply! Truely this is a universal remedy! Unheralded, these Pills have found their way into the remotest corners of the Union, every where proving their title as

THE POOR MAN'S FRIEND—SICK MAN'S HOPE—THE MARVELAND BLESSING OF THE AGE.

For a trifling sum, every individual and every family may have

to them for an indefinite period; and what is life without health but a miserable existence?

It is too precious a boon to be tempered with, by trying all sorts of experiments upon it. The sick should use those medicines only which experience has shown to be the best.

Read the following most remarkable statement from one of the most respectable citizens of Northumberland county, Pa:

PETERSVILLE, May 4, 1848.

DR. WRIGHT:—I have often wished to inform you of the benefits derived from the use of your Indian Vege able Pills, not for the purpose of gratifying you, who are a stranger to me, but with a hope that other fellow beings, who might be similarly afflicted, may be induced to fly to the same resort.

In the fall of 1843, I was persuaded to use your Pills; before I had used one box I felt encouraged to continue, and did continue, until I had used 12 boxes, having stopped at intervals and commenced again. The result was, that in the spring following I left the sich bed and room to which I had been entirely confined for eight years: during which long period I had recourse to the skill of the best phisicians that could be obtained, and who did all in their power; but all their efforts was in vain. Indeed, I never derived the last benefit.

My complaint was originally rheumatic, which was afterwards aggravated by a cold. The two combined became seated in my whole system, I became helpless—my legs and arms were of no use to me during that long time, in which I have suffered beyond my power to describe; and If I were to attempt description, it might appear to others an exaggeration. Nor will I attempt to tell you how much money I paid the doctors.

I mention that in those four years I did not take more than a healthy man would use in four months. The eating of victuals had much the effect the swallowing of a burning coal might have.

I will not be too lengthy, but conclude by saying that old age is the only hindrance to performing labor. My appetite has been ever since interruptedly good, and I enjoy my night's rest fully.

I live in Moor township, Northampton county, Pennsylvania; am a farmer; am 74 years of age; and though you are unknown to me, I conceive you the greatest benefactor the earth ever afforded me.

(Signed) JOHN FRACK.

HOLDEN'S DOLLAR MAGAZINE!

LARGEST! CHEAPEST!! BEST!!!

768 PAGES IN THE VOLUME!!!

VOL. III. COMMENCES JANUARY 1, 1849

8 to 20 Splendid Wood Engravings each Month!

This unrivalled Family Magazine, universally acknowledged by the Press as the best American Periodical published, offers at the commencement of the 3d volume unusual inducements to subscribers. Its features hereafter will be entirely American, including

AMERICAN VIEWS,
AMERICAN PORTRAITS,
AMERICAN TALES,
AMERICAN SKETCHES.

A series of Engravings, from the Paintings of our best artists, including Cole, Gignoux, Durand, Edmonds, and others, is in vigorous preparation; and the facile pencil of the inimitable

DARLEY

is now actively engaged in enriching Holden with his

PORTRAITS OF THE PUBLIC MEN OF AMERICA.

The Portraits of Distinguished American Divines will be continued in every No., as heretofore, with life-like sketches of their lives and ministry. Each No. will be filled with

TALES, POEMS,
ESSAYS,
REVIEWS,
SKETCHES
TRASLATIONS,
TOPICS OF THE MONTH,

and will embrace everything amusing, instructive, and readable, now in progress in the world.

As a Family Magazine, the Editor is confident that no rivalry can affect, or opposition lessen its value and worth, and he offers it to the world as, in tone, character, literary merit, and illustrative beauty,

THE MODEL MAGAZINE OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY!!!

No family in the land can afford to be without Holden in its circle; for when such a periodical can be obtained one year for the trifle of

who will not wish to subscribe?

The great feature of Holden is, that, while being peculiarly American in sentiment and feeling, it gathers and embodies all the beauties of the French, English and American Periodicals, while discarding their follies and vices. A combination of the Encyclopedia, the Gazetteer, the Quarterly Review, and the Weekly Newspaper, it is yet separate and distinct from all, but possessing enough of rheir various qualifications to commend itself to every reader. See what the Press says of Holden:

* * * "The Editor's table is very rich and amusing—in some respects equal to that of the Knickerbocker."—N. Y. Evangelist.

☞HOLDEN'S DOLLAR MAGAZINE for September is an excellent number. The literary contents are varied and interesting; the sketches of living American Poets and Divines cannot fail of giving the work a very popular character. The Editor's table is lively and piquant, and the book notices copious and candid. We understand the circulation of this Magazine is rapidly increasing.—Horace Greely, of the N. Y. Tribune.

HOLDEN'S DOLLAR MAGAZINE.—The September number of this work has been received and to simply say that it is a valuable publication, would not be doing justice to its merits. It is the best of Magazines, and must soon assume its place at the head of the literary Press. Democrat, Bloomsbury, N. Y.

HOLDEN'S DOLLAR MAGAZINE.—The August No. of this sterling journal is now upon our table. In glancing over its contents we are forcibly struck at the superior arrangement of every thing appertaining to Literature and Art. The articles are all of a high order—far surpassing any thing that appears in "Graham's," or "Godey's Lady's Book." The typography of the No. before us, is most excellent, vieing in whiteness of paper and clearness and distinctness of type, with any similar work published in the United States.—Republican Jackson Tenn.

HOLDEN'S DOLLAR MAGAZINE is the most interesting production of the popular literature that we know. The price, as its name implies is but one dollar a year, and we recommend everybody to subscribe for it—Advertiser, Lowell, Mass.

"We believe there is no other periodical published in America that contains so much choice reading matter, and such excellent engravings, for so little money."—Star, Houston, Texas.

Over three thousand five, hundred similar notices have been received, but hese must suffice.

The object of the Editor has been to give a Three Dollar Magazine for one third price, and a glance at Holden's will show the result.—Now, he only asks the support of the community, and in return will give improvements as they are demanded.

☞Now is the time to subscribe, as those sending first will receive the first impression of the engravings. The No.'s can be furnished from July 1848, if wished by subscribers—that month commencing the previous volume.

"GRAHAM" is now universally acknow

its contents, and the styles of its execution periodical ever published in America, and questionable whether any magazine in world—not excepting even Blackwood's—
presented an array of contributors of equal

We have resolved as far as "Graham"

popular taste; and propose, in the coming ume, greatly to amplify the literary departm of the work—to engage none but the best writers—to open a field for young wri
of merit—and, in fine, to cultivate a Natio

While all other monthly periodicals are c

ELEGANT PARIS FASHIONS IN EV

"Graham" for 1848 will be beyond all dou
so far superior to the class of small magazin
which attempt to imitate it, that in every po town it will utterly route them out. For w should any man or woman pay money for a se cond rate article, when the best is offered the same price. Reader think for yourself, e

do not be deluded by the stale and never r deemed promises of those whose words are worthless as their wares. It is fact that for th last seven years, promises have been made excelling 'GRAHAM,' by every petty pretende
yet the Magaze still maintains triumphantly th ascendant.

We promise our readers in January suc
a number as shall pale "the ineffectual fires" o
our imitators, who seize a good idea which w executed, and make it common by the base

PORTRAITS OF ARMY HEROES.

We have already given our readers a mag

now executed a magnificent Likeness of Gen.
BUTLER, and shall follow rapidly with portrait of all the leading men who have distinguish ed themselves in the present war. This serio of portraits will be prized by every patriot.

We design to commence in the January number, in addition to New Novels by Fay and Willis, a most beautiful Sea Story, which has been highly praised by the best judges, and has only been withheld from our readers in the last volume as we had already running through the Magazine the Novel by Cooper. For the New Year, we have made the most liberal a rangements in regard to the work, with the determination to make

A GREAT NATIONAL MAGAZINE,

country—free from all cliques and sectional differences, and relying on the merits of its Lit

to be opened with a new and beautiful type,
the finest white paper; and with a series of Mezzotints, unsurpassed by any which have yet appeared in any Magazine.

OUR MEZZOTINT ENGRAVINGS.

It affords us much satifaction to be able to state, that we have made arrangements with Sartin, the accomplished mezzotint engraver, whose plates have contributod so much to the beauty of ths Magazine heretofore, by which we secure he splendid Mezzotints for this work alone. His beautiful engravings will therefore form a feature of Graham's Magazine,
so that we shall be able to distince any thing
like competition on this ground.

OUR BEAUTIFUL FASHION PLATES.

These exquisite creations of taste and skill
we have engaged exclusively, from the pub lisher of "Le Follet," and all other efforts to get them have failed. An attempt has been made to deceive the public, by re-engraving the old designs; but these duplicates are so far beneath the Original Paris designs sent to "Graham," that they excite only contempt. Our arrange in the beauty and correctness of this depart

every number.
