SATURDAY, MAY 28, 1904.

FOR PRESIDENT:

HON. ARTHUR P. GORMAN,

OF MARYLAND.

THE MANY FRIENDS of Mr. Richard D. Hynson, of Kent, are very much pleased at his selection as a District Delegate to the National Convention which meets in St. Louis, July 6.

BE CAREFUL about driving horses without breeching. There have been two runaways this week because of the absence of this important part of the harness.

TICKETS in the Second Election Districts on Saturday last were headed by the name of Lewin W. Wicker, Esq., for Congress. He would make a most excellent candidate and would be a credit to his State in the halls of Congress.

THE Prohibition County Convention met in the town hall in Still Pond on Thursday and elected delegates to the Convention which meets in Salisbury June 7th. Mr. G. W. Covington was nominated as a member of the State Central Committee from Kent.

DEMOCRATS, lets all get together and elect a Democratic Congressman from the First District this year and give the Democratic Presidential nominee a fine majority. We can do it if we all pull together, and that is the kind of Democracy every man should sanction. It is not a question of leader-ship; it is a question of principle. Let us be true to principles.

AN ADVERTISEMENT appears in this issue from Wm. Medders & Co., of Still Pond, denying the rumor that this reliable firm is in financial trouble. Mr. Medders makes his position and condition very clear to the public. We are not advised as to the source of this rumor, but in deference of Mr. Medders it should be said that he is one of the best business men in the county, and has built up a trade in the town of Still Pond that is noted for its worth and volume. We believe the firm financially able to meet every obligation, and whatever may have been the motive for the rumor we are confident that there is no foundation whatever for it.

His Opinion of the Farmers.

"I shall confine my remarks to what Gen. Porter has said about patriotism. Patriotism comes first, and I hope you will not fail to display it next Tuesday. Mr. Bryan and his adherents have appealed to the basest set in the land, the farmers."—From a speech by President Roosevelt in New York City, Oct. 26th, 1896.

THE CONVENTION.

The County Convention on Tuesday was entirely in the hands of what is known as the "old organization" forces. They named the delegates at the primaries on Saturday without the slightest semblance of opposition from the people's faction, and controlled the situation with the co-operation of every democrat in the county. Notwithstanding these facts, not a single member of the people's faction in the county was elected a member of either the State or Congressional delegation, nor was anyone of them accorded a place on the district delegations to the County Convention. Whether or not this was the proper course to pursue remains to be seen. In view of the fact that at the nomination a year ago the now dominant faction in the county divided the spoils of victory with the defeated faction for the sake of harmony and for the success of the Democratic ticket, it seems to us that the proper thing to do would have been to recognize the people whose votes count for just as much one time as they do at another. The people's faction of the party did not want any contest in the county because they see the importance of party harmony. The Wilson Election Law will not be so effective in the county as to preclude the possibility of the county giving a republican majority in the fall election, and it seems to us that in order to subserve the very best interests of the party, the people's faction should have been recognized.

The Printers' Athletic Club has procured new baseball suits and hopes to establish in themselves a permanent team for Chestertown. In order to encourage this team and afford them good practice the Washington College team will play a practice game with them this (Saturday) afternoon.

THE TRUSTEE QUESTION.

We are advised that we were in error last week in saying that in the appointment of all of the republican trustees of the county schools it was done by the unanimous consent of the board. We are informed that Dr. W. F. Hines, the hold-over member objected to and voted against the appointment of several of the republican trustees and nearly all of the changes made in the democratic trustees except when removed from district or for good and sufficient reason. We are likewise advised, however, that the doctor is not opposed to republican minority representation of trustees where good men can be secured, as is evidenced by the appointment of many republican tustees during the last four years.

We will not be in error in making the statement that when the last board, Dr. W. Frank Hines, Messrs. Thos. J. Pennington and C. C. Brown went into office in 1900, many changes were made in the trustees throughout the county.

In Chestertown district a complete change was made. Mr. T. Waters Russell, who had served as a trustee of the Chestertown school for thirty years, and the late Mr. S. Frank Smith and Mr. M. A. Toulson were removed, and Messrs. Thomas S. Bordley, James W. Crouch and W. F. Russell were appointed their successors. It was upon these facts that we based our statement last week, that it is customary to change trustees when new school boards are appointed.

THE STATE CONVENTION.

Selects Delegates to the National Convention and Adopts a Strong Platform.

The Democratic State Convention assembled in Ford's Opera House on Thursday last and the following delegates were elected to the National Convention and the Presidential electors were named:

DELEGATES AT LARGE.

Hon. Arthur Pue Gorman,
Ex-Gov. John Walter Smith,
Chairman Murray Vandiver,
Congressman J. F. C. Talbott.

ALTERNATE DELEGATES AT LARGE.

Mr. John P. Poe,
Gen. L. Victor Baughman,
Mr. Austin L. Crothers,
Mr. John Keating.

DISTRICT DELEGATES.

First District—Joshua W. Miles and Richard D. Hynson.
Second District—Thomas H. Robinson and Frederick Von Kapf.
Third District—John Hannibal and Frank A. Furst.
Fourth District—John J. Mahon and Francis E. Yewell.
Fifth District—Dr. George Wells and J. Frank Smith.
Sixth District—Colonel Buchanan Schley and Arthur Peter.

ELECTORS AT LARGE.

Former Governor E. E. Jackson,
Former Governor Frank Brown.

DISTRICT ELECTORS.

First—John E. George.
Second—T. Herbert Shriver.
Third—James King.
Fourth—Charles H. Knapp.
Fifth—Samuel A. Mudd.
Sixth—Ferdinand Williams.

The platform adopted by the convention is a strong arraignment of the republican administration and an endorsement of the course of Senator Gorman in the Senate of the United States. The delegates to the National Convention, while uninstructed will nevertheless do everything in their power to further the interests of the Maryland Senator in the race for the presidency.

Tagg, of the Maryland Conference was elected president of the Gen. Conference for a term of four years. His competitor was Dr. T. H. Lewis, President of Western Maryland College. Rev. F. T. Little has introduced a memorial which proposes a merger of the two Methodist Churches of the country. Dr. Tagg was re-elected editor of the Church paper, the Methodist Protestant. The question of Church union is probably the most important question that will be discussed at the Conference.
