Important News for Anyone.

The time has come that every person should know how to take care of their eyes and not to buy glasses from peddlers or so-called traveling Opticians who have no right to ruin people's eyes.

To prevent this I will advise you not to wait until some peddler will come around to sell you a pair of glasses. You will do justice to your eyes by coming to Chestertown to have your EYES TESTED and GLASSES fitted to the eyes and not the eyes to the glasses.

Respectfully,
A. LEVINE.

THAT COVETED EASE

which singles out the well-dressed man among his fellows comes only from clothes designed by a trained mind, and cut by a master hand. A SUIT or OVERCOAT with our label upon it pledges correctness in both the big essentials, and the little incidents of FIT, FABRIC and FINISH, all at moderate prices, no more than you pay for the ordinary kind. Clothing is not our only strong point. We are very much into the FIRE IN TOWN.

Home of Kate Gibson, Uptown, Damaged, and Furnishes a Test of Our Inadequate Fire Apparatus.

The town clock sounded an alarm of fire on Saturday night at 11.45, and the neighborhood uptown was nerve-racked by the pitiful cries of "fire." Almost instantly a great crowd was on the scene waiting for the arrival of Chestertown's magnificent fire apparatus—magnificent only in its stupendous uselessness in time of fire. Well, the fire apparatus came. One man grabbed a piece of hose and started toward the fire which was slowly but surely consuming the home of Kate Gibson, colored, on College avenue, near High street. Another man grabbed a nozzle, and instead of attaching it to a hose was running up and down trying to find some water to squirt through it, and three other men were trying to secure the end of a hose to one of the splendid fire plugs that adorn the sidewalks and gutters of our town. After a time, however, things were got to going, and there was the prettiest little stream of water, about two inches long trying to reach the fire, you ever saw. The night was so calm that the fire was loathe to burn, and simply did so because there was very little water to throw on it. The town pays $590 a year for water in time of fire, and yet every time we have a fire there is no water in the reservoir, or the plugs are stopped up, or the engine is out of order; but the town still pays its $590 a year all the same. Kate, with the assistance of her son, "Mickey," and others, succeeded in getting their belongings out of the house, and even carried a red hot stove out and set it down in the middle of the street. "Mickey" said he had just started to housekeeping, and "now to think," said he, "I am got to begin all over again." Officer Cooper was prompt in sounding the alarm, and the people were on the scene quickly; but the one disgusting thing was the glaring inadequacy of our fire apparatus and water supply. Had the wind been blowing as it was shortly after the fire was put out, there would most assuredly have been a big fire, and for all the water supply and fire apparatus were worth the whole town would have been swept. It may be that this slight fire was a warning to our people by Providence to make ready for emergencies. Certainly it should serve to let them see how futile would be our efforts with such poor facilities for saving our town in case of a big fire. The house burned on Saturday night belonged to Harrison W. Vickers, Esq., and was valued at about $300. It was the first blaze since the Thompson fire, and we hope it will be the last. The fire was caused by some one upsetting a lamp in the second story of the dwelling.

Social Notes.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Bishop, near Galena, was the scene of a brillant party, Friday evening, Nov. 25, given in the honor of the eighteenth birthday of their daughter, Miss Lena G. Bishop. The house was brilliantly lighted and the guests arrived about eight o'clock. Many parlor games were indulged in, and sweet music was rendered by one of the young ladies. About twelve o'clock the guests were invited to the table, which was loaded with all the delicacies of the season, consisting of apples, pears, oranges, cake, candy, lemonade, etc. The guests departed at one o'clock wishing Miss Bishop many happy returns. She was the recipient of many handsome and useful presents. Among those present were: Galena—Misses Lena and Blanche Bishop, Etta and Bessie Whitaker, Mary Woodall, Edyth Caldwell, Lizzie Woodall, Bessie Waters and Pearl Woodall, Messrs. Lewis Hayes, Ernest Hicks, Arthur Hyland, Bradford Pierce, Harry Vansant, Nicholas Waters, Andrew Woodall, Harry Brockson, Wright Coleman, Ben and John Jarvis, and James Caldwell. Massey—Misses Nellie Malsberger, May and Carrie Roe. Messrs. Harry Malsberger and Richard Cochran. Locust Grove—Sam Deshane and Walter Hill. Chesterville—Misses Kate and Bertha Dill and Mr. Lloyd Dill. Chestertown—Misses Lillian Matthews, Gurtha Vansant, Maude Duyer and Jessie Matthews. Messrs. Roland Matthews, Edward Woodall and William Milby.

Train Kills Horse.—A valuable horse belonging to Mr. Cornelius, of Lynchs, was killed by the evening train at Lynch's Station on Wednesday. The horse had gotten loose from the stable and had wandered on to the track just as the train was reaching the station. Three of the animal's legs were cut off and it died shortly after the accident. It was the only horse Mr. Cornelius had in his possession and will be a severe loss.

CHURCH NOTES.

Emmanuel M. E. Church South, Chesterville, will celebrate "Missionary Day" on Sunday next, Dec. 4, at 11 o'clock, A. M. Suitable recitations and songs by the Sunday School, also an address on Foreign Missions by Mrs. A. W. Wilson, wife of Bishop Alpheus Wilson, of the Baltimore conference. The public cordially invited.

Services at the Christian Workers hour in Christ M. P. Church last Sunday evening consisted of a Thanksgiving musicale, under the direction of Mr. Fred. G. Usilton. It was a splendid service, and was enjoyed by a large audience. A duet by Miss Flora Wheatley and Mrs. William Robertson, solos by Miss Addie Hurlock, Marghuerita Dodd and Mr. James P. Parrott, scripture reading by Miss Hessner, and recitations by Miss Louise Urie, Mason Greenfield Latham, James Bacchus, Jas. Blackiston and little Misses Ethel Hines and Ida Smith, were splendidly rendered.

Kennedyville M. P. Church, Rev. R. S. Rowe, pastor. Subjects of sermons for Sunday, Dec. 4th, 10.30 A. M., "How to obtain pre-eminence in your calling." 7.30 P. M., "Another of God's warning notifications." Holy Communion after morning sermon.

Rev. Wm. B. Coleman, of Chestertown, filled the pulpit at both morning and evening services at the M. E. Church, Rock Hall, last Sunday. Rev. Warren Burr and wife have returned from their Western trip, and the popular pastor will occupy his pulpit tomorrow (Sunday) morning and evening.

The Ushers Union of Asbury M. E. Church, Millington, held their second social on Thanksgiving evening in the new hall next to Mr. John Bailey's hotel.

Mrs. Ralph Barnett will lead the service at the Christian Workers meeting in Christ M. P. Church to-morrow (Sunday) evening, at 6.45 o'clock. All are welcome.

The Fraternal Orders of the town are requested to meet in Fraternal Hall promptly at 7.00 o'clock on Sunday evening, in order to proceed in a body to the M. E. Church, where they will hear a special sermon by Rev. W. L. White.

The Sunday Schools of the town are rehearsing special music for Christmas.

Rev. W. H. Logan, D. D., will preach at Westminster and Grace Presbyterian Churches to-morrow (Sunday) Dec. 4, at the usual hours.

Trinity M. E. Church South, Millington. Dec. 4, Sunday School 2 P. M.; preaching 3 P. M.; communion service immediately thereafter.

Rev. K. M. Bull was installed as pastor of the Stewartstown Presbyterian Church on Nov. 22d. Since he began his labors in this field the entire indebtness of the church has been paid off. Last Sunday nine new members were received into the communion of the church, and the congregation is rejoicing in these evidences of prosperity.

Chestertown M. E. Church services as follows: The Lord's Supper at 10.30 A. M.; Sunday School 2.15 P. M.; Epworth League meeting 6.45 P. M.; preaching at 7.30 P. M., special sermon to Council No. 58, Daughters of America. All are cordially invited.

Christ Meth. Prot. Church, Rev. D. L. Greenfield, pastor: 9.30 A. M., Special Prayer for Revival; 10.30 A. M., the Lord's Supper; 2.30 P. M., Sunday School; 6.15 P. M., Junior Endeavor Meeting; 6.45 P. M., Christian Workers' hour; Mrs. Ralph W. Barnett will lead; 7.30 P. M., theme, "The Women of Christ's Circle—Mary of Magdala."

At a meeting of the Easton District Epworth League Cabinet held in Clayton last week, the following readjustments were made in the personnel of the cabinet, caused by the resignations of Miss Edith M. Price, of Centreville, and Miss Annie Leary, of Rock Hall. Mrs. W. B. Massey, of Greensboro, was chosen 4th vice president, and Rev. Walter E. Gunby, of Queenstown, was elected 2nd vice president. Mrs. Annie L. Maloney, of Townsend, was transferred to the Junior League superintendency. Mrs. Robert Roe, of Trappe, Md., was made 3rd vice president.

As the annual day recurs for temperance work in all churches we are led to think of what is being accomplished through its observance and the possibilities when a general concentration of thought and prayer for the needs of the cause is manifested. Chestertown M. E. Sunday school arranged an interesting program with special music well fitted to the topic of the lesson. At the evening service the pastor continued the subject in his discourse, giving his personal reasons for being a Prohibitionist: Because I am a preacher, a parent a patriot, a philanthropist.

The County Commissioners have installed a new standard adding machine in their office in the court house.

PERSONAL MENTION.

WHAT OUR SUBSCRIBERS SAY.

Pay the Transcript Fine Compliments Respecting its Make-up and News Items.

It is not always good taste for men or newspapers to "blow their own horn," but there are times when it is in keeping with good propriety to let our friends know how the TRANSCRIPT is appreciated by our subscribers. It is in appreciation of these compliments that we make public the following. A subscriber from Southern Maryland writes:

"I enjoy reading the TRANSCRIPT more than ever. It is certainly superior to most of the county papers of Maryland, indeed, to all I have yet seen."

A subscriber from Western Maryland says:

"I always enjoy reading the TRANSCRIPT, and look forward to that pleasure on Saturday nights. It seems to bring me close to the people I love, and recalls the pleasure of the five years agone."

These compliments are very much appreciated, and we hope to merit such favors all the time.
