MILLINGTON MATTERS.

Mr. William Wible and Miss Katie Hurd, both of Queen Anne's county, were quietly married at the M. E. Parsonage by Rev. Edwin Gardner on Wednesday evening. Just after the marriage ceremony, Mrs. Wible's 18 months old niece, Miss Daisy Belle Walls, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Walls, of Queen Anne, was baptized by the pastor.

Messrs. Jos. Mallalieu, Henry Tonkin, Sr., C. M. Hurtt and R. W. Moffett attended the banquet given by the Masonic Lodge, of Chestertown, last Wednesday evening. They had a royal good time.

Mr. R. W. Moffett and cousin, Dr. Frank Gardner, of Smyrna, Del., also attended the Masonic banquet held in Centreville Tuesday night.

Mr. D. J. Hall is building a double store on his lot on Cypress St., which he purchased from Mrs. James R. Jones. He contemplates opening a first-class shoe store in one of the stores, and it is rumored the other will be a drug store.

Mr. Olin Duling has purchased the residence formerly occupied by Mrs. Jennie Bryan and daughter, Miss Clara, from his brother, Mr. B. W. Duling, and moved in this week. Mr. Duling was building himself a home on Sassafras St. last year and had it nearly completed when it was destroyed by the fire.

Mrs. Lillie Numbers is improving her property on Cypress St. by a new shingle roof.

Mrs. J. Davis, of Georgetown, Del., spent Wednesday with her sister, Mrs. Edwin Gardner, at Asbury M. E. parsonage.

Mrs. W. H. Loper has been to the Episcopal Church Home in Baltimore for the past two weeks under treatment but is improving so rapidly she will be able to return home in a few days much to the delight of her husband, relatives and friends.

Mrs. Mollie Reese, of near Fairlee, spent this week with her sister-in-law, Mrs. James R. Jones.

Miss Pearl Ahern attended the dance at Delaware College at Newark last Friday night.

Mrs. Jennie Bryan and daughter, Miss Clara, have a suite of rooms at the Hotel Bailey. Mrs. Bryan is able to go about with the aid of crutches, having hurt her hip several months ago by a fall at her home.

Miss Addie Vansant is visiting her sister, Mrs. F. Ford Phillips, of Centreville.

Mrs. Edgar Yarnell and little daughter, Miss Helen, of Philadelphia, are visiting her aunts, Misses Vic and Helen Power.

Miss Margaret Jones is spending an indefinite period with friends at Mullika Hill, New Jersey.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wilde, of Elsmere, Del., spent several days with Mrs. Wilde's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Vansant.

Rev. Dr. Alexander, Presiding Elder of East Baltimore district, of the M.E. Church (South) will preach in Trinity Church next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Dr. Alexander is a fine talker and the public will miss a treat if they do not hear him.

Extra services will be held in Asbury M. E. Church, next Sunday. In the morning Miss Margaret Glenk, a returned missionary from China will address the congregation, and in the evening Presiding Elder W. G. Koons will preach on a very interesting subject. All are welcome and cordially invited. The pastor, Rev. Edwin Gardner, will soon begin to preach a series of very interesting sermons on the temptations of Christ.

Mr. George Cooper is improving his home by a new coat of paint.

Mr. William Copper is slowly recovering from his fall, we are glad to state.

ROCK HALL ITEMS.

Rock Hall High School Lyceum held an interesting session on Friday. Question for debate was, Resolved, that theatres are beneficial. So eager were the members to refute the other arguments that four or five would be on the floor at once seeking recognition by the Pres. Miss Thomas, a teacher from Baltimore, was made judge and decided in favor of the affirmative.

The pastor of the M. E. Church discoursed on the "sifting process" and before he had concluded his introduction called to his hearers to "awake as he saw 5 or 6 asleep." During his sermon he remarked that some of the members knew where liquor was being sold. One old brother exclaimed lustily, "Amen, oh Lord!" which had the effect of arousing quite a number from their reverie.

Several of our citizens returned from Tolchester with contusions and abrasions, principally on the nasal organs, from proximity to solar-plexas.

Esquire Jewell is busy interpreting the game and fish law. The Warden removed some nets which were beyond the limit and owners replevied the same. Trial continued on Friday. A requisition to Governor for troops to protect warden is suggested.

The yard in front of public school has been leveled and sown in grass. Mr. Nathan Satterfield is the right man in the right place and keeps rooms and premises in proper order.

Piney Neck teachers have resolved that their school yard shall be an ornament to their building. The old trees have been removed and replaced by ornamental shade trees. This school will hold their first commencement this year. The graduates are Helen Strong and Hattie Beck.

The following are the graduates of Rock Hall school: Gertie Kramer, Edna Judifind and Mr. Wilmot Crosby. Each have formulated plans for their future and are anxious to take their position in their life work.

Two of our physicians were made acquainted with the mysteries of the Patriotics on Friday evening. This is the proper material to build a successful lodge.

I. O. O. F. held their anniversary on Wednesday last. The program consisted of recitations, speeches and readings. This is one of the greatest charitable associations of our town. The benefits dispensed weekly aggregate quite a sum at the end of a year.

Some one poisoned a valuable setter belonging to Commissioner Ayres. So many worthless curs roam through our town, it seems a mystery why a good one should be selected and these left.

Our teachers spend their evenings in tennis. Misses B. and A. are becoming experts.

Our boys have organized a base ball club, and are awaiting challenges.

Our girls, well, from the number of young men attracted to our town, are magnets.

Miss grace Thomas, of Baltimore, is visiting Mrs. H. F. Willson.

Our fishermen are doing tolerably well, in short, it is reported that one of them caught 400 last Saturday.

Mr. Joe Sewell has been very sick. He is reported better to-day.

Capt. James Willson is able to be out. Mr. Alexander is on the sick list.

Allen, son of Carroll Willson, was given a surprise Tuesday in honor of his 17th birthday. Allen says "it was no surprise," as all interested parties were not mum.

Mr. Ed Jones and son returned from Harford, where they had been fishing for shad. Mr. Jones contemplates moving his family back from Baltimore to Rock Hall.

Mr. R. S. Crew is improving his residence by laying a foundation under his porch and grading the front walk. Durding Bros. and Rich are applying paint to several residences.

The steamboat has not begun its trips to Sharp's wharf yet. This would be very convenient to the citizens of Rock Hall, but would seriously interfere with Gratitude. Don't worry, "the mills grind exceedingly slow."

Mrs. Charles Ashley entertained Miss Thomas and pupils on Friday evening.

CECILTON ITEMS.
