THE NEW LINGERIE WAISTS

ARE PRETTIER THAN EVER

As if they could be prettier!—but they are, you will agree when you've seen them. The ruling lingerie idea seems to have put almost limitless opportunity in maker's hands.

Styles in the H. K. & Co. Waist Store have been constantly replenished and enlarged, until it seems like full midsummer preparation. Folks have begun to buy for summer needs. Folks who know that even among the less expensive waists there is something of a more exclusive air than usual.

The detail concerns three styles—

Women's Waists at $2.50

Women's Lingerie Mull Waists; yoke of tucks and scrool design of Valenciennes lace; tucked back; elbow sleeves, finished with lace-edged ruffles.

Women's Waists at $5.00

Women's Lingerie Mull Waists; daintily trimmed with German Valenciennes lace and Irish point lace insertion. Another style has circular yoke; hand embroidered front; tucked baby back; long elbow sleeves, finished with lace.

Women's Waists at $1.50

Women's Lingerie Mull Waists; panel embroidered fronts, with tucks. Others of India linon; pointed yoke of embroidery; tucked baby back; long or elbow sleeves.

$1,25, $1.50 Allover Embroideries, $1.00

Allover Embroideries in openwork English patterns—twenty-five styles. Admirable for shirtwaists and yokes.

35c and 40c Swiss Insertions, 25c.

An entirely new line of Swiss Insertions—they have just landed in this country. For shirtwaists and dresses.

CUNNING FROCKS FOR LITTLE FOLKS

Some wee frocks so dainty that mothers can save energy and time for more important things than sewing, yet be as satisfied with their finish and fit as is made by themselves.

For the child that's "hard" on clothes, get these simple Russian dresses of linen or linene (a very close imitation). For either boy or girl; easy to launder; difficult to tear or wear out; beautifully made. If trimmed at all, it's with a hand or otherwise embroidered panel, or hand stitching.

Linen, $3.50 to $7.00 Linene, $2.00 and $2.75.
Lawn, $1.00 and $1.50.

For times when sheer, lacey frocks are desired are new styles, ranging from $2.00 to $3.00.

Most have the very long waist, and tiny skirt so picturesque. Lace inset yokes and berthas, embroidery panels and trimmings of German Valenciennes, fluted embroidery ruffles. Many tiny tucks and hand stitching are some of the ways used to decorate them. Made of sheer lawn and linen.

Our Mail Order Department is equipped to give prompt and accurate service.

The McCall Bazar of Fashions will be mailed free every month on request.

Samples of Silks, Dress Goods, Wash Fabrics and so on will be cheerfully sent if you will write for them.

An Antiphony of Love.

A poet has said that "as for Browning's love for his wife, nothing more tender and chivalrous has ever been told of ideal lovers in an ideal romance. It is so beautiful a story that one often prefers it to the sweetest or loftiest poem that came from the lips of either." True; yet the lives of the two as poets make the story what it is. Their lives, indeed, were poems, as Milton said poets' lives should be, and their poetry was their life, as Mrs. Browning said should also be true of poets. The world could spare neither the lives nor the poems, and especially would it be poor without those poems in which each sang of the other. Take these together, was there ever, in all the treasury of the world's literature, so angelical an antiphony of love, anthemed by the two radiant and immortal lovers themselves?

Reese's Corner Sold.—The Smith Bros., of the Fifth district, have purchased through L. W. Wickes, Esq., att'y, the well-known farm known as Reese's Corner, near Edesville. This farm belongs to Mr. Joseph Baker, of Philadelphia, and is tenanted by Mr. Walter Francis. It contains 336 acres and was purchased for $10,250. The Smith Bros. previous to this purchase owned three farms in lower Kent. They are among Kent's most successful farmers, industrious and economical.
