Base Ball Notes

St. John's and Maryland Agricultural teams played the first game of the intercollegiate series on Saturday and Md. Agricultural won by the score of 5 to 4. Reynold who pitched for Betterton last season, and who was the crack pitcher of the Cecil County League is the star pitcher of the St. John's team. Hoover and Mackey are also on the team as bonafide students.

The Eastern League baseball season opened last Thursday. Baltimore had as her opponent Buffalo, and she suffered defeat to the tune of 6 to 1. Baltimore won next day by the score of 7 to 3.

The festival held in the Eliason building last Wednesday evening for the benefit of the Chestertown baseball club was largely patronized and a nice sum was realized. It will be used to purchase and prepare a suitable ballfield.

The baseball season at Millington was opened last Saturday with a good game against Kennedyville. Millington won, score 7 to 5. These teams play at Kennedyville today and a rattling good game is expected.

Chestertown 'Scrubs" were defeated again last Saturday by the Church Hill giants, score 26 to 14. It was a swatting game. The Church Hill and the scrubs will play this afternoon on the new diamond rented from Mr. H. W. Vickers, Esq,

The Flag Festival.

The ladies of the M. E. Church, having in charge the "Flag Festival" to be held next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, May 9, 10 and 11 are planing and working very enthusiastically for the pleasure of all who may patronize them. Various countries will be represented by booths bearing the flag of the country, and having for sale articles which indicate some leading industry of the country portrayed. Attendants of the different booths will be costumed as natives of the country the booths represent.

These booths will be bowers of beauty—the decorations of one being valued at one hundred dollars—loaned for the occasion by Hutzler Bros., of Baltimore.

Each evening an entertainment will be given—the leading features will be a drill in costume, representing all the States, Territories and dependencies, of the United States, with "Uncle Sam" and the "Godess of Liberty" as the central figures.

Thursday afternoon from 2.30 to 4.30 P.M., the booth representing "Switzerland," will conduct a "Baby Show" (which is further advertised in another part of this paper). The booth will also conduct a "Doll Show" every evening of the bazaar.

Friday evening a supper will be served, all the delicacies of the season will grace the tables, to tempt and satisfy the appetite.

We bespeak for the ladies a liberal patronage from the town and surrounding country, as a reward for their thoughtful and patient labor in preparing the many interesting and enjoyable features of the "Flag Festival."

Many Kinds of Nice Aprons

From coquettish bits of lawn and lace to big practical affairs that cover the whole frock, every good style in aprons is here—perhaps some decidedly helpful kinds that you do not kno about.

There are Cover-the-Frock Aprons—serviceable aprons of gingham, in a variety of checks, or gray and blue chambray, that cover the entire frock—sleeves, waist, skirt. Artists use them, and housekeepers find them handy, especially if called to the kitchen when "dressed-up." $1.00.

And these others:

Aprons of lawn. One style has tucks and tucked ruffle. Another has tucked sides and foot. Still others have hemsticked tucking. Then there are round aprons with bodice, trimmed with ruffle of embroidery, and with pocket. 25c.

Aprons with hemstitched bretelles, bib and deep hem. Others have embroidered bib and lawn ties. 25c.

Sewing aprons, trimmed with Valenciennes lace; there's a double pocket for the sewing material. 50c.

Round Aprons, with French scalloped embroidery; pocket trimmed with embroidery to match. 75c.

Gingham Aprons—with or without bib. 25c.

Our Mail Order Department is equipped to give prompt and accurate service.

The McCall Bazar of Fashions will be mailed free every month on request.

Samples of Silks, Dress Goods, Wash Fabrics and so on will be cheerfully sent if you will write for them.
