Spring Clothes.

When you buy a suit of clothes, you're pretty much at the mercy of the clothier. The suit looks good to you, but then you don't know what's back of the looks. The inside making—the parts you don't see—is what counts, and you have got to leave it to the merchant's sense of honor to give you a suit that's properly made.

Our clothes are made especially for us. We know what's inside; you see the outside, and we guarantee every garment and to back up its good looks by giving good wear. The same can be said of Youth's and Children's Suits.

Yours for business,

J. D. LUCAS.

Commencement Week.

The commencement exercises of Washington College will begin tomorrow, Sunday, with the baccalaureate sermon in the M. E. Church at 10.30 A. M. by Rev. John H. Willey, D. D., of Brooklyn, and the sermon to the christian associations in Emmanuel P. E. Church in the evening by Rev. R. W. Micou, Theological Seminary, Va. The exercises will be concluded on Wednesday evening with the annual commencement ball. The event of special importance during commencement is the laying of the corner stone of the new administration building on Tuesday afternoon at 2.45. Governor Warfield will officiate, and he will be assisted by Chief Judge James Alfred Pearce, Hon. Ferdinand C. Latrobe, President James W. Cain and others. The Governor, with the Baltimore branch of the Alumni Association and other distinguished guests, will arrive on the State steamer at 1 o'clock on Tuesday, when they will proceed to the college gymnasium where they will be tendered a luncheon. They will be guests at the Alumni banquet at night. The order of exercises will be found in another column.

The following are the graduates in the collegiate department: Alfred Selman Garrison, Taylor, Md.; James Thomas Kendall, Fairlee; Lemuel Chas. McGinnes, Queen Anne's; Lewin Hepbron Usilton, Kennedyville.

In the normal department the graduates are: Mary Genevieve Baden, Baden; Florence King Bishop, Bishopville; Edna Ruth Downey, Rock Hall; Sue Walon Dunbracco, Chestertown; Elizabeth Harrison Garey, Denton; Emma Ethel Jacquette, Chestertown; Carrie Annette Jones, Chaney Station; Bertha Naomi Jump, Chestertown; Novilla Page Kirby, Easton: Lillian Amelia Matthews, Chestertown; Linda Morris, Chestertown; Daisy Nicholson, Chestertown; Florence Frances Nicholson, Fairlee; America Virginia Rich, Dickerson; Anna Cheseldine Roe, Sudlersville; Lillian Roberts Stam, Chestertown; May Louisa Urie, Chestertown; Gurtha Emily Vansant, Betterton; Bertha Myrtle Wallen, Millington; Mary Brice Whaland, Chestertown; Mary Margaret Whayland, Eden.

THE COMMENCEMENT BALL.

The ball this commencement is to be managed somewhat differently from the way used is the past. The committee has tried to confine the invitations only to the alumni and friends of the college or the guests in town, visitors of the college commencement. Heretofore, one card would admit a whole houseful of visitors, a great deal of dependence being put in the door-keeper. This year, the door-keeper will be a stranger to everyone and will be instructed to admit no one, lady or gentleman, who does not have an admittance card.

The Commencement exercises of Western Maryland College were held this week in Westminster. Rev. Dr. Thomas H. Lewis, President of the college was compelled to be absent on account of nervous prostration. It is the first time in 20 years that Dr. Lewis has missed preaching the baccalaureate sermon. He was taken to the John Hopkins Hospital for special treatment. He is much improved now, and will leave with his two daughters next week for Europe to be gone one year. During the commencement the trustees elected Dr. Wm. McDaniel, vice-president, and he will have charge of the affairs of the college during Dr. Lewis' absence. Rev. J. D. Kinzer was elected a trustee in place of Rev. David Wilson, deceased, and Rev. F. T. Benson was elected in place of Rev. A. N. Ward, resigned. The commencement was one of the most interesting and largely attended in the history of the college.

CHESTERTOWN HIGH SCHOOL.

The commencement exercises of the Chestertown High School will be held in the Assembly Hall of the school on Wednesday evening next, June 20th. The graduating class is small this year, being composed of two members, Misses Eunice Lambert and Pearl Woodall, but what it lacks in members is equalled in ability, and the young ladies are an honor to the institution. The address to the graduates will be delivered by Rev. A. C. Jamison, of the Kennedyville Presbyterian Church, and the diplomas will be awarded by Prof. Milton Melvin.

ROCK HALL HIGH SCHOOL.

Rock Hall High School will hold its commencement on Tuesday evening, June 19th. The graduates are Misses Marguerite Hersch, Rosa B. Ayres, Edna Durding and Nealie Willson. OBITUARY.

GEORGE W. ROLLISON.

Died in Chester, May 11th George Washington Rollison, the only son of the late Charles and Recilli Denning Rollison, of Kent county, Md. The deceased was in his 82nd year and had been in feeble health for several years. He was married in 1853 to Miss Araminta Jacobs, who, with six sons, survives—Cornelius, Denning, George W., James W., Robert C., Charles W. and Henry. The deceased had lived all his life in Kent county, Md., except the last ten years. He lived on his farm near Crumpton for a number of years, then moved to Piney Neck for a few years, then he moved to Chestertown on Cannon street, where he lived. Seven years from then he went to Chester with his son, Robert. He was a carpenter by trade, a quiet, peaceful citizen, and a staunch Rupublican. He told his children that he was prepared for the change and was glad to go and be at rest. May he rest in peace.

MR. ALEXANDER WALLEN.

Mr. Alexander Wallen died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Edw. Armstrong, after a long illness, on Tuesday morning aged 69 years. The deceased was born in New Jersey. He moved to Clayton where he engaged in the hotel business. Some years ago he removed to Millington and engaged in the same business. He had been living with his daughter in Chestertown recently. He leaves three daughters, Mrs. Carrie Bowen, of Washington, D. C., Miss Grace Wallen, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Edw. Armstrong, of near Chestertown. Funeral services were held from the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Armstrong, on Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, conducted by Rev. W. L. White. Interment was made in Millington cemetery. Undertakker J. E. Ferguson had charge of funeral arrangements.

MISS ETHEL C. MCWHORTER.

Miss Ethel C., oldest daughter of the late T. J. and of Mrs. Martha McWhorter, died in Philadelphia last Saturday, June 9, of nervous prostration. Miss McWhorter was born in Millington about 33 years ago, and lived here the greater part of her life. A special car brought her remains here Wednesday morning and services were held in the Chapel of the Holy Cross upon the arrival of the train, conducted by Rev. Albert Ware, rector of the church. The floral tributes from her friends were numerous and handsome. She is survived by her mother, one brother, Dr. T. H. McWhorter and two sisters, all of Philadelphia. The pall-bearers, by request of the family, were Messrs. W. F. Collins, C. M. Hurtt, F. S. Bottomly, R. W. Comegys, J. T. Power and R. W. Moffett. Interment was made in the family burial lot in Millington cemetery.

Krusen had charge of the funeral arrangements.

MRS. J. ELVA CRAYNOR.

Mrs. J. Elva Craynor died at her home in Crumpton last Saturday evening after a long illness. Her funeral was held on Tuesday morning in the M. E. Church of which she was a consistent member for many years.

It May Have Been Murder.

Ernest Hill and Jim Stewart, two colored men, of Chestertown, became engaged in an altercation on Sunday in the upper end of town. The brawl resulted in Hill stabbing Stewart in the back with a penknife. Fortunately the blade of the knife struck the suspender buckle on Stewart's clothing and broke off, otherwise it may have been a fatal stab. Hill left town when he heard the officers were after him and had gotten as far as Cherry Lane, near Chesterville, on his way to Wilmington, when he was arrested on Monday morning by Sheriff Andrew Medders, and brought to Chestertown jail. He was given a hearing before Police Justice Hicks on Tuesday evening. He was sentenced to 18 months in the House of Correction.

*†*Contractor Corddry and force of workmen are pushing the work on Prof. E. J. Clarke's home on Washington avenue to rapid completion, and it will be ready for occupancy about Sept. 1. It will be a beautiful home when finished.

Wedding Bells.

DICKEY—BAKER.

Miss Kate Augusta Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Baker, of St. Michaels, and one of the most prominent workers of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor in the State, was married last week to Rev. J. M. Dickey, a prominent young minister of the Maryland Annual Conference Methodist Protestant Church, now stationed at Clinton Hill, Newark, N. J. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. O. Crouse, of Washington, at "The Cumberland," Washington, D. C., the home of the bride's sister. Rev. F. T. Tagg, editor of the Methodist Protestant, assisted in the ceremony. Miss Baker is well-known to Methodist Protestants, having been for some years in charge of the Junior C. E. column of the Methodist Protestant. Bro. Dickey is particularly fortunate in winning such a helpmate, and we extend congratulations.

PATTERSON—ROBERTSON.

The bride is well-known in Chestertown, where she has frequently been the guest of Miss Hallie Westcott and others.

Mr. Trout is well-known in Chestertown having been stationed here when a young man. He first wife was Miss Rose Wyatt, of Chestertown. She died about one year ago.

Big Day in Real Estate Sales.

Tuesday was a big day for the real estate market, and some very valuable property exchanged hands. Auctioneer John H. Greenwood had a strenuous day, but he pulled himself out of the hole all right.

The first property sold was the "Comegys Cosden farm," belonging to the John Brice estate, and advertised in the TRANSCRIPT by Richard D. Hynson, Esq., executor. The farm contained 142 acres, and was purchased by John D. Urie, Esq., for $36 per acre.

Tract No. 2, known as the Mill farm, and containing 100 acres, was held up on a bid of $30 per acre. It may be purchased at private sale of Mr. Hynson.

The Maslin or Newcomb farm, situated in the Fifth District, near Rock Hall, offered by Wm. W. Leck, Esq., attorney for the owners, was withdrawn on a bid of $26 per acre.

The Dodd farm, containing 336 acres, advertised in the TRANSCRIPT, attracted quite a number of bidders. It was finally sold to Mr. James W. Lambert for $9550.

The town property belonging to the Dodd estate was sold as follows:

The Harry T. Hoyle house went to Mr. Harry T. Hoyle for $950.

The Shop Lot, which extends to Calvert street, and which is improved by several stables and an undertaking shop, was sold to Mrs. J. Lucy Dodd for $875.

The Calvert street and lumber yard lots were purchased by Mr. Charles L. Dodd as a whole for $450.

The Kent County Savings Bank purchased at sheriff's sale the Sewall property at Rock Hall for $675.

Mr. John D. Carter sold at private sale on Tuesday to Mr. Bedford Titter, of Quaker Neck, his farm near Cliffs wharf, containing 50 acres for $2600. Possession is to be given Sept. 1st. Harrison W. Vickers, Jr., Esq., was attorney for Mr. Titter.

John D. Urie, Esq., who purchased the Comegys Cosden farm belonging to the estate of the late John Brice at public sale on Tuesday for $36 per acre has sold the farm to Mr. James Willis, of Melitota, for $40 per acre. Mr. Urie made $568 by the deal.

*†*Thursday was "Flag Day," the 129th anniversary of the adoption of the stars and stripes as the national ensign. Wednesday, July 25th, will be Horse Show day and don't you forget it.
