Do You Want to Know What You Swallow?

There is a growing sentiment in this country in favor of MEDICINES OF KNOWN COMPOSITION. It is but natural that one should have some interest in the composition of that which he or she is expected to swallow, whether it be food, drink or medicine.

Recognizing this growing disposition on the part of the public, and satisfied that the fullest publicity can only add to the well-earned reputation of his medicines, Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., has "taken time by the forelock," as it were, and is publishing broadcast a list of all the ingredients entering into his leading medicines, the "Golden Medical Discovery" the popular liver invigorator, stomach tonic, blood purifier and heart regulator; also of his "Favorite Prescription" for weak, over-worked, broken-down, nervous and invalid women.

This bold and out-spoken movement on the part of Dr. Pierce, has, by showing exactly what his well-known medicines are composed of, completely disarmed all harping critics who have heretofore unjustly attacked them. A little pamphlet has been compiled, from the standard medical authorities of all the several schools of practice, showing the strongest endorsements by leading medical writers of the several ingredients which enter into Dr. Pierce's medicines. A copy of this little book is mailed free to any one desiring to learn more concerning the valuable, native, medicinal plants which enter into the composition of Dr. Pierce's medicines. Address Dr. Pierce as above.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are tiny, sugar-coated anti-bilious granules. They regulate and invigorate Stomach, Liver and Bowels. Do not beget the "pill habit," but cure constipation. One or two each day for a laxative and regulator, three or four for an active cathartic. Once tried always in favor.

$50,000 GIVEN AWAY, in copies of The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a book that sold to the extent of 500,000 copies a few years ago, at $1.50 per copy. Last year we gave away $50,000 worth of these invaluable books. This year we shall give away $50,000 worth of them. Will you share in this benefit? If so, send only 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only for book in stiff paper covers, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Oriental Mattings.

The Orientals are producing better and more attractive Mattings than ever before, and we are learning better how to use them. We have received a new consignment of the most handsome Mattings we ever had the pleasure to show. Come in and look at them. We doubt if anything like these values can be found elsewhere.

Paper fit for a king's palace could be selected from the many handsome and artistic designs which we have to offer in Wall Papers.

Every period has its charming patterns. If you have a room to paper, the choice lies between many varieties of 2c and up to 25c. per roll. For the benefit of out-of-town customers we use our own team, and make no charge for same.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Thanks be to the honest and Honorable Edwin Warfield, Maryland, now occupies the almost unique position among the States of being represented by two honest and efficient men in the United States Senate.

Out of our forty-five States who can name any other State which is actually represented by two honest men in that body, other than a few of the Southern States where the people express their choice in the primaries and where betrayal of a sovereign commonwealth's interests might be answered by a noose or a shotgun?

The great States of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Illinois are not represented at all in that formerly deliberative body. It is true that nominally there are occupants of the seats that these great States are entitled to, but the occupants were not put in those positions by the people of the States themselves and do not pretend to represent the States to which they are accredited, but do most faithfully represent the corporate and corrupt interests that secured their selection.

Start with New York. It is charged up with Chauncey M. Depew and Thos. C. Platt. but Depew was not put in the United States Senate by the people of the State of New York, and never pretended to represent them, but he was put in the Senate by the Vanderbilt interests and did most faithfully represent the Vanderbilt interest at the expense of the people of the State of New York and the United States, until his corrupt and dishonest actions were made public and he could no longer be of use to his employer, viz: The New York Central R. R. and the allied Vanderbilt interests. Depew in a burst of frankness shortly after his selection as a Vanderbilt asset in the Senate openly stated: "My election to the United States Senate is only an incident in my career as a railroad man," and while that statement needs no interpretation, it can have no other meaning than to see to it that his employers receive their full share of the privileges and loot in each of the many grafting operations perpetrated on the people in the name of legislation.

Thos. C. Platt was equally frank when he said: "As a United States Senator I will oppose any legislation that interferes with the business of United States Express Company" and right royally has he kept his pledge, for no bowery policeman ever looked after graft with greater influence of purpose than this same Thomas Collier Platt. One little item in his disclosed grafting operations was a monopoly of the handling of the coin and bullion for the United States Treasury, which amounted to an average charge of $400,00 per annum, but this has been taken away from him the past winter in the Grand Old Party's burst of virtue by which that degenerate party of perfidy hopes to recoup its dissolving power and the Hon. Mr. Platt is also now being sued for payment for work done and bribes promised department employers that he corruptly engaged to look out for petitions, bills, etc. relating to the establishment of a parcels post system that would give the people of this nation what the Express Companies fail to do, viz:—decent package transportation at reasonable rates, but which thanks to such senators(?) as Platt the people have been deprived of.

New Jersey is charged up with a Mr. Kean and a Mr. Dryden. Few words are necessary to complete their political epitaphs. The State of New Jersey is concededly the mother of trusts and the trusts are practically the sole source of State revenue, and Messrs. Kean and Dryden can be safely relied on to do nothing that will disturb the tranquil confidence of the trusts, no matter how much the people of their State and the United States may continue to suffer at the hands of these depredators.

Pennsylvania, the unspeakable Quay had a henchman named Penrose that Quay "brought up" politically by the most approved or practiced Quay methods, and he (Quay, not the State of Pa.) seated Penrose in the Senate to do Quay's bidding and up to the time of Quay's death no complaint was ever heard of as to Penrose's docility and obedience to his master.

At Quay's death Penrose naturally became an asset of the virtuous Penna. Railroad and at the conference of Mr. A. J. Cassatt with Mr. Frick for the selection of a successor to Quay, Mr. Penrose was permitted to be present to retreive at first hand orders as to who should succeed as attorney in fact, of the Penna. R. R., Steel Trust and other corrupt and corrupting influences in the U. S. Senate.

At that conference Mr. Frick urged the attorney for the steel trust and other "large interests" who though appointed to the high office of Attorney General of the United States had never severed his relation with his first-love, and according to Mr. Frick could be relied on to as faithfully represent the corporate interests in the U. S. Senate as he had done before the U.S. Supreme Court and elsewhere. Accordingly Philander P. Knox became the accredited proxy of various interests in the U. S. Senate but every dollar he has ever collected in salary or mileage has been robbery unqualified, as he has not paid a railroad fare for twenty years and he has been extremely well-paid by his real employers whenever his activities and abilities have been utilized.

Next is Ohio. In the southern end of Ohio the past year a man named Cox died a political death. The things charged up against Cox in the line of corrupt political sagacity must have made Sidney Mudd gnash his teeth in envy or applaud to the echo. Cox has always been Senator Foraker's friend and sponsor. Foraker has always been Cox's friend and sponsor. Enough said. As to the other salary collector from Ohio a man named Marcus Aurelious Hanna has the doubtful distinction of having raised the two largest corruption funds in the world's history and of having been found out in his purchase of certain members of the Ohio Legislature in his effort to obtain a senatorial toga on precisely the same lines the presidency of these United States was obtaind for the late lamented McKinley. The present Senator Dick has been referred to as Hanna's lieutenant in the Senatorial transaction and acquired his knowledge of practical politics in the Hanna school.

Last in the list, though it could readily be extended comes Illinois. Shelby M. Collum's claim to distinction rests on the fact that he looks more like Abraham Lincoln than he acts like him, and his colleague Hopkins, by those that know him best is rated as a political hog and place trader though he is considered faithful to the interests of the great Chicago packers and the railroads.

It may be noticed that the above mentioned States are Republican States so-called but it does not necessarily follow that all the Republican Senators are servants of the coporations and exploiters. One notable exception is La-Follette, of Wisconsin, who is generally conceded to be an honest and incorruptable representative of the people, though his colleague Senator Spooner is credited with being just as faithful to the corporate interests which have kept him in office and as having been the most efficient lieutenant of Senator Aldrich who is the commander-in-chief of the Rockefeller holdings in the United States Senate and the most consummate despoiler of the people.

There was one other honest Republican offered a United States Senatorship to succeed Senator Burton who was "found out" doing what most of his colleagues do, but this honest man, Coburn, said he couldn't stand the association, even in an effort to serve his country. His own words being: "When I thonght of my future environment, if I should accept the Senatorship, my whole nature shuddered even at the suggestion. I cannot take it. I wont. I will not.

You see he was an honest farmer, accustomed to plowing not plundering, and when he thought of a Republican senatorial caucus in company with such specimens of christian civilization and Republican degeneracy as Depew and Platt, Penrose and Knox, Farker and Dick, Kean and Dryden, Cullom and Hopkins, Steve Elkins, Addick's creation Allee, etc., etc. With Rockfeller's flunkey Aldrich as commander-in-chief and Spooner as first lieutenant, he couldn't stand for it even if he did not have a weak stomach. This honest man's name is F. D. Coburn, of Kansas, and he was offered the United State Senatorship by Governor Hoch. He thinks he is a Republican, but he will no doubt be read out of the black party for calling public attention so forcibly to his party's policies and proprietors.

It would undoubtedly be more pleasing to read that our so-called representatives were honest servants of the people, and if that were so that would do away with the writing of such statements as the above, but it is unpatriotic and unfair to his fellowmen, no matter how unpleasant or unpalatable such statements are, for anyone to know such things and fail to make the facts known and give the people the opportunity of correcting such colossal iniquities.

The writer believes that a better time is at hand; that the era of misrule that Lincoln predicted is at an end and that our next President will be an honest man, honestly elected: that our next lower House of Congress will be more representative of the people and that in less than four years the present corporate Senate will be a nightmare of the past only to be recalled as a warning to future generations as to what to avoid politically.

Maryland is nobly blazing the way. There are no corporate strings attached to our senior Senator, the Honorable Isidor Rayner. He would rather truly represent Maryland's interests than to wield the power of an Aldrich with the Standard Oil behind and its political chattels in his hands.

In the longest and most varied public service of any living man, no stain nor stench was ever laid at the door of that advocate of the people's interests, the Junior Senator from Maryland, the Honorable William Pinkney Whyte. May he live long to enjoy the fruits of his efforts for his fellowman's betterment. And may His Excellency, Edwin Warfield be properly rewarded by the people for his loyalty to them in this and many other services in which he has safeguarded the people's interests and upheld the honor and good name of our State.

SOUGHT CELL AS DRINK CURE.

An Old Indian Fighter Asked to be Locked in Station.

A fine looking man, tall and straight as a ramrod, weighing more than 200 pounds, but with clothing that showed long wear, walked into the Tenderloin Police Station last night and asked to be locked up. He said he was Daniel Cooney, fifty years old, and that he arrived here from Chicago two days ago. Struck by his appearance, the Sergeant asked him why he wanted to go to jail.

"I've been drunk for a year," was the big man's reply, "and I can't seem to steady up, so I've come to the conclusion that if I am locked up for a while I can get on my feet again."

He said he had been a private in the Fifth and Seventh United States Cavalry and had been a fontier soldier for the best part of his life, having been a member of the rescue party which tried in vain to save General Custer from the massacre on the Little Big Horn in the early 70's, and having served later under Generals Brooks, Miles, Lawton and Chaffee in many fights.

The sergeant, starting with a dollar of his own, began to raise a collection for the old soldier. But with tears is his eyes he waved the money aside. The sergeat dissuaded him, however, from his purpose, and he finally was taken over to Bellvue to be straighthed out.—New York Times.
