Remarkable Reductions.

IN THIS OUR

Great June Clearance Sale.

Our Great June Clearance Sale will be inaugurated to-day and will continue during the remaining days of this month; and e'er the day is over it will be on in earnest.

Our Dress Goods, White Goods and Millinery Departments will show during the sale the rarest bargains ever offered by an up-to-date store.

Those of you who have ever attended one of the great clearance sales in the large city stores know the meaning of the above title.

We save you beyond the sale prices, traveling and hotel expenses, which means much to those economically inclined.

These reductions are genuine and carry with them from one-fourth to one-third saving on the original price.

CHURCH NOTES.

In St. Paul's and I. U. Parish churches on Sunday, July 1st, 1906, special collections will be made in aid of the P.E. stricken brethren in California. The bishop there has reported that after deducting insurance, the amount required to meet church losses in his Diocese is $523,800. Liberality is urgently asked for.

Rev. Avery Donavon, Endowment Secretary of Western Maryland College, will preach in St. James M. P. Church next Sunday, July 8th, at 10.30 A. M., at Lynch's at 3 A. M. and in Christ M. P. Church at 6.30 P. M.

The young peoples choir of Christ M. P. Church, under the leadership of Miss Eva Hurlock, discourses excellent music at the twilight services every Sunday evening. Last Sunday evening a trio and chorus, the trio being sung by Misses Mary Sappington and Olive Pennell and Mr. Clifton Coleman, was a pleasing feature. There are about 30 in the choir, and they can sing very sweetly.

Rev. John Bacchus, D. D., who had been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bacchus, preached a very able and helpful sermon in Emmanuel P. E. Church last Sunday morning.

Rev. Frank Davis will preach at Grace Presbyterian Church, Kennedyville, tomorrow (Sunday) morning and at Worton at night.

Chestertown M. E. Church. Preaching at 10.30 A. M., subject, "True Liberty." Sunday School at 2.15 P. M. Twilight services at 6.45 P. M. All are corcially invited.

At the commencement of Rock Hall High School the prizes of the County W. C. T. U. for Temperance essays were awarded, 1st prize to Miss Maude E. Middleton; 2nd to Miss Lillian Warner. Both prizes were handsome gold medals.

There is considerable "pic-nic" talk among the Sunday schools of the town at present, and they are all in a quandary as to where to go. Baker's woods is a good place, and it won't cost much to get there. Rehoboth is also a good place, as is Cliff City, Newnam's, Annapolis, Tolchester, Crumpton, and lots of places that might be named. Old Worton Manor is as good a place as can be found.

Adrian College, Michigan, a Western Methodist Protestant College of high standing, conferred the degree of Doctor of Divinity upon Rev. T. O. Crouse, pastor of Georgetown, D. C., Methodist Protestant Church this week.

The Annual Convention of the Young Peoples Society of Christian Endeavor will be held in Kennedyville M. P. Church on Wednesday, August 8th. An elaborate programme of addresses and music is being prepared. State President Frederick Ohrenschall will be present as will also several other state officials.

The executive of Kent Co. W. C. T. U. is requested to meet at the residence of Mrs. S. M. Usilton on Tuesday next, July 3rd, at 2½ o'clock. All members and friends of the same urged to attend promptly.

There will be special services at Lynch's M. P. Church every Sunday afternoon during July. A new choir has been organized. Rev. G. J. Hooker will preach next Sunday, 3 P. M. July 8, Rev. Avery Donovan will preach. July 15, preaching by Rev. E. C. McKosky. The public cordially invited.

The services at Christ Church will begin with an Experience Meeting at 9.30 A. M. Sunday School at 2.30 P. M. Public Worship at 10.30 A. M. and 6.30 P.M. The twilight theme will be, "I Am Free-Born;" Special music in the morning, and singing in the evening by the Young Peoples Choir.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Mary Riner Nichols, widow of Rev. Dr. James K. Nichols, formerly a well-known member of the Maryland Annual Conference, died Sunday last at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Dr. Frank H. Sidwell, of Johnsville, Md. Although in feeble health for a year, she had been confined to her room but a short time. The deceased was born in Frederick county, Nov. 22, 1821. Her husband died just eleven years ago, and he was pastor of Christ M. P. Church, Chestertown, when a young man. The deceased was very well-known to the older members of the churches in Chestertown and at St. James.

Musicale at Betterton.

On Saturday evening, June 23rd, a musicale was given by Mrs. Charles H. Brice at her home in Betterton. The program was varied and interesting, selections rendered on the piano, organ, mandolin and cornet. Those who took part were Misses Hettie Crew, Marie Brice, Helen Crew, Katie Crew, Irene Crownhart, Bessie Jewell, Helen and Lillian Kelley, Masters Clinton Owens and Mr. Chas. H. Brice. Vocal solos were given by Mrs. John S. Owens. Later in the evening refreshments were served to pupils and guests and an enjoyable evening was spent by all.
