JEFFERSON,

THE LADIES STORE. CHESTERTOWN, MD.

Remarkable Reductions.

IN THIS OUR

Great June Clearance Sale.

Our Great June Clearance Sale will be inaugurated to-day and will continue during the remaining days of this month; and e'er the day is over it will be on in earnest.

Our Dress Goods, White Goods and Millinery Departments will show during the sale the rarest bargains ever offered by an up-to-date store.

Those of you who have ever attended one of the great clearance sales in the large city stores know the meaning of the above title.

We save you beyond the sale prices, traveling and hotel expenses, which means much to those economically inclined.

These reductions are genuine and carry with them from one-fourth to one-third saving on the original price.

MILLINGTON MATTERS.

A pretty wedding took place in the P. E. Chapel of the Holy Cross last Thursday evening, July 5th, when Miss Mabel Newnam Spear, daughter of Mrs. Mollie Spear, formerly of this town, but for the past two years of Colorado Springs, Colorado, became the bride of Mr. Paul Comegys, a prominent merchant of our town. At 8 o'clock the bridal party entered the church to the strains of the wedding march, "Here Comes the Bride," skillfully rendered by Mrs. W. F. Collins. The bride entered the church on the arm of the bridegroom preceded by the ushers, and was met at the altar by her cousin, Mr. J. E. Spear, who gave her away. The bride was gowned in a beautiful pearl colored voile over pearl silk, trimmed in alice blue, and wore hat and gloves to match and carried a large bouquet of white roses. The bridegroom was attired in the conventional black with gloves to match the bride's, and wore a white rose bud. The ushers, Messrs. C. B. Dudley, of near town, E. T. Massey, of Massey, Lewin Spear, of Centreville, and W. F. Collins, of our town, wore black with white rose buds in their coats and gloves to match the bridegroom's. The bride was unattended. Rev. Albert Ware, rector of the church, performed the ceremony. During the ceremony Miss Pearl Ahern sang "O Promise Me." After the ceremony the party and their immediate families were entertained by the sister of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. J. E Spear, near town. They will go to their new home at once on Sassafras St.

The church was beautifully trimmed with palms, ferns, blooming plants and cut flowers. Mr. and Mrs. Comegys were the recipients of many handsome and useful presents.

The P. E. Chapel of the Holy Cross will hold its consecration service next Thursday, July 12th. There will be two bishops present. The Right Rev. Leighton Coleman, Bishop of Delaware, will preach the consecration sermon. Bishop Adams, of the Diocese of Easton, will be present, as will a number of ministers of different parishes in the other Dioceses. The service will be held in the morning, beginning at 10.30, and all who attend the service are cordially invited to partake of the luncheons which will be served in the hall over Gillespie & Moffett's store.

Two very interesting games of base ball were played on the 4th of July between the Wilmington Athletic Club and the Millington base ball club. Both games went in favor of the Millington club. The score in the first game was 2 to 1 and in the second, 9 to 2.

Miss Edith Foster, of Baltimore, is visiting Miss Eva Comegys.

Mr. J. R. Gillespie spent Sunday with friends near Middletown, Del.

Miss Julia Johnson has returned from the State Normal School, Frostburg, Md.

Dr. E. S. Power, of Philadelphia, spent a few days this week with his sisters, Misses Vic and Helen Power.

Messrs. Howard and Linden Loper, of New York, are spending their vacations with their mother, Mrs. M. E. Loper.

Mr. T. Krebs Dukehart, of New York, spent last week with his family on Cypress street.

The first carload of new wheat from this station was shipped by W. F. Collins on Monday.

A number of our young people spent the fourth at Betterton, Md.
