At first my stemach rejected almost all kinds of food. At this time I eat any kind of food without the least inconvenience, and can walk when I please without hinderance with very slight assistance. I deem it proper to state that I was afflicted with several other diseases, besides the spine affection, all of which I believe I have been entirely cured of by him, and my general health is as good as it ever was in my life. I make this statement gratuitously, in justice and through grattitude to Dr. T. Andrew, and hoping that those who may be similarly, or in any other way afflicted, may read this and avail themselves of his mild treatment and matchless skill, and like
