OFFICE OF THE BOARD OF

Shell Fish Commissioners

OF MARYLAND.

ANNAPOLIS, MD., July 18th, 1906.

The attention of residents of the State of Maryland is respectfully called to Section 108 of Chapter 711 of the Acts of 1906, as follows:

"Section 108. Any person who has, prior to the passage of this Act, lawfully appropriated or taken up any land in this State for the purpose of planting, bedding or cultivating oysters thereon, may become a lessee of said land for the term of twenty years from the passage of this Act, with all the incidents, including the payment of the rents of the lessee contemplated by this Act, provided such person gives written notice to the Board of Shell Fish Commissioners of his intention to become such lessee within six months after the passage hereof. The holding of any person who may have appropriated any such land shall become void and of no effect in law, upon the expiration of the said period of six months from the passage hereof, if no such notice of intention will have been given within said period of six months."

All parties who have heretofore lawfully appropriated or taken up land in said State for oyster planting, bedding or cultivating purposes, are therefore, NOTIFIED HEREBY, that unless the respective holders of said land shall, prior to the 2nd day of October, 1906, give written notice to the undersigned of an intention to become lessee of the respective oyster land now lawfully held by them, their holdings will become null and void.

GEN. VANDIVER FOR GOVERNOR.

HIS BOOM LAUNCHED ON THE CHESAPEAKE BAY.

The Veteran Politician, Who Has Started and Bursted Many Other Fellows' Booms, Gets a Taste of Being Boomed Himself—Toasted as "Our Next Governor" by His Friends From Baltimore Who Are on a Trip on the General's Pleasure Yacht.

[Special to The American.]

Betterton, Md., August 2.—"Here's to General Vandiver, our next Governor!" was the toast proposed and several times repeated by prominent business men of Baltimore, guests of the General on his yacht, the Bob and Dorothy, while on a pleasant sail yesterday.

A boom for the popular Democratic State Chairman and State Treasurer was thus started on the Chesapeake Bay, which some of those on board expressed the hope would find an indorsement down both the Eastern and Western Shores. General Vandiver smilingly acknowledged the compliment with the hospitable proposal "to have another" and the glasses clinked a merry accompaniment to the song:

"He'll make a good governor,
So say we, all of us!"

General Vandiver's guests included Lloyd T. Jackson, Frank Redwood, John Langdon, John Pleasant, E. D. Crook, C. G. Osmond, John Skinner, Thornton Rollins, and C. B. Roberts.

The gentlemen came from Baltimore to Havre de Grace on the early morning train. General Vandiver drove them across town to his yacht, which was in charge of Captain Will Moore. The sail down to the General's farm, on Spesutie Island, is one of the finest in the state, and thence down to Romney Creek was delightful. Luncheon was served while the yacht was at anchor. Near the General's boat lay the yachts Reckless and Missouri, of Havre de Grace. The General extended hospitality to members of the party on the Reckless. He and his guests returned to Havre de Grace in the evening.

General Vandiver is used to "booms." What he does not know about them is hardly worth knowing. He has both launched and stranded the political booms of many expectant Democrats. He has boomed Baughman, Smith, Jackson and others. As a boomer he cannot be beat. It is an old game of his. He is the boss boomer of the Maryland Democracy. There's not much use of any ambitious Democrat nurturing a boom unless Vandiver stands for it. But this boom that boomed on the Chesapeake Bay is a case of booming the boomer. It tickled the General just as a drink of sparkling wine tickles the throat. This was the reason he said: Let's have another."

It pleased the boomer to be boomed. He has been boomed before, many times. But he is to old and clever a politician to allow such things to turn his head. The General has started many a boom for others in the same convivial way that his friends started this one for him. Bigger booms have developed from tiny bubbles. Vandiver's friends—and there are many of them—want him to enter the race. They have begun to boom the boomer, and the boomer seems willing, just for the fun of it.

Interbay Canal Board Organized.

The Chesapeake & Delaware Ship Canal Commission, General Felix Agnus, of Baltimore, Chairman. Major C. A. Flagle, U. S. Navy, Lieutenant F. T. Chambers, U. S. Navy, and General Mackenzie, U. S. Corps, of Engineers, organized in Baltimore on Monday. After the meeting there was a reception at the Merchants' Club and addresses were made by Senator Allee and Congressman Burton, of Delaware, Representatives Mudd and Gill, of Maryland, Judge Henry D. Harlan, Governor Warfield and Mayor Timanus in which the need the prospective benefits of the waterway were dwelt upon. There is high hope that that the project will yet be executed.

Women and Water.

If nervous women would only drink more water they would not be so nervous, remarked a trained nurse the other day. Mearly every physician will recommed a woman who is suffering from nervous prostration or nervous exhaustion to drink lots of water between meals, but many women who do not come under a doctor's care would feel better and look better if they would drink say a quart of water in the course of the day, says Home Chat. Water is a nerve food. It has a distinctly soothing effect when slipped gradually, as one can test for herself.
