JEFFERSON.

THE LADIES STORE. CHESTERTOWN, MD.

FOR THE REMAINDER OF JULY we are closing out some of our strongest and best lines to make room for the on-coming fall season, which takes lots of room, and below you will find some rare bargains, not to be found anywhere else. Whatever we advertise we sell, we don't count the cost of things when we put them on the bargain counter.

Ladies' White Shirt Waist Suits.

Come and look them over, see the style, workmanship and quality, see the ticket and just take one-fourth off. Would advise an early visit, because they will not last long at these sacrificing prices.

MILLINERY

Now's the time to buy a real nice Hat at prices unheard of before. Come and be convinced, as they cannot stay here at the prices that they are marked. All the newest things in Linen Hats for picnics, etc

SKIRTS

This line is complete in every detail. We have them for the old and for the young, for the street and for church at prices that are interesting.

Dress Goods

For the remainder of July this line must also be sacrificed so as to make room for fall stock.

50-CENT goods go at 39c

$1.00 and $1.25 goods go at 89c

LONG SILK GLOVES

We have been supplying our trade right along the best of this season, but at times we could not get them, but we have them now in black and white in either button at the waist or plain in all sizes.

CHURCH NOTES.

Dr. Henry B. Martin, who has been suffering with acute indigestion for several days, though better, will not be able to hold services at Emmanuel P. E. Church tomorrow, Sunday.

Rev. C. T. Denroche has resigned the pastorate of St. Paul's and I. U. parishes and accepted a call to Augustine parish, Chesapeake City. He will commence duty at his new charge Sept. 1, 1906. Mr. Denroche will be greatly missed in this county where he has done a noble work. Some years ago he wrote and had published in phamplet form an exhaustive and interesting history of St. Paul's Church, and was the prime mover in the placing of the Philip Reed monument at Canlk's Field, and the slab on the General's grave at I. U. cemetery.

Gratifying gains are shown in the line of Church work and progress in the Diocese of Easton, according to the Journal for 1906, issued last week. Parishioners number 9011, a gain of 241; communicants, 3835, a gain of 202; baptisms, 262, an increase of 42; confirmations, 241, a gain of 78, contributions, $61,659.40, a gain of $20,688; Church property's value, $422,350, a gain of $4,487. The several treasurers report balances in their respective church funds, in one case from four to five times as large as last year's.

The late Thomas E. Cryer, of Tilghmans Island, Talbot county, after some small bequests in his will left the remainder of his estate to the trustee of Upper Bomburg Methodist Protestant Church, Trappe District, Talbot county. Mr. Cryer was 73 years old and was unmarried. Rev. Wm. N. Sherwood, well-known in Chestertown, is pastor of the fortunate church.

Rev. W. G. Koons, presiding elder of the Easton District, paid his official visit to Chestertown M. E. Church last Sunday and preached an able sermon at the twilight service.

Miss Alice Corduke, of Brooklyn, N. Y., rendered a beautiful soprano solo at the morning service in Christ M. P. Church on Sunday. Miss Corduke possesses a rich and highly cultivated voice, and her singing was much appreciated. Miss Clorinda Thompson, of Harrisburg, Pa., rendered a beautiful controllo solo at the twilight service. Like her sister, Miss Julia, Miss Coe has a splendid voice, and Chestertown people are always delighted to hear them sing.

St. James M. P. Sunday School will picnic at Worton Manor Beach next Thursday, August 16th.

Rev. J. M. Sheridan has returned from camp at Milton, Del., and will occupy his pulpits in St. James and Lynch, to-morrow (Sunday).

Presiding Elder W. G. Koons preached in Chestertown M. E. Church Sunday evening.

The Holiness campmeeting in progress at Klinefelter's grove, near town, is being largely attended and much interest manifested.

Chestertown M. E. Church—Preaching at 10.30 A. M. Sunday school at 2.15 P. M. Twilight services at 6.45 P. M. All are cordially invited.

MILLINGTON MATTERS.

Miss Anna Hurtt died at her home on Sassafras street last Friday morning August 3d, at 2.30 A.M. after a lingering illness of bright's disease, aged 60 years. Miss Hurtt has been in failing health for about two years, but the disease had not shown signs of development until last February, when at times she would be confined to her bed for several days at a time. About three weeks previous to her death she became unconscious and remained in that condition until death relieved her of her suffering. She had lived here all her life and was well-known and much beloved by every one for her many kind acts and unselfish deeds. She is survived by three brothers and two sisters. Her brothers are Messrs. J. Henry Hurtt, formerly proprietor of the Voshell House, Chestertown, but now of Baltimore, C. M Hurtt, a prominent merchant of our town, and A. Hurtt, of Delmar, Del. Her sisters are Mrs. E. W. Spear, of Centreville, and Miss Fannie Hurtt, with whom she resided. Her funeral took place from her late residence Sunday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock, services were held at the house and were conducted by Rev. Albert Ware, rector of the Chapel of the Holy Cross. Several beautiful floral designs were sent by friends. The pall bearers were Messrs. B. M. Hazell, J. B. Mallalieu, J. S. Newnam, John Barnes, C. L. Turner and F. S. Bottomley. Interment in Millington cemetery.

Dr. B. M. Hazell and family, of Baltimore, spent this week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Hazell.
