Democratic Ticket.

For Congress from the First Congressional District:

HON. THOMAS A. SMITH, of Caroline County.

WE WONDER WHY it is that Uncle Bill Jackson is doing so little singing. The Hymn has been given out, but he ain't singing any?

SENATOR ISIDOR RAYNER says that Mr. Bryan will poll as large a Democratic vote as any other man in the party. And there are many others who think likewise.

CONGRESSMAN Thomas A. Smith visited the Dewey Park tournament on Monday and met many of the voters of the county. He makes friends wherever he goes, and he will have a winning following in Kent this fall.

IF THE RESULTS of the recent elections in Vermont and Maine are indications of the feeling of the people, the next congress will be Democratic by a comfortable majority. Both States are heavily republican, yet the candidates for Governor received greatly reduced majorities.

GOV. WARFIELD received a great ovation each day of the parade at the Baltimore Jubilee. His little act of gallantry in bringing fifteen or twenty mothers and their babes into the reviewing stand and seating them beside him, on Wednesday, caught the great throngs in the street and they cheered him heartily.

WE ACKNOWLEDGE the receipt of a copy of "The Report of the Maryland Commission to the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, St. Louis, Mo., 1904, to the General Assembly of Maryland." The report was prepared by Samuel Dennis, Esq., Secretary to the Commission. It is nicely bound, finely printed, handsomely illustrated and contains four hundred pages of interesting information relative to the committee's visit to the Exposition.

THE REASSESSMENT.

Judges Pearce and Crothers have rendered an opinion in the injunction case in Queen Annes county filed by a number of taxpayers to prevent the County Commissioners from taking a new assessment of the real and personal property in that county in which they sustain the injunction, declaring the taking of a new assessment to be illegal. This opinion virtually sustains the position of the TRANSCRIPT in opposing the reassessment of personal property by the Kent County Board of Commissioners in July last and makes that assessment null and void. Our opposition to the reassessment was on the ground of expense to the county and because we believed it to be illegal. Our reassessment cost the county in round numbers about $2,500, which expense must be born by the tax-payers. The columns of the TRANSCRIPT are open to the discussion of this matter—pro and con.

PHILEMON B. HOPPER, ESQ.

The Maryland Democrat placed on its front page in its issue of Sept. 8 a photograph of P. B. Hopper, Esq., of Queen Annes county, and its leading editorial pays a well-merited compliment to Queen Annes distinguished son. Having known Mr. Hopper intimately from boyhood we can vouch for the correctness of the statements. The following are extracts from the editorial:

"He is the most popular man in his county.

"What a splendid tribute to be paid to any man!

"Such is the degree of popularity enjoyed by Mr. Philemon B. Hopper, of Queen Anne county. No man attempts to challenge his supremacy on that score. It is a fact too apparent to admit of denial, nor does anyone show the least disposition to deny it. People of all shades of politics, of all varieties of religious belief, and of all degrees of social relationship unite in telling it. That P. B. Hopper has, by all odds, the largest personal following of any man in Queen Anne is a self-evident proposition.

"It seems strange, in view of this truth, that Mr. Hopper has not figured more prominently in the honors and emoluments of actual officeholding. The explanation of this anomaly will disclose partially the very secret of Mr. Hopper's popularity. He is beyond doubt one of the most unselfish of the various leaders who have distinguished themselves in the arena of Maryland politics. Never in the whole history of his career has he ever been aggressively self-seeking. He has always been ready to subordinate his own personality to the welfare of his party."

WM. R. HEARST has been nominated for Governor of New York, by the Independence League. Mr. Hearst may be the means of defeating the Democratic ticket in the fall, as well as himself.

CONGRESSMAN Thomas A. Smith was in Chestertown on Tuesday mingling with the people. He expressed himself as well satisfied with the condition of the Democratic party throughout the District, and believes that he will be elected to Congress by a comfortable majority over his opponent, Hon. William H. Jackson.

Judge Martin Laid to Rest.

The remains of Judge Wm. R. Martin who died at East Hampton, Long Island, N. Y., last week, were taken to Easton on Thursday evening and rested in Trinity Cathedral where they were viewed by hundreds of his friends residing in Easton, and in Talbot and adjoining counties. The funeral services, which were held from Trinity Cathedral, Protestant Episcopal Church at 12 o'clock Saturday, were attended by an immense crowd. The services were conducted by Right Rev. Wm. Forbes Adams, bishop of the Diocese of Easton, assisted by Rev. Dr. Edward R. Rich, dean of Trinity Cathedral. The active pall bearers were: Dr. Samuel C. Trippe, James Dixon, M. Tilghman Johnson, Wilfred Bateman, Louis W. Trail, Joseph B. Harrington, Chas. C. Nickerson and Dr. B. Holly Smith. The honorary pall bearers were Chief Judge James Alfred Pearce, Associate Judge Austin L. Crothers, Col. Edward Lloyd, J. Overton Dickinson, Frederick P. Dimpfel, Col. James C. Mullekin, Major Wm. E. Stewart, Mayor Martin M. Higgins, Lawrence A. Skinner and Dr. Thomas J. Smithers. The members of the Talbot County Bar Association attended the funeral in a body and were joined by visiting attorneys from the other counties comprising the Second Judiclal Circuit of Maryland and others. The following members of the Kent Bar and citizens attended the funeral: Judge James Alfred Pearce, Marion deK. Smith, Dr. W. Frank Hines, Richard D. Hynson, Harrisen W. Vickers, Sr., Lewin W. Wickes, W. W. Beck, Harrison W. Vickers, Jr., James T. Dixon, R. Groome Parks and Dr. James W. Cain. Interment was made in Spring Hill cemetery.

Trustee's Sale

—OF—

A Small Farm

in Kent County, Maryland.

BY VIRTUE of the power and authority contained in the last will and testament of Sarah A. Handy late of Kent county, deceased, the undersigned as trustee will offer at public sale at the Court House door in Chestertown, Maryland, on between the hours of eleven o'clock A. M. and twelve o'clock, noon.

Tuesday, Sept. 18, 1906,

ALL THAT FARM,

parcel or parcels of land, situated in the Sixth Election District of Kent county, aforesaid, lying on both sides of the public road leading from Fairlee to Tolchester Beach, adjoining the lands of Wm. E. Keyser and others, being a part of the "Handy Farm" and containing about more or less, which was reserved by the said Sarah A. Handy from the sale of said farm to Mary E. Thompson.

86 ACRES OF LAND,

These parcels of land are conveniently located being near churches, schools and steamboat wharf at Tolchester and would make a desirable home for a person or persons of moderate means.

The soil is adapted to the growth of cereals and grass and the raising of cattle and sheep.

This property being separated by the public road passing through it into two parcels of about equal quantity, will be offered separately and then as a whole.

THE TERMS OF SALE—Are one-third of the purchase money to be paid in cash on day of sale, and the residue in two equal installments in six and twelve months from day of sale, bearing interest from day of sale, and all interest due to be paid with each installment of the principal sum, and to be secured by bond or notes of the purchaser or purchasers, with sureties to be approved by the trustee.

PHILIP G. WILMER,
Trustee.

5 and 10 Cent Bargains

I don't like the word "bargain" because it's misused so many times, but I have to use it, as I don't know of any other word that means so much when it is rightly applied, as it is here. I will not say you CAN'T buy these same goods other places at these prices, but I'm pretty sure you DON'T. For instance, I quote a few items:

A fancy-shaped, light weight handled Cup and Saucer for..... 5c
