THE LADIES STORE. CHESTERTOWN, MD.

Talk Here is Backed by Deeds

TWICE A YEAR almost every retail establishment has a grand clearance sale in which all odds and ends of a six months' accumulation of business must be swept away by the mighty brooms of little prices for dependable goods.

If you reflect you will recall how the wise buyers feasted on the bargains in our January sale of winter wearables, and now, as the morn of August dawns upon us we offer you the remains of our Summer goods.

The advance guard of Fall Stocks will soon be trooping in—they need the shelf and counter room taken up by the fag ends of Spring and Summer stocks—the latter must be rid of—there is one way to do it and that is by placing upon them prices so small as to induce every bargain-loving man, woman and child, within a reasonable radius of our store to visit us. The wee small figures are on 'em—they will move. Get in line.

Ladies White Shirt Waist Suits During the month of July we had a special sale of these garments at ¼ off selling price and the majority of them were closed out—there is just a few of each left—say two dozen in all—the $3.00 ones on up to $6.50 are in one bunch—well, just two dozen lucky ladies will wear these suits. First come, first served.

TRIMMED HATS of the latest summer designs are also included in this great August Clearance Sale. All you need to do is to call, look them over, try them, pick out one according to your liking, one that you look pretty in, then notice the ticket on inside, the figures are plain, cut in (½) half, and the hat is yours. Remember, we carry nothing over from one season to another, and they must go. "To grow rich means to embrace opportunities." This is your opportunity.

SHOES SHOES SHOES

SEPTEMBER FIRST

We have long felt the incompleteness of the Ladies' Store without an up-to-date Shoe Department, and it is with much pleasure we devote a portion of our advertising space in this issue to announce that on September First we will display the finest line of ever shown in the town. Let us shoe you. Service is a point we never overlook. Styles that will be shown will be worth coming miles to admire.

HARRY F. JEFFERSON,

THE LADIES' STORE,

Opposite Stam's Hall. Chestertown, Md.

Kennedyville W. C. T. U.

The regular monthly meeting of the Kennedyville W. C. T. U. was held Thursday evening of last week, Sept. 6, in the M. P. Church. With Miss Lula VanDyke at the organ the meeting opened with a short song service and prayer by the Rev. Mr. Hooker, of the M. P. Church. The Scripture reading was given by Mrs. Jarreli.

Mrs. Jarrell having declined to act as Secretary, Mrs. Ida Scotten was elected to fill the vacancy. It was stated that the union had in its possession a number of books that formerly belonged to a library held by the W. C. T. U. It was decided that they be presented to some hospital, and Miss Lula VanDyke, Mrs. Othoson and Mrs. Rachel Hill were appointed to attend to the matter. Mrs. Ida Scotten and Miss Emma Shafer were appointed delegates to the State Convention to be held in Frederick, Oct. 23, with Mrs. Shafer and Miss May Hurlock alternates.

The president introduced as the speaker of the evening, Rev. Mr. Holt, of Still Pond. His subject for the evening was "A Serious Problem and It-Solution." Mr. Holt said all preachers like a text. He therefore based his res marks on Luke 18th Chapter and a part of the 8th verse, "Nevertheless when the Son of Man Cometh will He find Faith on the Earth." The speaker very graphically portrayed the state of affairs that Jesus would find were He to come at this present day. Among the evils He would find two saloons for every church, and this nation of ours, that claims to be a christian nation, spends annually three million dollars for rum and half that amount for good works. Five million dollars for missions, and the very same vessels that carry the missionary go loaded with intoxicating liquors to destroy the work that he may do, and yet he said conditions were very different from what they were one hundred or even fifty years ago, when the church and even the clergy were addicted to the use of intoxicating drinks, and while this is all a most deplorable state of affairs, the majority sit with folded hands. "What we want to-day," he said, "is a living working faith. A faith that will say, 'Here am I, Lord, send me.' A faith that will enable every man, woman and child to take a stand against the monster and say 'The Saloon shall go.'"

He spoke of the good work being done by the Anti-Saloon League and suggested that some method be devised to prevent the social habit which he believed almost invariably led to the excessive use of strong drink. The ballot box must be used against this traffic. He believed the day was not far distant when the ballot would be offered to women and he hoped they would have the courage to accept and use it. The placing of ice-water fountains along the streets of our cities would be a mighty help in the right direction, and he also urged the young ladies to take a decided stand in the matter. "We can't help the past," he said, "but we can hang out the light for the next generation." The meeting closed with a solo by Miss Flora Johnson and the benediction by Rev. Mr. Holt.

MILLINGTON MATTERS.

Mr. Ernest Darling met with a very sad accident early last Wednesday morning at the home of Mrs. Philip Trimble, in Queen Anne near town. During the severe thunder storm that passed over that section, Mrs. Trimble's house was struck by lightning and badly wrecked. Mr. Darling made his home with Mrs. Trimble and was on the porch at the time; he was struck by lightning, and one side of his body was so bady burned that little hope is entertained of his recovery. One of Mrs. Trimble's daughter's was thrown from the bed, but was not seriously injured.

BETTERTON BRIEFS.

The many boarders, who for the last two months have been the guests of Betterton have most all departed, with the exception of a very few. The season has been a profitable one, and no one complains. Many improvements have been added to make the town an up to date resort, and all pleasure seekers seemed satisfied with their sojourn here.

Betterton was well represented this week at the jubilee in Baltimore and all spent an enjoyable time.

School opened on last Monday with Miss Elsie Crew, principal, Miss Lolla Crew, 1st assistant; and Miss Hannah Gooding, 2nd assistant. The teachers and pupils are rested after their summer vacation, and a successful school year is hoped to follow.

Fire on Hermitage Farm.—One of the large barns on the Hermitage farm, in Tilghman's Neck, Queen Anne county, owned by Miss Susan H. Williams, was destroyed by fire on Thursday night of last week. 450 bushels of wheat, 200 bushels of rye and the greater part of the farming implements were in the building and were also destroyed. Loss $6,000, covered by insurance. Miss Williams went to Europe sometime ago to remain three years. She had given orders for a Baltimore Architect to take drawings of the property and remodel it next spring. Last Friday was the day set for the photographer to make his sketches. Miss William intends making the Hermitage one of the prettiest rural properties in the State. Mr. W. T. English is the tenant. The Hermitage can be seen from the Chester River steamers as they approach Queenstown harbor.

A MONEY-SAVING OPPORTUNITY

For Wearers of Good Shoes.

Having signed a contract with the well-known firm of N. Hess & Sons to take charge of their Baltimore city store from September 15th, it compels me to close out my entire stock of Shoes in Chestertown.

My stock here is nearly Five Thousand Dollars in Ladies', Men's, Boys' and Misses' Shoes and Rubbers.

Now listen, good people, you know that for the past four years I have sold you all Shoes that were stylish, good looking and kept their shape; and best of all wore you as well and were better than Shoes you bought elsewhere. I have always tried to give the best leather Shoes that money and twelve years experience could buy. You can get cheap, trashy Shoes with what is commonly known as "paper soles," both outter and inner soles.

I have not any such Shoes in my store, nor have I ever handled such. You need not think that you will come to me expecting to get a $5.00 Shoe for $1.50. We are going to SELL OUT, no fake sale. We will sell Shoes at cost price, even less than you can buy them to-day at factory prices.

When you can save a dollar or so on a pair of Shoes, this opportunity seldom comes to you. All we ask of you is to come to see us and we will prove to you what we say we will do. If not convenient for you to come at once, write us a card and we promise you the same treatment as if you came yourself. But don't put it off, for this sale will only last about two weeks, as my contract compels me to report for work at the well-known firm of N. Hess & Sons, Baltimore, by September 15th.

We will sell you Shoes less than you ever had or will be able to buy them for some time to come, and it will pay you to buy for the future.

Very respectfully yours.

W. Ambrose Carroll,

P. S.—Come at once, time is short.
