A CARD.

Blacks, Md., May 22nd, 1907.

DEAR SIRS:—I desire through the columns of the TRANSCRIPT to acknowledge my thanks to my many friends for their promised support of my candidacy for the State Senate from Kent. I am profoundly grateful to the people of Kent county for the many honors I have received at their hands and for the many expressions of confidence and promises of support which have come to me during the past months. Reasons of an entirely personal nature will prevent me from entering the present primary contest. If I were to receive the nomination and the election it would be impossible at the present juncture for me to leave my family and to attend to my duties as senator at Annapolis.

Yours Respectfully,
GARRETT FOXWELL.

OBITUARY.

HIRAM M. BROWN.

The community was shocked to its very foundation on Sunday morning at the news of the sudden death of one of our most prominent citizens, Mr. Hiram M. Brown. As late as Saturday evening Mr. Brown was seen upon the streets of the town in the enjoyment of the best of health and in his usual happy and genial manner. He had arisen on Sunday morning in excellent health, and had remarked to his mother, that he never felt better in his life. He and his wife had been in the flower yard a few moments before church, gathering flowers. He left his wife in the yard and went to his room to prepare for church. He had scarcely entered the room when like a flash the summons came, and the spirit took its flight. The deceased was born 48 years ago, and nearly the entire part of his life was spent in his native town. He was educated in Washington College and from the time of his entry to his death, he manifested the greatest interest in its welfare and was one of its most ardent advocates and supporters. As a member of the Board of Visitors and Governors his services were invaluable and no task was too irksome for him to perform if it but meant the advancement of the interests of his Alma Mater. He had been most active in all the recent improvements at the college, was a member of the important committee in the erection of William Smith Hall, and the new athletic field is a monument to his energy and interest in the welfare of the college. As an alumnus he was untiring in his efforts to promote the standard of the college, and to make it second to none in the state.

In his every-day life Mr. Brown filled a most unique sphere in this community. He was never happier than when endeavoring to make some one else smile, and his fine social qualities and his sunny disposition made him a unique character among his fellowmen. Mr. Brown was as warm-hearted as he was genial in his manner, and whatever was best for his fellowmen, as well as for the welfare of his town, in those things he was deeply interested. As a vestryman of Emmanuel Protestant Episcopal Church, he used his influence for its prosperity, and exerted his efforts for its maintenance, and in everything that pertained to the social and civic good of the town he was a factor for good. Death is sad under any circumstances, whether it comes like a thief in the night, or wears its slow length along, it leaves in its trail a vale of gloom, which only the spirit of Him who doeth all things well can dispel. And this death, coming like a flash from a clear sky only serves to prove the uncertainty of life, and the necessity for preparation for the hereafter. Just as the life of the deceased has left its lasting impressions upon this community, so has his sudden death come to us as a warning that in the midst of life we are in death, and brought home forcibly the saying that is written, "Be ye always ready, for ye know not the day nor the hour when the Son of man cometh."

The deceased is survived by a widow, who was before marriage Miss Carter, of Cecil county. He also leaves an aged mother, two sisters, Mrs. Wilbur Eliason and Miss Anna R. Brown, and a brother, Mr. H. Clay Brown, of Baltimore. Funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon at twelve o'clock from his late residence on Front street conducted by Rev. Dr. H. B. Martin, rector of Emmanuel P. E. Church. Interment was made in Chester cemetery. The pall-bearers were the vestry of the church as follows: Judge James Alfred Pearce, Lewin W. Wickes, George B. Westcott, Allan A. Harris, Wm. W. Beck, Dr. W. Frank Hines; Dr. C. P. Gilpin and George Brice. Members of the faculty and Board of Vistors and Governors of the College acted as honorary pall-bearers. The floral tributes were profuse and beautiful. Undertaker J. E. Ferguson had charge of the funeral arrangements.

MRS. MARY WILLSON HATCHERSON.

On Monday last Mrs. Mary Willson Hatcherson, wife of Mr. B. C. Hatcherson, and eldest daughter of Dr. Thos. and Henrietta Maria Willson, died at the Maryland University Hospital, Baltimore, where she had been taken for treatment about ten days previously. Mrs. Hatcherson had been ill for more than eight weeks, and all that earthly power could do to help her regain her wanted good health was done. During her long illness she was faithfully attended by her devoted father and sister, a trained nurse from New York.

Her youngest daughter, Mary Angela, died ten days ago, but the mother was never apprised of her loss as the shock would have been too much for her. Four children, Gladys, George Willson, Bernadine, and Charlotte A. Hill, are left to mourn their great loss.

Mrs. Hatcherson was a most lovable character, always bright and cheerful, and a most loving wife and mother. Possessed of a sweet voice she often added much to the pleasure of her family and friends. The funeral was held at St. John's Church, Rock Hall, on Wednesday at 10.30 A. M. and interment made in the cemetery adjoining. The pall bearers were Messrs. Fred Willson, Herman Bramble, John and Charles Wood, Harry Skirven, and Walter Hadaway. Undertaker Casey Brothers in charge.

MR. T. CARROLL BROWN.

Mr. T. Carroll Brown, son of Mr. James Brown, of Quaker Neck, who was secretary to Mr. W. C. Ludwig, superintendent of transportation for the United Railways Company, of Baltimore, died last Friday morning at the Maryland Homoepathic Hospital as the result of a hemorrhage of the brain, aged about 24 years. The deceased was a young man of fine character and genial disposition, and enjoyed the esteem of numerous friends in both this county and in Baltimore city. His untimely death is a great blow to his parents, who have the sympathy of their many friends here. The deceased leaves a bride of but five months. She was a Miss Harkins, of Harford county. The remains were brought to his parents' home on Saturday where funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon conducted by Rev. A. H. Covey, assisted by Rev. J. C. McCoy, pastor of Bond Chapel. Interment was made in St. Paul's cemetery. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Wm. H. Toulson, Alvin Brown, Wm. J. Maslin, Fred Mortimer, Claude J. Brown and Elston L. Brown. Undertaker Jno. N. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements.

MR. ZEBDIAL POTTER HUBBARD.

Mr. Zebdial Potter Hubbard, a former well-known resident of this town, died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Frank A. Willis, in Easton, last Friday after an illness of several months, aged 60 years. The deceased was a member of the well-known Hubbard family, and for some years was engaged in the fertilizer business with his brother, Mr. Thomas R. Hubbard. The deceased was a native of Caroline county. Since the death of his wife several years ago, who before marriage was a Miss Parks; he had made his home with his sister, Mrs. Mary L. Todd, in Preston. He went to Easton several weeks ago. The deceased was an uncle of Mr. Wilbur W. Hubbard, of Chestertown.

TO SAVE HER PROPERTY.

Mrs. W. Irving Walker Asks the Protection of the Court in the Management of Her Estates.

R. Nelson Stevens and Alonzo L. Miles were on Tuesday appointed by United State Judge Morris receivers for the property of Mrs. Catherine F. Walker, a farmer, living near Chestertown, Md., after she had been adjudicated a bankrupt upon her own petition. The receivers, who bonded for $20,000, are authorized to continue Mrs. Walker's farming operations.

Mrs. Walker's petition for the benefit of the bankruptcy law was filed through Miles & Morris, attorneys. It states that her liabilities are $63-125.19, of which $54,595.80 is secured principally by mortgage, $1,974.82 is unsecured, $524.57 is for taxes and $30 for wages. Her assets are stated to be $135,517.67, of which $130,589 is real estate, $1,500 household goods and $1,471 live stock.

In her petition asking the appointment of receivers Mrs. Walker states that her estate consists of nine farms in Queen Annes county, containing 2,594 acres and valued at $118,589, and personal property, consisting largely of live stock and farming implements valued at $4,828.64. The petition also states that she has seeded on her farms 733 acres of wheat and 532 acres of corn and has in course of cultivation also 240 acres of hay and some smaller crops. If she is permitted to continue her farming operations under the protection of the court, Mrs. Walker declares in the petition, she will be enabled to so manage her affairs that it will not be necessary for the great bulk of her real estate to be sold.

Mrs. Walker is the wife of W. Irving Walker, who managed the farms, which belonged to her. She applied for the benefit of the bankruptcy law to prevent the sale of her land under threatened foreclosure proceedings of holders of mortgages aggregating more than $50,-000. It is said that Mr. Walker is one of the few experimental farmers in the State. He has made a specialty of "pedigree" corn which is obtained by planting and harvesting separately 40 of the best single ears of the crop and keeping an accurate record of the results from year to year.

COURT NOTES.

The case of Mrs. John G. Seney versus John N. Bennett, removed from Kent county, was tried in Centreville last week. Mrs. Seney charged Mr. Bennett with assault and claimed $5,000 damage. The case was given to the jury Thursday afternoon and verdict rendered in favor of the defendant, Mr. Bennett. John D. Urie, of Chestertown, and J. Frank Harper, of Centreville, represented Mr. Bennett; and Hope H. Barroll and T. J. Keating represented the plaintiff.

The Court of Appeals has reversed the decision of the lower court in the case of Mrs. Hester V. Stoops, vs. L. Bates Russell, which was tried at the October term of Court last year. The decision places the costs upon Mrs. Stoops. Jno. D. Urie, Esq. represented Mr. Russell, and Messrs. Wickes and Beck appeared for Mrs. Stoops.

The case of Young, Smyth, Field & Co. vs. Clifton L. Jarrell is marked for retrial at Easton on Monday. Hope H. Barroll, Esq. appears for Mr. Jarrell and Lewin W. Wickes, Esq. represents the Company.

Accidents.

Mr. Edgar Culley, of Gratitude, met with a very painful accident last Friday at Fairlee point. While engaged in splitting bay shore wood, he stepped on a large splinter driving it clear through his gum boot into his right foot. He or his friends were unable to extract it while on the shore. He was brought home in a power boat and Dr. Selby was summoned. He had to lance the wound to remove the splinter.

Master Hope Barroll, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hope H. Barroll, stuck a nail in his foot the other day and the wound caused him quite a great deal of pain. We are glad to state he is getting all right.

Mrs. Hope H. Barroll, while out in her flower yard the other day, accidentally came in contact with a piece of wire which struck her over the eye, inflicting a severe bruise and causing slight abrasions on her face. The wounds, though not serious, were painful.

COMMENCEMENT DAYS NEAR.

Exercises At Washington College Will Be More Elaborate And Interesting Than Usual.

President James W. Cain, of Washington College, is busily engaged in arranging the programme for the 125th anniversary and commencement exercises, all of which, except the sports will take place in William Smith Hall, the handsome new administration building. The exercises will practically begin on Thursday, June 13th, when the last chapel exercises will be held in the old chapel. On Friday, June 19th, will take place the dedication of William Smith Hall, when addresses will be delivered by Dr. Cain, president of the College, Chief Judge James Alfred Pearce, president of the Board of Visitors and Governors of the College, Wm. Rudolph Smith, of Philadelphia, a relative of the first president of the college, and Rt. Rev. William Forbes Adams, Bishop of the Diocese of Easton. Other interesting features of the commencement will be the banquet of the Adelphia Literary Society, Annual concert by the Glee and Mandolin Club, sermons to the graduates and christian associations by Rev. Dr. Thomas H. Lewis, president of Western Md. College, and Rev. Dr. H. W. Kellogg, of Grace Church, Wilmington.

Class day exercises of Senior Normal class.

Anniversary of Mt. Vernon Literary Society.

Declamation contest.

Reception and luncheon to guests and alumni.

Exercises commemorative of the 125th anniversary of the founding of the college when addresses will be delivered by His Excellency, Edwin Warfield, Governor of Maryland, Josiah Harriman Penniman, Ph. D. LL. D., dean of the college faculty of the University of Pennsylvania; Prof. Joseph Ames, Ph. D., of the Johns Popkins University, and James W. Cain, LL. D., president of Washington College.

Meeting and banquet of the Alumni Association.

Commencement exercises proper and commencement dance.

All the exercises will be held in the auditorium of William Smith Hall except the dance, which will be given in Stam's Hall.

There will be several interesting base ball games during commencement week.

The music for the occasion will be furnished by Weber's orchesta, and a chorus of fifty voices under the direction of Mrs. James W. Cain. The candidates for graduation are as follows:

Flag Raising in Worton.

Chestertown Councill No. 177 Jr. O. U. A. M. had a flag-raising at Worton Station Public School on Thursday afternoon, teachers, Misses Nicholson and Dunbracco. Master of ceremonies, W. F. Malin. The address of welcome was made by Prof. Melvin. Mr. W. F. Russell made the presentation address, and Mr. B. F. Rash, of Worton, received the flag. Speeches were made by Harrison W. Vickers, Jr., Wm. B. Coleman, M. Wilbur Thomas and others. The school arranged the following program which was splendidly rendered:

Prayer ..... Rev. E. B. Taylor
Song, "Maryland," ..... School
Recitation, "The American Flag" ..... Mary Keyser

Song, "America" ..... School
Recitation, "Love of Country" ..... Eva Dayer

Immediately following the programme the school and visitors repaired to the lawn where the flag was raised to the breeze by the scholars. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. The occasion was a most pleasant one.

*†*The beautiful little Cantata, "The Sleeping Beaty," will be given by the children of Shrewsbury Parish assisted by children of the town in appropriate parts, on Saturday evening June 1, in Stam's Hall. "The Sleeping Beauty" is a beautiful little character sketch, and the cause for which it is to be given is a most worthy one. Those in charge of the entertainment are endeavoring to make it a great success and it undoubtedly will be.
