R. S. TALL, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

Look to Your Interest! MENTS.

AMERICAN NOMINATIONS.

FOR GOVERNOR:

Thomas Holliday Hicks, Esq., Springs, to commence on the 7th instant. Of Dorchester County.

FOR COMPTROLLER OF TREASURY: WILLIAM H PURNELL, Esq, of Worcester county.

DANIEL II. McPHAIL, Esq, of Baltimore.

FOR COMMISSIONER OF LAND OFFICE WILLIAM H. SEABROOKE, Esq., of Frederick.

peared in last week's Democrat is one, we sup- of Romanism." pose, of a series which will appear about semimonthly between this and the election. The au- | Sun, from which the American party never obthor of the article being a gratuitous editor it is tains favors, and seldom receives justice, makes not expected he will neglect his own business Democrat; hence his semi-monthly inflations.

The gratuitous editor wants to know if Mr, yes, many of them, but never in his senses did impeachable public and private character: He he or will he vote for one of your class, of this modern Democracy.

pears to have fired at randum; he goes first from this county to the North, then down South, then their clear intellects, noble impulses, and patriotic views, rose above party ties and names, and young faith was plighted had joined voted for Mr. Buchanan." And continues he, "if it is wrong for us to vote for a Whig, it was wrong for them to vote for a Democrat—but and had proved how ruthless is the Reaper both are right." According to this great theologian and wise-acre, it is all right for a Whig to vote for a Democrat, and a Democrat to vote for a Whig, but they can't vote for Mr. Hicks, the Democrats can't, for says Mr. Consistency, "we principles, and our opponents will so find.'

will get but the strength of his party here, we will remark that we heard a man cursing, a few | banded the better." days ago, the know nothings, butsaid he "would spend five hundred dollars to secure his election, and he had talked with a number of Democrats tant subject to farmers, and is claiming hail with unfeigned satisfaction the first that Lis act would subsequently call his bad found but two who did not intend to vote for him, and he thought one of them would We notice that in the vicinity of Chelms. its place of destination and exult with joy From the statement of the father, it apwhich way the wind blows," if they do it must the presence of a large number of persons crowned with success.

The Foreign Candidate.—The foreign of that place, says: party met in convention, on Thursday last, in Baltimore, and recommended Col. John C. gle, mingle, you that mingle may." But they have fallen far short of their mark. There are patriotic whigs and patriotic democrats, even in our town, who spurn the idea of bartering the to get the gear to work favorably, some principles of their hearts, the dictates of their consciences for party emolument and the 'loaves and fishes,' and who next November will vindicate their utter abhorrence of a man who would ride into power by a conglomeration of the ex. piring parties of Maryland. Did Mr Groome, by the experiment. So clung and tough—so voting for James Buchanan, renounce all alle- close and heavy was the nature of the soil giance to the Whig party? Then he can lay no that in answer to inquiries made as to how . claim to their support. Does he still cling te- the matter was going on, the observations crats,—so, if he runs at all, he will "run on his Many farmers who entered the field prejuhook," and take upon his shoulders, beyond the ced were unreluctant in their praise and shadow of a doubt, the mertification of an over- acknowledged that the wonderful machine whelming deseat. Woe, woe, to poor democracy | being still in its infancy, would as improveof Maryland! This will be its death struggle, ments followed, effect an extraordinary bridle close to his mouth, to lessen the and next November the giant of Americanism | change in the cultivation and management | will lay it lifeless in a grave, marked only by of land of every description, the pandering propensities of a too-long reign.

state that there are large orders at the Mint for | ident received from Brigham Young a letthe new cent but owing to an inadequate quan- ter expressing gratification at being about tity of nickel the coin cannot be manufactured to be relieved from the labors and cares of with sufficient dispatch.

country men.

tained without a party organ, and every man Sailing of Lady Franklin's Expedition. ty Takes Forcible Possession .- It was stawho wishes the success of his party should use his endeavors to sustain his party paper, for on the success of that depends in a great measure the success of the party. In view of these con-WEDNESDAY MORNING AUGUAT 5th 1857 | siderations we have been induced to offer the Eagle for a very low price during the campaign. It will be sent to one address, from the THE "EAGLE" HAS A LARGER CIR- first of August until one week after the election CULATION THAN ANY PAPER EVER for 50cts; to clubs of ten 44cts each, and one to BEFORE PUBLISHED in the LOWER COUN- | the getter up of the club; to clubs of twenty for TIES, and is constantly receiving new subscribers | 37½cts each, and one to the getter up of the which makes it the BEST PAPER ON THE club. We call on every man who wishes to SHORE FOR PUBLISHING ADVERTISE promote the interest of the American party to exert him self in getting up clubs. Remember there is no postage on the paper in the county.

meeting at Bucktown, to commence on the 14th | remains of the long-lost navigation and instant. There is also one to be held at Ennals' his intrepid band. The spectators crowd-

McNeal's woods, or better known as Benny's undertaken the perilous voyage. woods, Talbot county, to commence on the 21st FOR COMMISSIONER OF LOTTERIES | men get up an excursion? A fine opportunity | is offered.

> By a notice in another column it will be seen that the dwelling house, near the Steam Mill wharf, formerly occupied by Mrs Muir, is ffered for sale.

33-We call attention to the article on our firs How They Argue.—The article which ap_ page to-day, under the caption of "Life picture

The Sun on Mr. Hicks.—The Baltimore the following editorial mention of Thomas Holand devote his whole time to writing for the liday Hicks, our well known nominee for Gov-

"Mr. Hicks is spoken of as a gentleman of em-Hicks ever voted for a Democrat; we answer, | inent quallifications, large experience and unhas served the State, and his particular county in various offices, comprising those of sheriff, register of wills, delegate to the legislature, State little vessel gradually became less, and The article is very lame and the author ap- | Senator and member of Governor's Council, in | all with ability and fidelity, affording high promise for the duties of the Executive office."

State, then to the election five years ago, then to pers record the death of a young man in that manly devotion might meet with due re-Col. Groome, then to the Presidential election, city on Thursday last, whose wedding was ap- ward. and by this time gets them so confused that he pointed for the very night when he was lying Yes, Lady Franklin's expedition has closes up by saying the Democracy will vote to | cold and stark in the emorace of death! A few | sailed; in a few days hence it will reach | " a man for Mr. Groome because he is an old line days before he was in the prime of health, and the ice where the hardships of an Arctic Whig, and they always have and always will go the cards of invitation to the marriage feast, were voyage commence. To Captain M'Clinfor principles. A Democrat voting for a Whig sont to a large ctrcle of acquaintances. But the tock and his gallant crew we sincerely wish because he goes for principles. This is indeed night came and he was shrouded in his wedding God speed! There must be relies in exstrange logic. He says, "did Mr. Hicks ever suit. Who may picture the agony of the young istence which will afford a satisfactorily vote for an Anti-knownothing. No, never. His being who was to have gone with him to the clue to the fate of the lost Sir John Frankopponents then, acting on principle will do him altar, when thus called to the side of his bier .- | lin and his companions, the remains of as he would do them." Again he says, Messsrs. Death, ever appalling to the young, has a treble such an expedition as that which he com-Groome, Johnson, Franklin and others, with poignancy for her. At the very hour she coyly | manded cannot yet be utterly obliterated dreamed of the bright future, he to whom her | Besides the Fox sails under specially fa

> --- "The innumerable caravan That moves forever through the gates of death.' "Who with his sickle keen, Reapeth the bearded grain at a breath, And the flowers that grow beneath."

SIMPLY A TEST OF WORTH.—Under this head because he is an American, and particularly the Baltimore Clipper has the following article: "As whimsical house-keepers sometimes sell vote for principles, and our opponents will so off their household goods and chattles, in order find," and we will "rally around our standard to ascertain exactly what they are worth, so the bearer, be he Whig or Democrat, and if our op- foreign party, in this State, evidently intends to perform to mankind. Let it be done ponents think that old line Democrats will not preciation of their principles, and the fiuctuavote for Mr Groome, (an old line Whig,) they | tions of trade, in their bargain and sale operawill find themselves quite as much mistaken in | tions with such tricky politicians as Senators this as in other expedients," because we vote for Pearce and Pratt, that a sort of census taking need no government aid in the construct rarely occurs on this Island took place on ry, previous to a thorough re-organization.— This feeble article is not worth perusing fur- Hence the recommendation of Col. J. C. Groome, ther, for the man against whom it is directed is as their candidate for Governor in lieu of their mountains and stretch the electric wires facts as near as we could gather them, are regular nomination of a Simon pure Democrat | across the broad Atlantic without the aid | as follows: impregnable to mighter assaults. But for the whose faith is at discount. May we not sug- of the State. It lies then with Captain It appears that Miss Emma Brewly, benefit of the trio of the corps editorial who pregest that like all auction sales this will also prove side over the Democrat, as they think Mr. Hicks
a sacrifice, and if the foreign party is only worth

M'Clinteck to add another link to the chain

Souler of New York have been on intithe eve of bankruptcy, and the sooner it is dis- when governmental resources were with- mate terms for the last two years, against > considerable attention in the United States. announcement of the Fox's safe arrival at loved one to the final judgement seat. engaged in Agriculture. The Chronicle three acres, called Mill Field, near the , cult for the engine to pass over it and after a pause four single plows were attached and although at first, from not being able done wonderfully straight though done in the midst of a large concourse of people! who were evidently greatly interested in

LETTER FROM BRIGHAM YOUNG .- It is The New Cent .- The Philadelphia papers | said on the avenue that yesterday the Presfederal office, and pledging himself that ping, avaricious farmer, that if he had the the Mormons will treat all the federal offi-Commodore John T, Newton died in Wash- | cers he may send to the territory well, proington on the 28th ult, after a two hour's ill- vided they prove to be honest men, who ness of apoplexy. Mr. Newton had been in the attend only to the legitimate discharge of the City of Aberdeen was the scence of a cargo of guano had been received at San bustle and excitement. The inhabitants Francisco from the island of Elide. were hurrying hither and thither, their countenances bearing the impress of a mixture of anxiety and hope. A great event particular of the island: was at hand—not the arrival of Royalty, in search of Highland seclusion---not the visit of a French Prince on a scientific exploration-not the return of the brave Highlanders from a Russin campaign: but an event of far greater significance, and of transcendent importance to the cause of humanity. Lady Franklin's screw steamer the Fox, was appointed that morning to Camp Meetings.—There will be a camp- sail for the Arctic Seas, in search of the ed the docks to catch a glimpse of that It has finally been decided to hold a camp at | gallant captain and daring crew who had

For the Campaign.—No party can be sus- [From the Glasgow Telegraph, July 11th]

Lauy Franklin and her niece were there inst. As this is a favorite camp with the citi- | blessing the expedition; and as the brave zens of Cambridge, cannot some of our young | ship weighed anchor and stood out to sea, the lusty cheers of the assembled thousands unmistakeably testified that the noble efforts that lady had made—though timidly deserted by a Government in whose service her husband and his followers had embarked—to investigate and clear up the Gustrave Touchard, of this city, is based Arctic Expedition, were fully appreciated And amid those cheers which rent air when the Fox steered away towards the icy North, there was many a prayer that the forlorn hope might, by the blessing of Providence, reach its destination in safety, acfreighted with all that humanity can now expect—the bones of the intrepid navigators. The most distant surmise that any of the band can be still alive has long since faded away; the Fox now sails to search for their remains. The stordy Highlander reverently doffed his bonnet as the looking heavenwards, whilst tickled down his manly check, blessed that noble lady who had staked her all in the enterprise, back again to this county, then through the Affecting Bereavement.-The Richmond pa- and trusted. fondly trusted that her wo> vorable suspices. Captain M'Clintock will doubiless be enable to profit by the experience of all the previous scarching expedition; they have extended over a wide expanse of ground; he has now but a comparatively small space to explore—done, the work will be thoroughly accomplished every mile of those ice-bound regions will have been minutely examined. With perseverance, then, there is every hope of

The adventureus voyagers have a duty . Let them show to the world what

The field selected was a piece of twenty- | incident was narrated to Lieutenant Beck-ger, he had not yet been seen or heard, New York. for no Indian would make such a noise at night in approaching his foe; he therefore chances of his moving or whiting, and one hundred and seventy of his deadliest enemies, the Sioux, on a war party, filed past him within arm's reach, while he remained unobserved.

Lorenzo Dow once said of a grasworld enclosed in a single field, he would not be content with out a patch of ground on the outside to raise potatoes.

THE GUANO ISLAND OF ELIDE.—A par-Last Wednesday, at a very early hour, ted in the California news yesterday that > ted, and whose rights are said also to de- | self. pend upon grant from the Mexican government. The third claim, represented by the firm of Marzion & Co., or rather upon a grant said to have been given a number of years since by Juan B. Alvarado Governor of the Californias, to Jose Casteo and Clorencio Serrado, and by them assigned in Touchard.

The party represented by Capt Nye have commenceds sult San Francisco against complish the wished for object and return | Captain Isham and others for as they allege, forcibly dispossessing them of their possession of the island. It was the vessel of Isham & Co. (the Caroline E. Foote) that brought the guano to San Francisco. It appears she proceeded to the island with several eight-pounder cannon, other arms ammunition, and a number of men; and made pisoners of the men employed there by Nyr's party. The vessel then loaded up a cargo of guano and make ready to set sail on her return voyage. Before depar- morning when he died. He described ting, however, Captain Isham, the chief of himself as a physician by profession, a nathis remarkable expedition, disembarked the cannon and fortified the island, leaving | county, Miss. with relatives in Livingston | ent Office. a party of some twenty-four in possession, parish, Louisiana. under the Mexican flag, with arms and ammunition to repel any attack or invasion that might be made. as it appears, the latter alternative to the Brook: inhospitable filibusterhating shores of Lowschooner, with her cargo of prisoners and about in a two horse wagon. a hundred and twenty tons of guano Subsault with intent to commit felony.

SHOCKING TTAFEDY ON STATEN ISLAND private enterprise is capable of achieving. | - Suppised Loxe Tealousy and Murpze. In England it has already done much. we | -A terrible tragedy, which fortunately what it may thus bring, it is already quite on and to proclaim to the civilized world that Souler, of New York, have been on intiheld a private lady, aided by a few devo- the wishes of the young lady's parents, ted friends took up the task and conduc. who repeatedful forbade her lover their PLOWING BY STEAM.—This is an imported it to a glorious termination. We shall house, but he persisted, little dreaming change his mind before the election. Gentle- ford, England, a successful experiment of the Arctic voyagers are homeward bound who exasperated at the conduct of his sucmen, some time, since you said "straws show the kind was made a few weeks since, in and that this noble enterprise has been cessful rival, determined to the end of his life of theirs. With this determination, late been unusually destructive at sea. as on Tuesday morning about 11 o'clock he | wellas on land . The ship Evelyn, at Philarepaired to Staten Island, where he learn- delphia, from Liverpool, had her mainroy-AN INDIAN ADVENTURE.—The following ed the loveas were sojourning, for the pur- al mast splintered on the 22d. On the pose of ascertaining the lady's true of feel- 23d, the brig Fanny O. Field, Baltimore with, of the Pacific Railroad Expedition, ing of him: but judge of him jelously and had her foretopgallant mast and cutwater & Co., Boston. This preparation contains a pefor Governor. In placing this gentleman before for Governor and the first start was with two double plows, but as it was an exceeding the formula for Governor and the first start was with two double plows, but as it was an exceeding for Governor and formula for Governor and formula for Governor for Governor and formula for Governor for Gover ing in the sweet sleep of innocence in her Island, at the head of Long Island Sound. Standy neutranzes the poison and and gling parties of Maryland under one banner, and or four horses, very foul, and from being marked by numerous gullies and ravines: lover's arms. Driven to fury by this sight had her mainmast shivered, and Capt, He was traversing this pass at midnight he drew a pisiol for the purpose of ending Prentiss and a boy were knocked senseaccompanied by his squaw only, both his life, when the snapping of the trigger less. The foremast of the shooner Henry mounted on the same horse, and the night | awoke Mr. Souler, who preceiving his pur- T. Wood, at Jersey City, was struck by so dark that he could neither see the out pose, struck the pistol from the young man lightning and splintered to the deck, and lines of the hills nor the ground at his hand who still infuriated, hurriedly pick- other damage done, on Friday last. Other expires with the election and qualification of little delays were caused, after a time they horse's feet, when he heard a sound (which ed it up and fired at the sleeping from be- disasters. of a similar nature, have doubt- his successor this fall, no inducement will tempt did their work admirably, plowing from he imitated) so slight as to be scarcely per- fore him, the ball entering her heart, and less occurred at sea during the late elecceptible to an Indian's ear, of an arrow causing instant death. The murderer im- tric eyele. A few dollars spent in light- many or them, still unpaid, and those of 1857 carried in the hand, striking once only mediately escaped, before Mr. Souler who ming conductors would have prevented are now ready to be received. I hereby warn with a slight tick, against a bow. Stop- was awe-stricken at the act, could give an much of this mischief. ping, he could hear nothing, but instantly alarm. Several persons on hearing the dismounted-his squaw leaning down upon report of the pistol, hastened to the spot, satisfied that however emminent the dan- which was just starting from the dock to

notes is Roger B. Taney, three of the most | leading wool growing one in the Union. navy since 1809, and had occupied various po- their official duties. His letter is further From a report published in the distinguished men in the United States; draw an audience to the court room.

to fifteen feet, and supposed to consist of possibly have raised a barrel per acre - | Plain Dealer, July 24. about thirty thousand tons of this valuable About two days after I cut my Wheat they deposit. It is claimed by three parties. - | took up the line of march for the Corn. -Captain J. B. G. Isham and others claim They settled upon the Corn stocks, on the Lord Palmerston, on a recent occasion,

Your friend, Yorkshire. Prince William county, Va., July 22

a few days ago. We find the following | bon, but was not from a reliable source. notice of it in the Louisville Journal:

Miss., gives an account of the killing of cursion to the Thousand Islands. one C. H. W. Davidson, a stranger in those parts, on Tuesday night, July 14th, by one plied at Hendon's house for lodgings as a ectady, New York, on the 22d instant. poor traveler, was refused and left the premises. Hendon followed after with a

THO GREAT AMERICAN. — The Giant of the Wort - Some weeks ago we gave a few After thus providing for the conquered facts in regard to the weight and dimenterritory, the Caroline E. foote set sail .- | sions of Miles Darden, who died in Ten-An option was, meanwhile, offered the nessee, and was said to be the largest man prisoners, whether they would be set down in the world. The Jackson (Tenn.) Whig in the mainland of Lower California or be has the following additional particulars of taken to San Francisco. They perferred, the deceased, furnished by the Rev John

He was twice married. His children er California, and the schooner according- are very large but probably none of them ly spread her sails for the Golden Gate. - | will ever be more that half the weight of When near Santa Cruz, however, she ran their father. He was quite retive and stage, and arrived a day or two before the compelled to stay at home or be hauled

In 1819 he made a contract with a taisequently suit was entered against Isham | lor to furnish him a suit of clothes for $50 | and two others, changing them with as- - the cloth was to cost five dollars per yard Upon measurement it took twelve yards of cloth. So the tailor lost ten dollars and the making. The tailor states that three men, each weighing over two hundred pound put the coat on, buttoned it around | diate delivery. them, and walk across the square at Lexor nose-counting process is absolutely necessa- tion of our railways We build monster Tuesday morning, in Fort Washington, on ington. In 1850 it took 13½ yards of flax steamers, tridge mighty rivers, tunnel York avenue, near the Telegraph. The cloth, yard wide to make a coat. It took 16 yards of black velvet to cover the sides and lid of his coffin; one hundred and twenty-five feet of plank to make his cof- to good at 1 60 a 1 65, and prime and choice

> His cossin was eight feet long; across the breast thirty-two inches; across the 88 cents, and 270 bushels prime yellow at 87 head eighteen inches; across the foot four- cents per bushel. teen inches; its depth thirty five inches.— He weighed in 1845 eight hundred and seventy-one pounds. His height was sev- fying the Hair-highly perfumed, superior to any en feet six inches. His weight when he died, as nearly as could be ascertained, was a fraction over 1000 pounds.

the horse that she might by no possibility end after conveying the lieness body of mation which can be procured from per- cy, and if they will neither pay or examine the be seen—and placed his ear to the ground the female into the Fott, strrted in pursuit sons who traveled through the well grow- law, I will teach them, by its enforcement what sons who traveled through the well grow- that law is. naciously to the doctrines of Clay? Then he of those who knew the locality was: 'Well but a few feet distant, and was therefore ded his pursuers by jumping on the boat satisfied that the aggregate clip of this year will exceed that of 1856, by three millions of pounds. A large part if not all of the wool has now passed from the A REMINISCENCE.—A writer of Court farmer to the merchants, and a considerarecollections for an Indiana paper mentions | ble portion into the hands of the buyers | a curious incident within his own experi- for the New York market and Easton manence. Happening to stroll in the United | ufactories. The price paid for the greater | States Court room at Baltimore in 1828, portion of the wool crop range from forty he found "a venerable judge on the bench to fifty cents, and in some of the best disa lawyer addressing the court, and anoth- tricts fifty-five or sixty cents have been Esq., Cambridge, er taking notes of his speech. These three, paid, We are informed that one buyer and the marshall composed every person in this city has in store in Licking counbut myself in the room. They were stran- ty over two hundred thousand pounds, gers. I asked the marshall who they were | which cost over fifty cents per pound .--The judge said he, is Chief Justice Mar- The amount of cash distributed in the State shall, the gentleman addressing the court for wool this year will exceed six millions was Willtam Wirt, and the one taking of dollars. The State has become the

Ecsides the increase in the number of aug5-3t sitions of trust and responsibility. His heroic said to be replete with abuse of the retur- | Clipper, we learn that there are eight and yet, in a city with a population of then | fleeces, the shearing occurred a month later | ANGOLA FLANNEL, deeds will long be remembered by his admiring ned territorial United States functionaries. | thousand Odd Fellows in Baltimore city fifty thousand souls, they were unable to this year then last, and the increase of the growth of wool during this time af-

To Destroy the Chinck Bug.-We fords an increase of eight per cent to the select the following communication, from | clip Buyers are confident that the supthe Alexandria Gazette: ply of wool in the country will tall short Knowing your kind feelings toward my- of the demand and the price cannot recede self, and my fellow-farmers. I hope you This seems probable, as the territory in will think well enough of an experiment, which wool is raised, has been of late years that I have made, to give it publicity in parrowed to the western States, with which your widely spread paper. While cutting | the Eastern could not compete; while the my wheat I observed my field filled (ap- consumption has increased, the Eastern The island of Elide is situated in the parently) with Chinch Bugs They were States have abandoned the competition, ocean, about a mile and a quarter from the so numerous that I apprehended the fate and lest Ohio to furnish the lest wools main coast and Lower California at a point of my Corn, in a field just across the road. now grown. The counties of Stark, Wayne about four hundred miles above Cape St You may rest assured, had the army of Holmes. Licking Franklin, and others in Lucas. It is about the size of Yerba Bue- bugs from the Wheat field, gone promis- the centre of the State, are row as famous na Island and covered over with a rich culously into my Corn field and been al- for their fine wool, as they formerly were bed of guano, varying in depth from five lowed to remain undisturbed, I could not for their great crops of wheat.—Cleveland

FRANCE AND THE NEW SLAVE TRADE. under the Mexican government as assig- edge of the field, in myriads. I then com- said that he had received information, that ness or agents of the Mexican Guano Com- menced applying Soar Subs, by pouring the French had an offer from a firm at pany. It is supposed they have an ar- it on and around the Corn. I assure you Martinique to supply them with 1.200 fine rangement with that company, they to I never saw anything act with such effect. | negroes They could not ultimately befurnish vessels, &c, and participate in the Be careful not to pour the suds in the bud come slaves, but must undergo an apprenprofits of the guano trade. The second of the Corn as it will destroy it. I told ticeship that might degenerate into the claim is represented by Captain W. C. my remedy to several of my neighbors, slave trade, so far as capital was concern. Nyo, with whom other parties are connec- who have been equally as successful as my- ed. He had communicated with the French Government, and had received an assurance that the contract should not go to the renewal of the slave trade, and that MURDER OF A MARYLANDER IN MISSIS- every means should be taken to secure the humane treatment of the laborers, He SIPPI -A man named Davidson, formerly had received information that free Lgeroes of Maryland, was murdered in Mississippi | had been imported into the Isle of Bour-

> Francis P. Blair, Preston King A letter from Gamesville, Hancock co., and Wm. H. Seward are on a fishing ex-

LE Louis Ruttkay, a nephew of Kos-William Henden, of that place. He ap- suth, graduated at Union College, Schen..

No Wonder They Can't KEEP Cool. loaded gnn, and after some words shot | -At Quindaro, Kansas Territory, the him. No explanation is given of the cause | theremometer has marked 106 degrees in of this violent act. Hendon is at large the shade this summer, and at Topeka, dubut the officers of justice are in pursuit of ring the session of the convention, it has Davidson lingered until Friday been as high as 108 degrees in the shade.

Commissioner Mason, it is stated ha definitely resigned the charge of the Pat tive of Maryland, lately resident of Amite

For the "Eagle."

CHARADE. My first is in strife but not in pain, My second is in hail but not in rain, My third is in repose but not in sleep, My fourth is in lament but not in weep, My fifth is in day but not in night, My sixth is in darkness but not in light, My seventh is in holy but not in praise,

My eighth is in wonder but not in amaze, My ninth is in amiable but not in kind, My tenth is in pealing but not in rind, My eleventh is in whiskey but not in rum, My twelch is in fiddle but not in drum, My thirteenth is in water but not in milk,

My fourteenth is in yard but not in sirk, My fifteenth is in ham but not in shoulder, into that port and left Isham, who made tively and labored until about four years My seventeenth is in cabbage but not in potatoe, the rest of the way to San Francisco by ago, when he became so fleshy that he was My eighteenth is in king but not in dictator, My nineteenth is in distant but not in remote, My whole is a gentleman of considerable note. Cambridge, August 3rd.

Baltimore Markets.

BALTIMORE, August 4th. FLOUR AND MEAL. - Howard street by the 100-bbls at $7 75 per bbl. CITY MILLS — The market closed with holders at 7 25 a $7 37 per bol for forward and imme-

Onio.—The market for the week closed with holders asking $7 50 per bbl. Corn Meal. - We quote city manufactured at $3,25 and country do at $3,75 per bbl. GRAIN .- WHEAT .- About 14,500 bushels of fered and sales of mixed white at 1 45 a 1 50, fair white at 1 70 a 1 75. Fair to good red at 1 55a 1 60 per bushel. Conn.—About 360 bushels offered and sold at

BALTIMORE, May 12th, 1857 WOODLAND CREAM."-A Pomade for Beauti-French article imported, and for half the price For dressing Ladies Hair it has no epual, giving ta bright glossy appearance. It causes Genemen's Hair to curl in the nost ratural manner It removes aandruff, always giving the hair the LIGHTNING AT SEA.—Lightning has of appearance of being fresh shampooed Price only fifty cents. None genuine unless signed, FETRIDGE & CO., N. York, Proprietors of the Bulm of a Thousand Flowers Mosqito Bites. - An antidote for the poison of mosquitoes, bees, wasps, &c., has been found in stantly neutralizes the poison and allays the in-

Collector's Last Public Notice.

The subscriber hereby gives notice to the tax him to delay the collection of the taxes after the delinquents that forbearence will be out of the question, and if they will only take the trouble to examine the act of 1853, chapter 184 they Wook .- Erom the most reliable infor- will find the speedy remedy for their delinquen-

ROBERT BELL, Sheriff & Collector, for Dorchester county.

Town Property for Sale.

Mrs. Lake and Miss Muir will offer for sale

Monday, 17th instant, that desirable family residence in Cambridge, recently occupied by Mrs Muir. Apply to either of them, on the premises, or to James B. Lake,

HORSE POWER & THRESHER. FOR SALE,

will sell my horse power and thresher at a reduced price as soon as I get through threshing my wheat. It is one of Mr. Shepperd's make. Sold for no fault other than being too small

J. C. WRIGHT, Hayland.

For under shirts, can be had at ROBINSON'S Cheap Cash Store