OBITUARY.

MR. JOHN J. GREER.

Mr. John J. Greer, of the firm of John J. Greer & Co., wholesale iron and steel dealers, 207-209 West Pratt street, Baltimore, died on Sunday morning at his home, 1819 Park avenue, Baltimore, after an illness of three weeks, aged 57 years. He was a son of the late John J. and Isabella West Greer. During his business career Mr. Greer became prominent in mercantile and manufacturing circles. He was a Mason and Knight Templar. He was also a member of the Baltimore Country Club. He married Miss Rose Ingle, daughter of the late Henry Ingle, a pioneer citizen of Washington, D. C., who survives him. He also leaves four sisters, Mrs. James S. Harris, of near Still Pond, Mrs. Joseph A. Forman, and Misses Anna and Belle Greer, of Baltimore. The deceased was well and favorably known in Kent.

GEORGE T. WILLIAMS.

Mr. George T. Williams, a prominent citizen of Worton died at his home near Worton Station on Friday evening last at 8 o'clock, aged 69 years. Funeral services were held at his late home on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. W. E. Habbert, of Kenton, Del., officiating. Interment was in Chester cemetery. Undertaker W. H. Krusen had charge of the funeral arrangements. Bearers, James T. Dixon, Harry Ivens, Harry Cooper, Samuel Cooper, Harrison Parsons, George Biddle.

Geo. Alfred Rawleigh, the 3 months old son of Mr. Bert Rawleigh, died Saturday and was buried Monday, Interment in Chester cemetery.

A Fine Matinee.

About 200 people were present at Rose Hill track, Wm. A. Bell, proprietor, on Tuesday afternoon to witness the splendid matinee "Workouts" which he had arranged for the occasion. There were such good horses on the track as George Brice's Marvil King, Col. Albert Story's Schley Russell, driven by Howard Story, D. B McMenamin's splendid mare, Gladys, Capt. Wm. C. A. Thompson's fine colt, John B., Wm. A. Bell's handsome Bonnie Lassie, Mr. Stoops' fine colt, Robert Moffett's good five year old mare, Essential, which has developed remarkable speed recently, Mr. Lane's fine colt, and Will Stevens' "My Best Girl." It was a splendid array of horse flesh, and some fast brushes were indulged in. All of the horses worked like they are able to be in the money in the classes in which they have entered at Tolchester next week. Schley Russell and Marvil King, Bonnie Lassie and Gladys, made splendid races, and the spectators were delighted with their performances. John B. had too much foot for the Stoops' colt, but the latter is a fine one and has plenty of speed. Most of the horses went to Tolchester on Wednesday where they are entered in the races next week. These with West Morrell, Black Spider, and Tolchester, which are in Mr. Johnson's string, should be heard from at the fair.

THE REPUBLICAN SITUATION.

The Baltimore Sun, in a ringing editorial on Wednesday, says:

"In the last analysis the Republican situation and claims resolve themselves into a species of political bookkeeping something like this":

Credit—A personally good candidate for Governor.

Debit—1. A party of dangerous composition, with a bad past, a worse present and at the best a suspicious future.

2. A platform with planks in it that suggest weakness, if not insincerity and double-dealing.

3. Two bosses, reputed to be without political principle, who ran the recent Republican convention as a horseman rides a doctile and well-trained horse, and who nominated the Republican ticket and made the platform at their own will and pleasure, with not a delegate in the whole assemblage to raise a single banner of manhood and independence or who had courage enough even to hint that his soul was his own—an object lesson in political despotism, simple, if not pure, and reaching so completely the very apex of personal absolutism that Gorman and Rasin at the zenith of their glory were never arrayed in public convention in such habiliments of autocratic power.

Daughters of America.

Chestertown Council No. 58, D. of A., had the pleasure of entertaining at their meeting held on Monday evening, Aug. 19th, the following State officers: Mrs. Mary Lear, Councillor; Mrs. Mary Byus, treasurer; Mrs. Lizzie Backman, secretary. An address of welcome was made by the councillor of No. 58, Mrs. Ella M. Reiche, followed by an address from each of the visitors. After the regular business was disposed of, refreshments were served, consisting of ice cream and cake. Quite a number of the members were present, and the evening proved to be a very pleasant and profitable one.

School Notes.

Miss Belle Cochran, the noted elocutionist, will give one of her charming readings in the assembly hall of the high school on Tuesday evening in institute week.

Misses McCauley and Melvin, who were awarded scholarships to the State Normal School have declined same.

Teachers Institute will be held Sept. 2nd to 6th inclusive. The schools of the county will open the following week.

MORE INDORSE TICKET.

Since our last issue we have had interviews with several prominent Democrats in reference to the character of the Democratic ticket, and in every instance those with whom we have talked expressed themselves as delighted with the prospect for a grand Democratic victory.

County Commissioner Harry Davis said:—I believe the Democratic ticket will be successful in the state of Maryland as well as in Kent county by a substantial majority. Judge Crothers is a most capable man, and his nomination is a most fortunate one. The state and county needs men of sound financial ability to administer its affairs, and Judge Crothers and Dr. Hering are not only men of high character and great intelligence, but their knowledge of business methods is such as to make both exceedingly safe men to whom to entrust the affairs of state. The ticket is a very strong one, and I feel confident the Democrats will win.

Mr. Thos. J. Willis said: If the Democrats had searched the state over they could not have found a better man for Governor than Judge Crothers. The ticket suits me to perfection. Judge Crothers has made an ideal Judge, and he is a safe man to handle the affairs of State.

Mr. Robert G. Nicholson said: The ticket is a good one, and I believe it will win by a good majority. I am very well satisfied and I believe the people of Kent are pleased with all the nominations.

Mr. Charles Cox Hopper a former editor of the TRASCRIPT, and now the representation of a large wholesale grocery firm in Baltimore said: So far as I have been able to learn the people of Baltimore city are pleased with the nomination of Judge Crothers, and the impression is that he will carry Baltimore city by a safe majority. The nomination of Mr. Gaither for Governor has failed to create any enthusiasm, because of the manner in which he was chosen, and I believe the prospects for Democratic victory are bright.

More Wheat Yields.

Mr. W. Oscar Collier, of Talbot county, a grower of fine wheat and corn, finished threshing his wheat crop last week, and got an average yield of 40⅔ bushels per acre the field over. He is said to grow the finest wheat and corn in Talbot county, and he has frequently sold considerable seed corn in this county through advertisements in the TRANSCRIPT.

Mr. W. S. Moffett, tenanting the James W. Lambert farm in Morgnec, got a splendid yield of wheat, threshing 1875 bushels from 60 acres, an average of 31¼ bushels per acre. Mr. Moffett is an excellent farmer, and has one of the best fields of corn in the county.

The largest crop of wheat grown in this section this year was the yield on Mr. Wm. T. Nicholson's Fancy farm. His yield from 180 acres was 5000 bushels, an average of 27⅞ bushels per acre.

Mr. Walter B. Strong finished threshing this week and his crop is fine. He got an average of 33 bushels from 110 acres. A sheaf of Mr. Strong's wheat was on display in Mr. J. D. Lucas' clothing store window, and attracted much attention because of the size of the straw.

Mr. Robert G. Nicholson takes the palm for the largest yield per acre in Kent county. His average yield is 35½ bushels per acre, and his wheat is in splendid condition. Those who have examined it say it will grade No. 2 anywhere, even in Baltimore. He got an average of 38 bushels from one field.

Wedding Bells.

LEARY—TARBELL.

Miss Lula Iola Tarbell, the popular and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Tarbell, of Syracuse, New York, was married on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, to Mr. Oregon C. Leary, a popular young business man of Rock Hall. The ceremony took place at the home of the groom in Rock Hall, in the presence of a number of invited guests. A reception followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Leary left for a wedding tour after which they will reside in Rock Hall.

PETERSON—WARDEN.

Mr. Mulford Peterson, and Miss Maude E. Warden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Warden, were married at the home of the bride's parents on Wednesday morning at eleven o'clock by Rev. F. T. Little. The wedding came as a surprise to the father of the bride, who, it seems, had not been apprised of the secret. He returned from fishing just in time to see the knot tied, and after the ceremony he remarked that had he remained out fishing a little longer, he would have missed the tieup. The happy couple will reside in Chestertown.
