GRAND DEMOCRATIC RALLY

CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND,

Wednesday Afternoon, Oct. 16,

1907, at 1.30 P. M., in Stam's Hall.

SENATOR ISIDOR RAYNER,
HON. J. W. HERING,
HON. ISAAC L. STRAUS,
HON. C. C. MAGRUDER,

will be present and discuss the issues of the campaign. Every citizen of Maryland is invited to be present. Come hear the reasons why Maryland should have a Democrat as Governor; be represented in the United States Senate by Democrats; have Democrats as Judges of the Circuit Courts; and the county offices filled by Democrats.

EVERYBODY Welcome.

THE auditing committee's report appears in this issue.

SENATOR ISIDOR RAYNER will be one of the principal speakers at the big mass meeting next Wednesday. Democrats, do not fail to hear him.

DO NOT FORGET the Big Democratic Mass Meeting to be held in Chestertown next Wednesday, Oct. 16th. The candidates on the state ticket, and Senator Isidor Rayner will be present and a rousing meeting will be held.

IF WE COULD only get the Republicans to act square about the matter and tell us just why that important minute book was destroyed, perhaps Mr. Russell would not have so much to say about the county finances at present. There was something evidently rotten in the Commissioners' office when the Republican board so mysteriously destroyed that minute book. Why did they do it? Who can tell.

IF THE REPUBLICANS knew that the Democrats had left a deficit of $20000 when the Republican Board got control in 1900, why did they not as servants of the people seek to remedy the evil? They have grown very wise since they were driven from power by a Democratic investigation, and now that they are endeavoring to get control of the county roads again, they are blaming the Democrats with extravagance which they themselves practiced.

A DENIAL.

Senator Foxwell was in Chestertown on Tuesday and made a flat denial of the reported interview which appeared in last week's Kent News. He stated that he made no such statements, and that he is ready at any time to join a movement of the citizens of this county to bring about a better enforcement of the local option law. He will make a public denial of the statements in next week's TRANSCRIPT, and says the published interview in the Kent News is a malicious attempt to injure him personally and politically.

THE CANDIDATES for the United States Senate are invited to attend the Mass Meeting to be held in Chestertown next Wednesday, Oct. 16th. It is hoped that they will be present.

MR. RUSSELL, will you answer this question? What imformation was there in that minute book that compelled its mysterious disappearance, instead of it being handed over to the expert accountant for investigation? There is the secret of Republican extravagance, Mr. Russell, so be frank now, and tell the unvarnished truth.

SIX HUNDRED DOLLARS for road work on nearly one mile of road paid to Mr. Robert Joiner by the Democratic Board. why that is small, when you compare it with $800 which a certain colored politician received for working a quarter of a mile under the Republican Board. Look up the levy, Mr. Enterprise. You'll find it. And there are others.

IF THE REPUBLICANS only spent $19,534.86 on the roads and bridges in 1902, why were they compelled to spend $30,254.71 in 1903? Why, 1903 was the year of the election, and the Republicans spent $10,719.85 more on the roads in 1903, not because the roads needed it but because the Republican party needed the votes of the fellows who got that extra $10,719.85. That is the answer to your question, Mr. Russell, and that's the way the Republicans played politics with the county roads. We got the above figures from Wednesday's Enterprise, and that $10,719.85 was the county's money spent for votes.

DOES ANY ONE have an idea that the Republican Board of County Commissioners would have declared a tax rate of $1.35 in 1903 if they had not been compelled to do so by Democratic investigation? Not a bit of it. Then they are worse than the Democrats whom they accuse of having a deficit of $20,000 when the Repulicans went in. When the Republicans got into control in 1900 the tax rate was 91 cents; when they they went out in 1903 it was $1.35, a difference of 43 cents on the $100, in four years of control. The percentage of increase in the rate in four years of Republican rule is nearly 50 while the percentage of decrease in the rate under Democratic rule is about 16⅔. See!

THE REPUBLICAN GAME.

We have it from reliable authority that the Republicans in this county as well as in the State generally are making a desperate effort to elect the legislative part of their ticket, and have about given up the hope of electing their County Commissioners, because they see the people of the county are not in sympathy with Republica n control of county finances. The Republicans have two reasons for making such efforts as they are doing to win a majority of the legislature. One is that Uncle Bill Jackson and Boss Sid Mudd have agreed to supply the cash for corrupting the voters of the State, in return for their seats in the United States Senate. The other reason is that they hope to control the legislature in order to change the election law, in order that the 60,000 negro voters in the State, who pay very little if any of the taxes, may control elections and make it absolutely impossible for the Democrats ever again to regain possession of the State. With "Sidney and me" in the United States Senate, the State of Maryland would enjoy a position in the Upper House of Congress such as scarcely any other State in the union enjoys, that of being represented in the most completely incapable way it can be imagined. What a change it would be from the dignity and honor reflected upon the State at present by that matchless orator Isidor Rayner, and by the "Grand Old Man of Maryland." William Pinkney Whyte. Mudd and Jackson in the United States Senate would be about as great a reflection as could be cast upon the State of Maryland, and all that the State now stands for in the nation through its representatives, Rayner and Whyte, would be cast aside, and the people of the State would have the unsavory spectacle of two figure heads amidst the cultured intelligence of the country. That much is true. So far as the other reason is concerned it is well-known that the Republicans have no other reason for desiring a change in the election laws, except the prospect of being in a position to enact such legislation as will make their control of the State secure through the franchise of the illiterate and practically irresponsible voters of the State. They are after control, not seeking in anywise the good of the people, and once they get that control, the State will hardly again be Democratic. The Republican party is composed largely of negro voters who pay little or no taxes, and who assume very little responsibility in the affairs of government. The colored voter feels this and he feels that if the Republican party is successful in the State, it will be through his vote that it was accomplished. This gives him a wrong conception of his importance, and he becomes infused with the idea that his services are equally as valuable as his vote, and the farmers and the housewife become the great losers. The conditions of labor are hard enough now upon the farmer and the wife in the home. Republican success means much harder conditions and menace to our insititutions of government and our peace and tranquility, because that success is gained largely through the votes of that class who have more respect for their right to vote than they do for the law and the welfare of the State. It behooves every farmer and every oysterman in the county to vote the Democratic ticket, because it means protection to their interests. The negroes are rapidly coming into competition with the white man upon the oyster bar and the fishing shore, and he is doing this through the influence of the Republican party which fosters a feeling of political and social equality by grossly misrepresenting their importance in politics. We urge the people of the county to protect their interests. We urge them to vote the Democratic ticket regardless of the personnel of the ticket, to which we feel no man can object, because of the principles for which the party stands. It stands for protection of the farmers' interests, for the oystermen's welfare and for the welfare of our domestic life. We urge the people to vote for Slay, Harris and Willis, because we believe they will best represent the interests of the people.

DEMOCRATIC SENATORIAL CANDIDATES.

The following are announced candidates for the United States Senate, having filed their papers before midnight on Tuesday.

For the short term—William Pinkney Whyte.

For the long term, beginning March, 4th, 1909—Edwin Warfield, John Walter Smith, J. F. C. Talbott, Joshua W. Miles, John P. Poe, Joseph B. Seth.

No agreement was reached by the candidates as to the method by which the Senators are to be elected, and the letter of the resolution adopted at the recent Democratic convention and not its spirit will prevail, that is to say the man receiving the majority of the legislative vote and not of the popular vote, will be elected Senator. Gov. Warfield, strongly advocated the popular vote plan, but notified chairman Vandiver in a very significant letter that he would be a candidate under any conditions. We believe the Governor has acted wisely in getting into the fight, for it will not only strengthen the Democratic State ticket, but he will make it extremely interesting for the man who beats him.
