HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

The eleventh grade of the Rock Hall High School chaperoned by the vice-principal, Miss Camp, journeyed to Chestertown last Friday to give battle in a spelling contest with the eleventh grade of our High school. They arrived about 3 o'clock and after a cordial welcome by both teachers and scholars, were invited to the assembly hall where they enjoyed a well earned rest.

The contest was held in Prof. Smyth's room. It was a written contest. The words were selected by Superintendent Melvin who also gave them out in a clear distinct tone.

It was a battle royal, Rock Hall being the victor with the narrow margin of four-sevenths of a point.

The visitors were afterwards delightfully entertained by our eleventh grade. They were served with cake and cream. The visit was returned yesterday.

Below are the averages of the grades, together with the words:

Chestertown:—Margaret Brinsfield, 94; Mary Miller, 100; Harold Matthews, 90; Mary Layman, 98; Galen Vansant, 100; Anna Smyth, 96; Gilbert Jarman, 76; Total 654, average, 93 3-7.

Rock Hall:—Lillian Warner, 72; Robt. Ayres, 100; Anna Mae Ayres, 96; Bessie Wheat, 100; Leonard Leary, 98; Nannie Newcomb, 98; Total 564, average, 94.

Judgment, preferred, cynic, deficit, fealty, futile, heinous, amenable, glazier, architect, surly, unique, reticent, fascicle, interlacing, neuralgia, colloquy, conciliate, docile, caprices, veterinary, innocence, jeopardy, taciturn, conception, felicitous, querulous, perpetually, aggregate, defense, unusually, participate, lichen, prevaricate, decrepit, solicitous, surreptitious, intellectual, convalescent, extemporaneous, intangible, separate, invincible, chagrin, incendiary, nurtured, insatiable, legible, arraign, fascinating.

Don't you think that the public school scholars of today can spell as well as the scholars of years ago?

There are on roll at the Chestertown High school 305 pupils. Below are the number in each room: Miss Harley 30, Miss Leaverton 38, Miss Davis 31, Miss Stewart 34, Miss Thomas 29, Miss Carroll 33, Miss Hurlock 39, Mr. Wheatley 28, Mr. Smyth 43.

The teachers met in Mr. Smyth's room on Wednesday. Questions relative to improvement in school work were discussed.

The graduating class have received their class pins, and on Monday morning after the opening exercises, Miss Anna Smyth in behalf of the class presented their instructors, Miss Carroll, Miss Gooding, and Messrs. Smyth, Wheatley and Blades with one. They are beautifully designed, the colors are purple and gold.

KENNEDYVILLE ITEMS

Good old summer time is gone and we are having very fine autumn days this week and the farmers are making good use of it. Many of them will get done or nearly done seeding wheat this week.

The farmers were so busy and labor scarce that they could not stop to go hear the Democratic speaking on Wednesday last in Chestertown, but you may bet they will be on hand Nov. the 5th which is the day to snow the "Bobtail" Ticket under.

Quite a number of our people are attending the Home Coming in Baltimore and the Jamestown Exposition.

Mr. and Mrs. Tilghman Shafer and daughter, Emma, are taking in the sights at the Exposition.

Messrs. Chas. Hessner, Frank Cullen, John Hessner, Harper Webb, Earl and Chas. Nickerson, Mr. and Mrs. Lin Redmile have seen the Home Coming in Baltimore.

Mrs. Richard Haggerty and mother, are taking a trip to Richmond, Virginia.

Miss Flora Johnston has returned home after an extended trip to Philadelphia.

Miss Katie Hessner is spending a week home with her mother.

Rev. G. J. Hooker made a very plain and forcible talk last Sunday morning and he woke up his congregation too, so come out next Sunday and hear him, you know better what preacher says if you hear him yourself than if some one else tells you.

Mr. William Archbald is telling the boys of the trip he is going to take next week, the boys are quietly waiting to see if he takes it. He has been talking of this trip so long some of the boys will not be surprised if Bill don't take the trip, as he has many things to cause him to change his mind. So we will all wait and see. CITIZEN.
