GOING to the Inauguration of Gov. Crothers on January 8?

IT IS REPORTED that Dr. W. Frank Hines is an applicant for the position of Commissioner of Land Office, and has a strong backing from Kent.

TAFT AND FORAKER are making it about as politically hot out in Ohio as a Kent county primary for control of a delegation to a state convention.

THE BOARD of Police Commissioners have been making things interesting in the Baltimore city police force during the week. Clean her up, Mr. Willis, while you are at it.

JUSTICE J. WATERS RUSSELL informs us that he is not an applicaut for reappointment as one of the Justices of the Peace in this district. He will devote his entire time to his big real estate business.

THE Baltimore American was the only paper in Baltimore that gave recognition to Secretary Lloyd Wilkinson's reply to Gov. Warfield. The Sun and News did not touch it, but the Kent News published the whole thing.

MR. GEORGE HUDSON says he has ordered his full dress uniform and high silk hat preparatory to going on the Governor's staff, but he hasn't seen anything of Old Kris yet. He is busily engaged breaking a fine three-year-old colt to ride in future parades as aid-de-camp, etc.

GOVERNOR WARFIELD on Monday announced the appointment of Rev. Dr. Thomas H. Lewis, president of Western Maryland College, as a member of the State Board of Education to succeed Glenn H. Worthington, Esq., who was elevated to the bench by appointment from the Governor. Dr. Lewis' appointment is a most timely one, and it is to be hoped that Governor Crothers will reappoint the entire board.

WHEN a man or a newspaper stands as the champion of purity in elections and against bribery in one breath or stroke of the pen and then condones that practice when it accomplishes their purposes, why should Governor Warfield or his friends feel humiliated at his plain and manly statement of the truth? Governor Warfield's friends should feel elated that they have a Governor who sets such a high standard of morality in politics.

ONE WEEK from next Monday the legislature will convene, and on Wednesday Jan. 8, Governor-elect Crothers will be inaugurated Governor of the state for a period of four years. Kent county has the honor to be represented in the session by three very able and representative men. Senator Wm. M. Slay will be an honor to his county, just as all of his predecessors have been, and we are quite sure that his actions will be governed by the best interests of his constituents, and that he will labor assiduously for the passage of such measures as will benefit the county and state. Senator Slay is an eloquent speaker, and a shrewd lawyer, and on all important questions, he will be prepared to give logical discussions and opinions, and will uphold the honor and dignity of Kent upon the floor of the senate. Messrs. Harris and Willis are both very capable men. They are agriculturalists of much prominence, and while Mr. Harris has had legislative experience, Mr. Willis is sufficiently well versed in the needs of his county as to be able to take care of its interests—we are sure that both Mr. Harris and Mr. Willis will protect the interest of all the people, and that their career in the legislature will be most commendable. This promises to be a most important session of the legislature. The Democratic party is in almost absolute control, and it has pledged itself in its platform to some extremely important reforms, and the responsibility of the party is indeed great. We trust that it will be equal to the occasion, and that this may be one of the most profitable sessions in the history of the state. Gov. Warfield's message to the legislature will suggest some important measures.

Prosperous New Year

To be HAPPY in the merchandise line the buyer must have GOOD VALUES at all times.

To be PROSPEROUS in any line, one must be ECONOMICAL at all times.

Appreciating these two important points with our people, we have planned a price-pounding-system for the new year, that will put the public to thinking. No one can afford to pay a higher price for STANDARD MERCHANDISE than we shall quote each week, as it will be a source of HAPPINESS to the buyer, and to the economist PROSPERITY.
