FOR PRESIDENT:

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT:

OF INDIANA.

FOR CONGRESS:

J. HARRY COVINGTON,
OF TALBOT COUNTY.

NOTICE TO DEMOCRATS.

Club Organization, September 19, 1908.

For the purpose of advancing the interests of the Democratic Party in Kent county and to more effectually carry on a practical and successful campaign for the election of William Jennings Bryan, candidate for President; John W. Kern, candidate for Vice-President, and James Harry Covington, candidate for Congress in the First Congressional District, we hereby call a meeting in the following districts and precincts of Kent county to organize Democratic Clubs and request all Democrats to attend and give their earnest assistance in the campaign from now until after the election.

The meetings will be called to order at 7 o'clock on Saturday September 19th, 1908.

LEWIN W. WICKES,
JAMES W. IVENS,
JOH C. REDMILE,
Democratic State Central Committee of Kent County.

WE publish elsewhere in this issue the address by Hon. Wm. Jennings Bryan, entitled "The Prince of Peace." Every one should read it. It will be time well spent.

THE Fifth Regiment Armory, Baltimore, has been engaged for Mr. Bryan's speech next Monday evening. This immense hall will hold 12,000 people and we venture to say that it will be filled to overflowing.

HON. J. HARRY COVINGTON, Democratic candidate for Congress, will be in Kent on Tuesday and Wednesday next to meet the voters of different parts of the county. Mr. Covington will speak at a big Democratic rally to be held in Chestertown during court week, particulars of which will be given later.

THE days of registration this year are as follows: Tuesday, September 29, and Tuesday, October 6. These two days are for the additon of new names and for the transfer from precinct to precinct. Here is where the Democrats should get in some important work, and we urge the leaders of our party to purge the books thoroughly, and see that all entitled to vote get on.

MONDAY NEXT marks the beginning of another public school year. We wish the teachers of the schools much success in their noble efforts to make good citizens of our boys and girls, and we indulge the hope that our boys and girls will strive to improve the opportunties for a successful and honorable career in life which one of the best educational systems in the country provides.

WE CALL call the attention of our readers to an article in another column on "Children's Playgrounds." There is a great need for such a place in Chestertown. A number of the ladies of the town are vitally interested in the project, and if the Town Commissioners can be induced to co-operate with those ladies, there may be selected a desirable and convenient place for a playground for Chestertown children. Try it.

MR. T. C. HACKETT, one of our valued subscribers and patrons, and the patentee of Hackett's celebrated Gape Cure for chickens, none better on the market, now sojourning at Pomona, California, in a letter to us this week says: "On my trip west I found a decided Bryan sentiment. Bryan and Kern clubs are being formed here, and California is expected to be found in the Democratic column. The outlook would indicate a Democratic landslide next November." Mr. Hackett is a keen observer and is a close student of political events.

With Our Advertisers.

Annual fall opening week at Hochschild, Kohn & Co's. great Baltimore store begins Sept. 14th. It will be worth the cost of the trip to see the new things and to inspect the fall outfit.

Mr. Rote, the Jeweler, has secured the services of Mr. H. S. Clayton, of Ohio, a graduate optician and an expert engraver.

Fit your boy up with a nobby school suit at J. D. Lucas' big clothing store. He is offering bargains this week.

Abe Cohen, the Wanamaker of the Sixth District, reports record breaking sales, in his special holiday reduction sale. Big crowds all the week, and things have sold like hot cakes. Still there are bargains left, and for the next two weeks look out for others. Things sold as advertised.
