ONE SESSION.

We sincerely trust that our honorable School Board will give most serious consideration to the problem now before them—one session or two sessions for the Chestertown High School during the winter months. We believe the members of the board will act in accordance with their views in the matter as to what they consider the best interests of the children's physical and mental development, and we also believe that they will be governed largely by the experience of other High Schools in the State that have tried and are trying the plan with success. If Baltimore city can accomplish better results with the same school course, than it did under the two-session plan, under the careful and very efficient supervision of Prof. VanSickle, and if other towns whose population is similar to Chestertown in the diversity of the occupation of their citizens, can do the same thing with satisfaction and success under the wise and careful guidance of their examiner, why cannot the plan be worked with equal success and with equal good to the physical and mental development of the children of Chestertown under the care and skillful guidance of Supt. Melvin and the efficiency of Prof. Smyth and his able corps of teachers? The great need of the children now is time for study and recreation. A lengthening of the dinner hour will not relieve the situation very much if the child is to be kept in school until four o'clock. That is not the question. The question to be solved is the great amount of studying to be done in such a short space of time, and with a mind that has not had sufficient time for diversion from books to prepare it for study at night. Give the boys and girls an hour and a half extra to exercise their bodies before supper, and we will leave it to any unbiased physician in Chestertown if his mind is not better able to work and work properly than if it has had only a half hour's rest from that which has occupied it during the entire day, and half the preceding night. We are sure from the experience we have had in teaching that a better and more effective schedule can be arranged by the teachers for the one session plan than they now have for the two sessions, and if the teachers will exercise the necessary discretion in assigning lessons, they can accomplish all that the State Board of Education requires. We believe the matter can be very satisfactorily adjusted, and the question of household inconvenience will adjust itself with the change. We believe the present great and unnecessary strain to which the children are put now can be greatly relieved by the one session plan, and we would suggest that if the plan is adopted, that the hour for dismissal for all grades above the fifth be 2 o'clock in the afternoon with an intermission of fifteen minutes, and for all grades below the fifth from 9 to 11 30 and from 1 to 2. In arranging the schedule to suit these hours many of the corelative subjects can be alternated. It will prove a most excellent plan, and we trust the School Board will try it at least for the coming winter, and if it is a failure they can go back to the two sessions. Just give it a trial.

Wedding Bells.

FORD—HALL.

Miss Frances Weale Hall, of Baltimore, was married at noon yesterday, to Mr. Stephen Hyland Ford, formerly of Earleville, Cecil county, at St. Michael and All Angel's Protestant Episcopal Church, Baltimore, by Rev. John Gardner Murray, the rector.

Miss Helen Yakel was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Beatrice Yakel and Miss Ethel Shriner. Mr. Garner Wood Denmead was the best man. The ushers were Dr John R. Caulk and Mr. John H. Elliott. The ceremony was followed by a wedding breakfast at the bride's home, 14 East Twenty-Second street, Baltimore. A number of Kent countians attended the wedding.

SMITH—PRICE.

Miss Lida Price, of Centreville, and wellknown in this county, was married on Thursday of last week to Dr. Ernest Franklin Smith, of the same town. The ceremony was performed in the M. E. Church, by Rev. H. G. Budd, of Crisfield, a brother-in-law of the bride, assisted by Rev. W. A. Wise, of Centreville. The ushers were Howard A. Johnson, of Baltimore, John L. Tucker, of Centreville, Temple Smith, of Ridgely, and T. Harold Davie, of Centreville. A wedding breakfast was served at the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. D. Troy. Dr. and Mrs. Smith will reside in Centreville.

KERR—BLACKISTON

Miss Edith Blackiston, daughter of the late James E. Blackiston, of Rock Hall, was married in Baltimore on Wednesday to Mr. Frank Kerr, of Baltimore, son of Capt. Kerr, of Rock Hall. After a short wedding tour, Mr. and Mrs. Kerr will reside in Baltimore.

Interesting to Mr. Talbott.

We were in Baltimore recently and met with a gentleman from Baltimore county, a farmer.

We inquired as to conditions in his county and Mr. Talbott's prospects of re-election to congress. The gentleman said Mr. Talbott was all right, and added I will tell you what happened to me several nights ago.

I had a dream—it was the night of the election and I was present in Washington where Uncle Sam was receiving election returns. I saw a broad smile playing over his benevolent countenance and heard him say "Fred's got another term just as I predicted."

Our Baltimore county acquaintance remarked in conclusion that the dream would materialize by Fred's usual majority.

RELIGIOUS MATTERS.

The tablet erected in St. Paul's church in memory of Rev. Christopher Thomas Denroche, will be unveiled immediately after morning prayer, tomorrow, the 17th Sunday after Trinity. Two or three short addresses will be made by special speakers. All friends of the late rector are invited to be present. Service commences at 10.30 A. M.

Sunday was Rally Day at Christ M. P. Church. The morning service was devoted to the celebrationof the sacrament of the Lord's supper, and it was one of the largest communion services seen in the church in years. At the Sunday School session an interesting service of song and an address was rendered. Rev. W. L. White, pastor of the M. E. Church, delivered a splendid address and an orchestra composed of Messrs. Arthur Bacon, cornet; Foster Cannon, trombone, J. Hydie Thompson, clarionet; Warren C. Hurlock and Roland Matthews, violins, James Bacchus accompanist, assisted splendidly in the music. Appropriate and beautiful souvenirs in the shape of hearts with the Lord's Prayer and the Beatitudes printed thereon were given to all the scholars. The Christian Workers service was lead by Miss Mary Elliott, who had prepared a bright and instructive programme upon the subject "Rally to the Work," Miss Addie Hurlock rendered a pretty solo. At the 7.30 service, the pastor, Rev. Dr. F. T. Little preached a fine sermon, to a fine audience on the theme of the day, and a full choir under the direction of Miss Eva Hurlock, rendered special music. The day was a delightful one to the church-giving people.

The Hebrew Day of Atonement, or Yom Kippur, the most solemn day of the Hebraic year, began at sunset Sunday and continued till the corresponding hour on Monday. During that time Hebrews generally abstained from food and drink. The day was observed in all the synagogues, and some of the temples held services continuously. Monday evening the shofar was blown in the synagogues, signifying that the observance of the sacred day was at an end.

Mrs. H. H. Klinefelter, Mrs. W. L. White, Mrs. W. B. Copper and Miss Eunice Lambert have been attending the W. F. M. S. Convention in Baltimore this week.

The parsonage society of the M. E. Church was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Toulson on Tuesday afternoon.

Grangers Attention!

We omitted to state in our last issue when we gave the programme of the county grange meeting at Kennedyville on Thursday, Oct. 29th, that farmers and those interested are urged to make exhibits of corn and other produce. The exhibits of corn are especially asked for, and no exhibitor will be allowed to exhibit more than ten ears or any one variety. Exhibits of wheat, potatoes, apples, keiffer pears, etc., are solicited, and the ladies throughout the county are asked to exhibit specimens of flowers, fall roses, chrysanthemums, or anything that will properly illustrate the floriculturist's art. We urge all grangers to give this feature of the next quarterly meeting their earnest attention and let us have a fine exhibit at Kennedyville on Oct. 29th.
