DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT:

WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN, OF NEBRASKA.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT:

JOHN WORTH KERN,
OF INDIANA.

FOR CONGRESS:

J. HARRY COVINGTON,
OF TALBOT COUNTY.

Political Meetings

At the GRAND DEMOCRATIC RALLY to be held in Chestertown on Tuesday, Oct. 20

AFTERNOON AND EVENING,

the following speakers will be present and address the meetings:

GOV. AUSTIN L. CROTHERS,
SENATOR ISIDOR RAYNER,
SENATOR J. WALTER SMITH
and
HON. J. HARRY COVINGTON, candidate for Congress.

GALENA MEETING.

The Galena Bryan, Kern and Covington Club will hold a public meeting this Saturday evening, which will be addressed by Hon. William J. Ogden, of Baltimore. A big crowd is expected at the meeting, and we are sure they will hear a good speech.

KENNEDYVILLE MEETING.

A meeting of the Democratic Club at Kennedyville will be held Saturday evening, Oct. 17, at 7.30. S. Scott Beck, Esq., and Harrison W. Vickers, Jr., Esq., will address the meeting.

ANDREW CARNEGIE has contributed $20,000 to the Republican campaign fund. What for! In return for the protection he has received from Congress all these years in the production of armor plate.

DR. DANIEL C. GILMAN, president emeritus of Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, and one of the greatest educators in this country, died suddenly this week. Dr. Gilman is a great loss to the educational world.

A BIG meeting was held by the colored people in Lynchburg hall last Monday night. We do not know who the speakers were, but we have heard of quite a number of colored voters in Kent who will refuse to vote for Taft because of his treatment of Senator Foraker. "The negroes' best friend."

FORMER Senator Clarence W. Perkins delivered a fine address to the Bryan, Kern and Covington Democratic club at Betterton on Wednesday evening. Mr. Perkins discussed at length the tariff, the character of the candidates and other subjects of keen interest to the farmers in a very able manner.

Organized labor is awake to the fact that Republican victory means uncut pay-roll on full time.—Chestertown Enterprise.

How about the paper mill, out of town. Been idle since last May. You ought to have more discretion, Mr. Editor, in regard to publishing such a statement as the above, especially when you have such a vivid reminder of the contrary right under your nose.

THE TRUSTS TRY to put their creatures in all official places which touch their interests at any point. They demand subsidies for their ships. They insist that the money of the government be deposited in banks in which they are heavily interested, so they may be able to control the stock markets. Their demands are usually complied with.—Chicago Tribune.

THE President of the United States, Theodore Roosevelt, is accused of bribing a high official in the American Federation of Labor with the promise of making him Commissioner of Immigration if he would forsake Bryan. And the man, named Keefe, agreed to the promise. My, my, what is this country coming to under such an unscrupulous politician as Roosevelt.

THE Republican leaders in Maryland are wondering why President Roosevelt did not include Maryland in the list of States which he claims will cast their electoral votes for Taft. Mr. Roosevelt knew very well that the Republicans have no claim upon this State, although they are making the same hurrah about it that they do before every election and then lose the State.

THE SOLE HOPE of Republican newspapers and individuals in Taft's election in November is founded on money. They certainly cannot base their hopes upon public sentiment, for everywhere you go it is Bryan, Bryan, Bryan, the man of the people, the laboring man's friend, and the enemy of the trusts. So when a Republican or a mugwump newspaper, such as the Baltimore Sun, tells you that Taft is going to be elected, it has been paid to say so, and bases its remarks editorially upon the power of its god,—the dollar. Mr. Bryan has more real friends in Maryland and in the country at large today than ever, and if the State organizations which control the machinery of the Democratic party are playing true to Mr. Bryan, there is no doubt whatever of his carrying Maryland, or being the next President, notwithstanding the Republican dependence upon money. Without money the Republican party is like a ship at sea without a rudder. It can't get anywhere.

HOW IN THE world any man who has his own interests and those of his family at heart, whether he be farmer, laborer or merchant, can vote the Republican ticket in November after an experience of twelve years under Republican administration is a marvel. Has it taken that long for the farmer to see that the trend of Republicanism is directly against him? He gets fair prices for his wheat and corn? Yes, but the profit he makes on his crops goes in a large measure as a tribute to the trusts which make his farm machinery, and in the increased cost of his living expense. Everything he buys he pays a tribute on, and everything he sells he gives a tribute still—that is the policy of the Republican party. With the American laborer and merchant the Republican policy is precisely the same—takes the laborer's onerous toil, gives him his wage, and takes his money and saps his vitality in excessive cost of living to benefit the beef trust, the coal trust, the oil trust, and all other trusts to whom the laborer pays his tribute. It takes the entire family of a coal miner to make a scant living in mining the coal for which he pays a big price to consume, and the railroads are allowed more in freight than the coal costs at the mines, which the consumer pays in tribute to the railroads. The Republican campaigners are whooping up prosperity in the face of a panic which the Republicans themselves created, and upon every issue of their platform they are seeking to deceive the masses of the people while pleasing the "interests" which contribute the money to keep their representatives in office. The Republican argument against the guaranteeing of Bank deposits by the government is the rankest sort of deception in favor of the moneyed interests against the masses, and the Aldrich currency bill, which may be enacted if there is a Republican majority in Congress, is nothing save a trick to give J. P. Morgan, Rockefeller and others control of the money of the country. The Republican party is against the poor man and the middle man every time, and yet it is upon this very class of voters that their spellbinders are practicing their greatest deception. Can't these voters see this before it is too late? Vote for Bryan's election, and secure equality of rights. No mill will stop. The money shark will be after money under Bryan as well as he has been under Roosevelt. All he wants is money, and his mills will grind it out under Bryan just as well as under any one else. Don't be deceived people. Get in the game, and vote for Bryan.

LOWER DUTIES NEVER.

It ought to be unnecessary to introduce "The American Economist," organ of the Protective Tariff League. It is the gospel of the standpatters, and outside of the trust experts themselves the potent dictator of the schedules of duties. Chief of its executive board is former Governor Herrick, of Ohio, now conspicuous in National committee activity. It defends Speaker Cannon and inveighed against the Roosevelt choice of Mr. Taft, because he had shown the petty taint of advocating lower Philippine duties. Hear its latest fulmination:

According to the clear language and plain purport of the Republican platform, the basis of all duties must be normal and adequate protection first, last and all the time. On that basis there can be no reciprocity treaties. The door is closed, as it should be, against tariff reduction in the interest of more foreign trade. Higher duties may, in certain circumstances, be levied; lower duties, never. And unless we consent to lower our duties below the line of normal and adequate protection—the protection that provides for a "reasonable profit to American industries"—we cannot enter into any reciprocity arrangements at all.

That is the authentic, and likewise defiant chart of the new dominant wing of the Republican ticket. There is to be no reduction, but only increases. McKinley's Buffalo speech for reciprocity is expunged from the party creed. The denunciation by Dalzell, Fordney and Payne, of the ways and means committee, of the German trade agreement is endorsed. This is the real Republican tariff plank, and it spells not revision but simply the enactment of a new list of maximum duties. Foreign trade is prohibited and the home market fallacy galvanized into life.

This same periodical, despite constant admonitions from honest Republicans, still charges the panic of 1893 upon the Wilson-Gorman bill enacted 14 months later, and it still cites Mr. Cleveland's indignant note to that designed bill, as if his complaint was that its duties were not higher, instead of not lower, as any man honest with his own brain knows.

Sassafras News.

Mrs. Ida Cliff, of Florida, and Mrs. Robert Cann, of St. Gearge's, Del., visited Sassafras on Monday.

Mrs. J. D. Davis visited her brother, Mr. Staats, at Fairlee, on Sunday.

Mrs. Daniel Mitchel and children, who have been visiting Mrs. John Ernest, returned to Atlantic City this week.

Mrs. Bertie Singleton and children, of Wilmington, Del., visited Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Morris last Saturday and Sunday, and the children had a fine time gathering chestnuts.

Our paper-hanger, Mr. W. S. Morris, has been busy papering the pretty homes in Galena for the past week, and next week will finish papering Mr. Andrew Woodall's beautiful house.

Order of Publication.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, Maryland in Equity.

No. 1639.

Henry Tillison, paintiff, versus
Mamie Tillison, defendent.

The object of this suit is to procure a decree divorcing the said Henry Tillison from the said Mamie Tillison, a vinculo matrimonii.

The bill of complaint and the amendment thereto state that the said Henry Tillison was married to the said Mamie Tillison on or about October 4th, 1893, they resided together in Butlertown in Kent County, Maryland; Camden, New Jersey, and again in Butlertown till on or about October, 1900, when the said Mamie Tillison deserted the plaintiff. That the cause of her said desertion was the discovery of her adulterous relations with one Robert Coleman. That this separation continued till December, 1903 when they again lived together in Wilmington, Delaware, till about March, 1904 when the said Mamie Tillison again deserted her said husband, the plaintiff, without any cause or provocation. That said last mentioned desertion has continued uninterruptedly for at least three years, and is deliberate and final, and the separation of the parties beyond any reasonable expectation of reconciliation. That there have been no children born to the parties to this cause as a result of said marriage. That the said Mamie Tillison, the above named defendant, is a resident of the State of Pennsylvania and a non resident of the State of Maryland.

It is thereupon, this 10th day of October, 1908, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent county, Maryland, in Equity, that the plaintiffs, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent county, once in each of four successive weeks before the 16th day of November, 1908, give notice to the said absent defendant of the objects and substance of this bill of complaint and the amendment thereto warning her to appear in this court in person or by solicitor on or before the 4th day of December next to show cause, if any she has, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
