ABOUT YOUR FRIENDS.

We are very glad to state that reports from Mr. Wm. Watts Clendaniel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. M. Clendaniel, of near Kennedyville, who sustained a bad fracture of the arm and leg, by a fall from a chestnut tree several weeks ago, who is now in the Union Protestant Infirmary, is getting along nicely, and his full recovery is confidently expected.

Miss Sue Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Miller, has been appointed to a scholarship in Washington college.

Mrs. Frank M. Miller forwarded Gov. Crothers a number of her choice chrysanthemums one day last week. We are sure the Governor appreciated the compliment, for Mrs. Miller's flowers are among the loveliest we have seen this year.

Mrs. Lavina Ruth, mother of Mr. Frank H. Ruth, the wellknown Galena merchant, quietly celebrated her 90th birthday on the 16th of this month. Mrs. Ruth received the congratulations of her many friends, and is enjoying excellent health.

Mrs. Walter T. Pippin went to a Baltimore Hospital this week for special treatment.

We are very glad to state that Dr. John W. Lowe, of Baltimore, who has been quite ill for sometime, is much improved. Dr. Lowe is a brother-in-law of Mrs. Charles R. Twilley, and his many friends here hope for his speedy recovery.

Mrs. J. W. Flesh, of Piqua, Ohio, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Wm. F. Russell a few days last week. She returned home on Monday accompanied by her niece, Miss Carmeta Russell, who will spend a month with her aunt.

Miss Corinne Kyle, of Baltimore, is the guest of Mrs. W. E. Loud, near Fairlee.

Miss Daisy Nicholson attended a birthday dinner given to Mrs. Edith Sprigg Waddington, by her husband at Hotel Caswell, Baltimore last Friday evening.

Mr. W. Henry Brown, Jr., of Philadelphia, visited his parents in Chestertown the past week.

Miss Mary A. Brown, teacher of Cliff City school, has been quite sick for the past two weeks.

Mr. Clinton W. Wroth returned Tuesday from a well earned vacation spent with friends in Harford county.

Mrs. H. C. D. Winkinson and son, John, of Baltimore, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Barnes.

Mrs. Harry C. Willis and Miss Blanche Smyth spent last week with friends in Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Russell spent a part of last week in Baltimore.

Mrs. S. E. Blackiston, of Virginia, who has been the guest of her son, Mr. P. A. M. Brooks and Mrs. Harriett Welch, left for her home on Monday.

Miss Nan Freeman, of Norfolk, Va., is the guest of Mrs. E. J. Clarke, on Washington avenue.

Mrs. Wm. J. Vannort is visiting her daughter, Mrs. H. S. Rayner in Balto.

Mrs. Burlin r, of Port Deposit, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Thos. J. Davis, in Flatland.

Master Fay Davis, of Flatland, spent last week with relatives in Baltimore.

Miss Grace Whaland, who has been very ill in Helena, Montana, is reported better, we are glad to state.

Miss Grace Walbert, of near Lankford, has been visiting friends in Frederick.

We are glad to state that Mrs. Akers, who has been quite sick for sometime, is somewhat improved.

Rev. and Mrs. Warren Burr and daughter, Miss Ella Rowley, of North East, Cecil county, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. James A. Casey, in Rock Hall during the week.

Mrs. S. A. Ivens has been visiting her son in Philadelphia and friends in Wilmington, Del., the past week.

Mr. Clarence Newcomb has entered a business college in Baltimore.

Miss Mattie Lewis has been visiting friends in Baltimore during the week.

Col. McCracken, the genial mail clerk on the local road has been enjoying a week's vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. David Kendall and daughter, Helen, spent last week in Baltimore. Mr. Kendall was enjoying his vacation, while Mr. Nickerson substituted for him on his rural mail route.

Mr. Harry Nicols spent a part of last week with his brother, Mr. T. Wright Nicols in Baltimore.

Mrs. Etta Fountain entertained a few friends very pleasantly at cards at her home on Queen street last Friday afternoon.

Dr. Mansfield, of Baltimore, was the guest of friends in town over Sunday.

Mr. Howard Bowers, who has been tenanting the Richard C. Smyth farm, of near Fairlee, will discontinue farming at the end of the year, and will engage in the carpentering business with his uncle, Mr. E. C. Bowers, of the well-known firm of Stavely & Bowers, Lynch.

We are very glad to state that Mrs. S. A. Dodd, who has been quite ill for several weeks, is somewhat improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Lee spent a part of last week in Baltimore.

Mr. LeRoy White, of Baltimore, has been spending a part of the week with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. W. L. White, at the M. E. parsonage. Mr. White is recuperating from a recent severe cold.

The American Star, one of Baltimore City's afternoon papers, in a recent issue, gives a very complimentary description of the well-known piano and organ firm of Sanders & Stayman, represented in this section by Mr. Warren C. Hurlock, of Chestertown. The article pays a very just compliment to Mr. G. Wright Nicols, president of the firm, and brother of Mr. Harry Nicols, of near town. The firm of Sanders & Stayman has had a successful career from its inception but much of its success in recent years has been due to the energy and push of Mr. Nicols, and to the work of such representatives as Mr. Hurlock. It is one of the most reliable piano firms in the State.

The promotions for the year in the battalion of cadets of Charlotte Hall Military Academy, St. Mary's county, were made by the faculty on the 19th. Mr. A. H. Stavely, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Stavely, of Lynch's this county, was promoted to Captain of Company B.
