No. 1639.

Henry Tillison, paintiff, versus
Mamie Tillison, defendent.

The object of this suit is to procure a decree divorcing the said Henry Tillison from the said Mamie Tillson, a vinculo matrimonii.

The bill of complaint and the amendment thereto state that the said Henry Tillison was married to the said Mamie Tillison on or about October 4th, 1895, they resided together in Butlertown in Kent County, Maryland; Camden, New Jersey, and again in Butlertown till on or about October, 1900, when the said Mamie Tillison deserted the plaintiff. That the cause of her said desertion was the discovery of her adulterous relations with one Robert Coleman. That this separation continued till December, 1903 when they again lived together in Wilmington, Delaware, till about March, 1904 when the said Mamie Tillison again deserted her said husband, the plaintiff, without any cause or provocation. That said last mentioned desertion has continued uninterruptedly for at least three years, and is deliberate and final, and the separation of the parties beyond any reasonable expectation of reconciliation. That there have been no children born to the parties to this cause as a result of said marriage. That the said Mamie Tillison, the above named defendant, is a resident of the State of Pennsylvania and a non resident of the State of Maryland.

It is thereupon, this 10th day of October, 1908, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent county, Maryland, in Equity, that the plaintiffs, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent county, once in each of four successive weeks before the 16th day of November, 1908, give notice to the said absent defendant of the objects and substance of this bill of complaint and the amendment thereto warning her to appear in this court in person or by solicitor on or before the 4th day of December next to show cause, if any she has, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

Instruction to Voters.

HOW TO PROCEED TO CAST A BALLOT UNDER THE ELECTION LAW.

Attorney-General Isaac Lobe Strus has prepared the following Instructions to Voters as directed by Artice 33, Code of Public General Laws, and amendments thereto:

1. To vote. Enter room, step to guard rail, give name and registered residence to the Judges. Wait until your name is found upon the registers, then get ballot from the judge in charge of the ballots. See that he has written your name and number on the coupon attached to the ballot and his own name or initials on the back of the ballot itself.

2 Upon receiving your ballot, retire to one of the booths or compartments and prepare your ballot by marking with an indelible pencil after the name of every person, or persons, except Presidential Electors, for whom you wish to vote, and to the right thereof, in the blank space provided therefor, a cross-mark, for example (X); and in case of a question submitted to a vote of the people, by marking likewise in the appropriate space a cross-mark (X) against the answer you desire to give.

In the case of Presidential Electors, you can either make a cross-mark (X) opposite the name of each of the candidates for Presidential Electors (not exceeding eight in number) for whom you wish to vote; or if you wish to vote for the Presidential Electors of any political party you can make a single cross-mark (X) in the square opposite the surnames of the nominees of that party for President and Vice-President. For example, if you wish to vote for the Democratic Presidential Electors, you can either make a cross-mark (X) opposite the name of each of the eight Democratic candidates for Presidential Electors, or you can make a single cross-mark (X) in the square opposite the names of Bryan and Kern. This will count as a vote for each one of the eight Democratic candidates for Presidential Electors. If you wish to vote for some one whose name is not printed on the official ballot you can write the name of such person in the blank space on the ballot provided for that purpose.

3. In marking the ballot you may take with you into the polling place any written or printed memorandum or paper to assist you in preparing your ballot, except a fac-simile of the ballot to be voted. You must prepare and deposit your ballot without undue delay. Before coming from behind the curtain in front of your compartment you must fold your ballot in the same way as it was folded when you received it, so that the marks which you have made upon it shall be entirely concealed. You then hand your folded ballot to the judge at the ballot-box, give him your name and registered address and wait until he tears off the coupon containing your name and number, and strings it, and deposits your bellot in the ballot-box. You must then leave the polling room and cannot again go behind the guard-rail during the day.

4. A voter must not go into any compartment occupied by another or converse with any other voter while engaged in a compartment, nor can he occupy a compartment more than seven (7) minutes if others are waiting.

5. You must not take any ballot outside the guard-rail. If you spoil a ballot you must deliver the spoiled ballot to the judge in charge of the ballots and receive another from him. If you spoil three ballots you lose your vote.

6. A voter who is physically disabled from marking his ballot, must make affidavit to that effect if he desires assistance. The two polling-clerks, after such affidavit has been made, can accompany him into one of the apartments and there mark his ballot as he instructs them, marking only the names of the candidates whom he shall name. The clerks are not allowed to read the ballot to him.

7. Any voter who shall allow his ballot to be seen by any person with the apparent intention of letting it be known how he is about to vote, or place a distinguishing mark upon his ballot, or who shall make a false statement as to his inability to mark his ballot, or who shall interfere or attempt to interfere with any voter when inside the inclosed space in the polling room, or when marking his ballot, or who shall endeavor to induce any voter before voting to show how he marks or marked his ballot, shall be punished by a fine of not less than five ($5.00) dollars nor more than one hundred ($100.00) dollars, or by imprisonment in jail for a period of not exceeding sixty (60) days, or both fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the Court.

Cures Woman's Weaknesses.

We refer to that boon to weak, nervous, suffering women known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Dr. John Fyfe one of the Editorial Staff of THE ECLECTIC MEDICAL REVIEW says of Unicorn root (Helonias Dioica) which is one of the chief ingredients of the "Favorite Prescription":

"A remedy which invariably acts as a uterine invigorator * * * makes for normal activity of the entire reproductive system." He continues "in Helonias we have a medicament which more fully answers the above purposes than any other drug with which I am acquainted. In the treatment of diseases peculiar to women it is seldom that a case is seen which does not present some indication for this remedial agent." Dr. Fyfe further says: "The following are among the leading indications for Helonias (Unicorn root). Pain or aching in the back, with leucorrhœa; atonic (weak) conditions of the reproductive organs of women, mental depression and irritability, associated with chronic diseases of the reproductive organs of women; constant sensation of heat in the region of the kidneys; menorrhagia (flooding), due to a weakened condition of the reproductive system; amenorrhœa (suppressed or absent monthly periods), arising from or accompanying an abnormal condition of the digestive organs and Anæmic (thin blood) habit; dragging sensations in the extreme lower part of the abdomen."

If more or less of the above symptoms are present, no invalid woman can do better than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, one of the leading ingredients of which is Unicorn root, or Helonias, and the medical properties of which it most faithfully represents.

Of Golden Seal root, another prominent ingredient of "Favorite Prescription," Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago, says:

"It is an important remedy in disorders of the womb. In all catarrhal conditions * * and general enfeeblement, it is useful."

Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati, says of Golden Seal root:

"In relation to its general effects on the system, there is no medicine in use about which there is such general unanimity of opinion. It is universally regarded as the tonic useful in all debilitated states."

Prof. R. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Medical College, says of Golden Seal:

"Valuable in uterine hemorrhage, menorrhagia (flooding) and congestive dysmenorrhœa (painful menstruation)."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription faithfully represents all the above named ingredients and cures the diseases for which they are recommended.

St. Paul's and I. U. Parish.

The Bishop made his annual visitation to this parish on the 10th Sunday after Trinity. He celebrated and preached at the 10.30 service of the Holy Eucharist at St. Paul's Church, and confirmed one person. He also preached at Christ Church, I. U. at the 3 P. M. service. On the following Sunday after the morning service, the ceremony of unveiling the tablet to the Rev. Christopher T. Denroche took place. The usual office of dedication was said, the unveiling being done by a granddaughter of the late rector, Minnie Jones. Special addresses were made by permission of the Bishop by the Hon. J. A. Pearce, Chancellor of the Diocese, and Capt. C. A. Leary, a warm personal friend of Mr. Denroche's, who was associated with him in the erection of a battle monument on Caulk's Field, Kent Co., and also of a stone at the grave of General Philip Reed in I. U. churchyard.

The Rev. S. R. S. Gray, the Rector of the parish made a short address in which he spoke of the work done by "Father" Denroche in his fourteen years ministry in this parish; and drew special attention to three great characteristics of his predecessor. His intense faith, his marvellous pastoral ability and work, and the meekness and humility of his character. His concluding words were, "It is fitting that memorials should be erected to this man, your loving friend and pastor; memorials which will cause future generations to ask the why and wherefore. And so for the history of this faithful priest to be set forth in answer, to old and young, with lessons of his life, a better memorial than wood or stone. The marble altar in Christ Church, I. U.; this tablet on the walls of old St. Paul's, the granite stone soon to the erected at his grave, these are none too much to help keep memory green, and to preach continuous sermons to future generations. At least they are tokens of love to the memory of one of the greatest men Kent county has seen, to one who in the highest sense was a king among men. May he rest in peace and may light perpetual shine upon him."

Judge Pearce then made the following address:—

The parishioners and friends of the Rev. Christopher T. Denroche, late Rector of St. Paul's Parish and of I. U. Parish in Kent county, have assembled this morning in this ancient and venerable church for the worship of Almighty God according to the faith of their fathers, and, as an appropriate incident of that worship, to dedicate in this church to the glory of God, a memorial tablet to His faithful follower and their beloved pastor and friend.

Your Rector has thought fit, that as one of the lay officers of this Diocese, and as a personal friend of Mr. Denroche, I should take some part in this simple ceremony, and I esteem it a privilege to comply with that request.

During my long acquaintance with Mr. Denroche I believe I came to know him well and truly. He was a man of unusual simplicity of character and directness of speech and manner. He was imbued with love for the doctrines and traditions of the historic church of which he was a member and a Priest, but his broad mind and large heart embraced in its interest and affection every Christian membership. He was one of the pure in heart, to whom the promise is that they shall see God. He was an example of that type of personal piety, unaffected, but transparent, which was characteristic of earlier periods and simple life, but which becomes constantly rarer as life grows more complex and luxuries more general and alluring. He knew and felt that "godliness with contentment is great gain" and who sincerely strove "not to covet or desire men's goods, but to do his duty in that state of life into which it pleased God to call him." It would be too much to say that he was distinguished for wide learning and great eloquence, but it is not too much to say that he was thoroughly grounded in the doctrine and history of the church, and that the sincerity and earnestness which shone through all he said or wrote, illuminated his teachings, and gave to his sermons a lasting power and influence, which mere learning and oratory can never give. He knew his sheep, and they knew him, and heard his voice, and throughout the fourteen years that he was their pastor "he fed them with a faithful and true heart." The feeling with which he was regarded by many outside of his congregations, as well as within them, was indicated in the affectionate appellation of Father Denroche—frequently used in speaking of him though not to him.

He was not exempt from the trials and griefs which so often cast down the heart and dim the faith of good men and women, but he never lost his touch in the goodness and mercy of God, nor his serenity of mind and cheerful sympathy with all that was human around him. Sorely stricken in his last years by the death of his wife, he was able to say with resignation though with quivering voice and streaming eye—"The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away. Blessed be the name of the Lord."

When he felt the infirmities of age and disease no longer permitted him to endure the necessary labor of conducting a large country parish, he did not hesitate to resign the charge he loved so well, but instead of seeking the repose for which his physical weakness must have yearned, he sought the less exacting work of a smaller charge with a village church, and gave to St. Augustine Parish in Chesapeake City the same hearty and loyal service he had so long given you. Though a stranger to his new field, he had no sooner clasped hands with his people than a sympathy struck the electric chain wherewith we are all darkly bound, and he possessed himself, in a moment as it were, with their confidence and affection. But he was not detined long to enjoy this new relation. In a short time he was stricken with the fatal disease which required him to relinquish forever his earthly work, and to seek the sheltering roof of one of those Church Homes, which are the fitting havens of the saints of earth who here rest from their labors. How grateful he was for this sweet harbor may be seen from this card which I received from him a few days before his death, written in his accustomed firm hand writing:

"This Harrison Memorial Home for feeble and disabled clergy, Front street and Lehigh avenue, North Philadelphia, Pa., is where I am now, retired as a feeble and disabled clergyman for life. I am made most comfortable, and have the best medical care, and careful and kind nursing, thank God.

Yours faithfully, C. T. DENROCHE."

It is without date, but is postmarked December 15th, 1906. He died December 22, 1906. Should any member of his family desire this card it will be surrendered to him or her.

You do well to honor his memory by this white tablet. It will testify to future generations the esteem and affection in which he was held by those to whom he ministered. But long after all those who knew him here shall have mouldered into dust, and are themselves forgotten—long after this marble shall have crumbled into fragments, or be dissolved in elemental heat, his memory will be precious in the sight of his Lord and Master in Heaven, whose work he did on earth.

MAKE THIS AT YOUR HOME.

Prepare at Home By Shaking Ingredients Well in a Bottle.

What will appear very interesting to many people here is the article taken from a New York daily paper, giving a simple prescription, which is said to be a positive remedy for backache or kidney or bladder derangement, if taken before the stage of Bright's disease:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and again at bedtime.

A well-known druggist here at home, when asked regarding this prescription, stated that the ingredients are all harmless, and can be obtained at a small cost from any good prescription pharmacy, or the mixture would be put up if asked to do so. He further stated that while this prescription is often prescribed in rheumatic afflictions with spendid results, he could see no reason why it would not be a splendid remedy for kidney and urinary troubles and backache, as it has a peculiar action upon the kidney structure, cleansing these most important organs and helping them to sift and filter from the blood the foul acids and waste matter which cause sickness and suffering. Those of our readers who suffer can make no mistake in giving it a trial.
