ABOUT YOUR FRIENDS.

Mr. Frank Legg, of Kent Island, a former wellknown farmer of this county, was in Chestertown on business this week.

Mrs. Rosa Miller, of Philadelphia, has been the guest of Mrs. W. Bradford Copper on Washington avenue during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Nichols moved into the Bacchus residence on High street this week.

Dr. John Wethered, of Canon City, Colorado, has been the guest of his sister, Mrs. Hope H. Barroll, during the past week.

Mr. Wm. R. Aldridge returned from Philadelphia last Sunday evening. Mr. Aldridge reports his daughter, Gladys, improving rapidly.

Mrs. George Brice returned from a protracted visit to Baltimore on Saturday.

Mr. James H. Shuster was in Philadelphia and Wilmington on business on Monday.

Mr. John M. South, our popular photographer, was the guest of Mrs. T. H. Barwick, at "Cedar Lawn," Queen Anne county last Sunday.

Mr. John Hogan who has been farming near Melitota for the past five years has rented his farm and removed to Rock Hall. Mr. Hogan will engage in the freighting business.

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Bennett, of near Kennedyville, gave a birthday party last Sunday in honor of the 18th birthday their son, Edwin, who is a sailor on the Government training ship, Itasca. Among those present were Mrs. Chas. Roeder and children and Miss Bessie Stewart, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. John R. Bennett, Mrs. Susie J. Shallcross, and Ralph Shallcross, of Kennedyville; Prof. and Mrs. J. L. Smyth and daughter, Anna, and Mr. John G. Roland, of Chestertown.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Ford, have returned to Chestertown from their honeymoon tour, and will be at home to their friends, corner Maple avenue and Queen street, after January 1.

Mrs. Richard C. Smith, of near Fairlee, has been quite sick for several weeks.

Mr. Wm. S. Culp spent last week with his daughter, Mrs. Evans, in Baltimore.

Mrs. Wm. C. Plummer, of Baltimore, is the guest of Mrs. William B. Plummer, in Worton.

Mrs. S. A. Anderson, of Worton, enjoyed a birthday on Saturday last which her friends remembered with a beautiful postal shower.

Mr. Roland Matthews has been spending a few days of the week in Baltimore.

Mr. Charles S. Smith made a business trip to Washington last week, accompanied by his brother, Dr. Owen C. Smith, who is recovering rapidly from a recent serious gunning accident. We are glad to report that Mr. Smith is looking remarkably well.

J. Herman Ireland, of Baltimore, has been in Chestertown on business during the week.

Dr. Charles P. Gilpin has been quite sick during the week.

Miss Dovie Connelly who has been in a Baltimore hospital during the past week for special treatment, underwent a successful operation last Wednesday week, and she is improving very rapidly.

Col. Samuel L. Wright and family, will remove to their newly purchased property on Washington avenue now occupied by Mr. Clements Jester and family the first of the year. Mr. Jester expects to remove to Charles county where he has received a very flattering offer to manage a large farm.

Mr. Thomas Yates returned on Monday night from a successful gunning trip to St. Mary's county.

Mr. H. H. Klinefelter has been quite sick during the week suffering with a severe cold.

The many friends of Miss Avis Dodd will be delighted to learn of her great success as a teacher in Howard county. Prof. Melvin, Supt. of our schools was told by the Supt. of the Howard county schools last week at the school commissioners meeting in Baltimore, that Miss Dodd is making an excellent record. He said the school Miss Dodd is in charge of is in better condition that it has been for 10 years, and that the teacher enjoys the respect and esteem of her scholars. Miss Dodd is a graduate in last year's class of Normal Hall, Washington college, and the compliment paid her should prove beneficial to her alma mater.

Mr. and Mrs. William S. Hurlock have issued cards to the marriage of their daughter, Mae Lillian, to Mr. Walter Scott Hill on Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 22d, at half after five o'clock at Kennedyville M. P. Church.
