Subscription $1.00 Per Year

LOCAL MATTERS.

Notice to Patrons.

We take this means of notifying our patrons that we have sent out our bills. We have done this earlier than usual, not only because we believe it to be better business, but because we are anxious to settle up this year's business before the new year becomes too old. We therefore respectfully ask all our patrons to give our bills their earliest attention, and kindly let us have the money for advertisements, job work and subscriptions as speedily as possible.

Mr. George Roland Sells Business.—owing to arrangements which he has made with his creditors, Mr. George Z. Roland has sold his meat and provision business to Sheriff Daniel M. Haddaway, who has taken an inventory of the stock, and opened the store in charge of his two sons. Mr. Roland's liabilities are placed at $3,000 and his assets at $1,000. Mr. Roland has conducted a meat and provision store in the Westcott building on High street for several years.

Not to go to Kennedyville.—The report that Mr. Frank A. Roeder, of Likes, Berwanger & Co., Baltimore, expects to remove to Kennedyville and engage in the merchandising business as reported to us last week is incorrect. Mr. Roeder will remain with the well-known Baltimore clothing firm, where he has built up a large trade, and his brother-in-law, Mr. Wallace Atwell, will continue in business in the property which Mr. Roeder has purchased in Kennedyville.

NEWSY BRIEFS.

*†*Two little girls on High street received a Stieff piano from their parents for a Christmas gift. That wasfine.

*†*125 dogs were killed in the vicinity of Rising Sun on Tuesday as the result of a mad dog bite.

*†*One of Chestertown's prominent residents was out riding in a sleigh on Tuesday for the first time in 29 years.

*†*Washington College closed for the Christmas holidays on Wednesday afternoon and will reopen January 5th.

*†*Tuesday, Dec. 22d, was the first day of winter, and incidentally the date of the first big snow storm of the winter.

*†*We understand that Old Kris had a little pony and cart for one of our nice little Chestertown girls. Did she get it?

*†*We have received beautiful calendars from the Kent County Savings Bank, W. S. & A. M. Culp, for which the doners will please accept our thanks.

*†*The Annual Christmas dance, given by the young gentlemen of Chestertown, will be held in Stam's Hall on Thursday evening next, Dec. 30th.

*†*It was reported that more than $2,000,000 was spent in Christmas gifts in Baltimore city and that 10,000 extra salepeople were employed by the stores.

*†*Mr. Wilbur W. Hubbard this week tranferred the property belonging to his fertilizer business to the Peerless Fertilizer Company, of which he becomes the president.

*†*Mr. William Steel, the well-known plumber of Galena, has finished the erection of a wind-mill and the installation of fine bath-room fixtures for Mr. T. E. W. Crew, on his Lankford farm.

*†*Do not forget the Firemen's Carnival in your Christmas joy. Save some of your money to give to a worthy cause when the carnival takes place—Jan. 26, 27 and 28.

*†*Mr. James T. Beck is driving his handsome Admiral Dewey colt. The youngster should show lots of speed later on. Mr. J. E. Ferguson's pair of Bedworth colts are making fine size and attract much attention when driven double.

*†*Mr. Robinson, of Wilmington, Del., and Mr. Wm. T. Valliant, of Laurel, Del., officials of the Marvel Package Company, were in Chestertown on Monday in consultation with Capt. Curtis E. Crane relative to the construction of a large warehouse at the factory early in the spring.

*†*The directors of the Kent County Savings Bank are considering plans for the erection of a handsome brick building on the site of their present building in the near future. The building will be a vast improvement to that section of the town.

*†*Mr. W. S. Elburn received a half-barrell of southern fruit, consisting of oranges, lemons, tangriens and grape fruit, presented by friends in Florida. An excellent crop is reported from the growers from which this fruit was selected.

*†*The B. F. Bond Paper Company, through its efficient representative, Mr. George Smith, will please accept the thanks of the Transcript for a fine wallet containing an accident insurance policy to the credit of the editors for $1,000 in force for 12 months.

*†*One of our little High School girls went home with her report the other day to show to her papa. She was very proud of the fact that she had received 100 in History, and said to her papa—"What do you think of that? If you want any better than that you will have to wait until after Christmas."

*†*Mr. Joseph Lewis, the well-known meat market man, has a very attractive show window. Two little pigs with an apple in their mouths and decorated with holly, look very tempting to the fellow looking for a good Christmas dinner. Each pig is worth $1.25 and weighs 9 pounds. That beats turkey.

*†*It is reported that Mr. William T. Duyer has had fourteen applicants for the new house he is erecting on his lot on Cannon street. This shows that houses are in great demand in Chestertown. A gentleman recently appointed to a position here wants to remove his family, but can't get a house. Take notice, Mr. Real Estate Man.

*†*As noted elsewhere the Spaffords will give one of their unique entertainments in Stam's Hall on Monday evening, January 4th. We have seen an entertainment similar to this, and we can assure the public that it is fine in every respect. Mr. Vandegrift the manager, has very kindly consented to donate one half the proceeds to the Ladies Improvement Association. There should therefore be a big crowd present.

*†*During the present season A. S. Turner, the hustling Worton grain buyer, has bought enough wheat and corn to fill cars, which, if placed in one train, would reach half a mile. Mr. Turner and his representative, Mr. A. S. Crawford, have been giving highest market prices and have given everybody satisfaction. Our enterprising local buyer, Mr. Chas. W. Kibler, has purchased a great quantity of grain, and our county is fortunate in having two such men as Messrs. Turner and Kibler, who work for the farmers' interests as well as their own.

*†*Deputy Postmaster William H. Lambert was the recipient this week of a large box of the prettiest holly and mistletoe we have ever seen. The greens were sent by the friend in Virginia whose guest Mr. Lambert was recently with Mr. Kibler on a gunning trip. We have never seen anything like it round here and both mistletoe and holly are just as full of beautiful berries as they can hold. Young man, how would you like to catch your best girl under that mistletoe bough on Christmas night! Ask Mr. Lambert to give you a piece.

Wedding Bells.

HILL—HURLOCK.

Kennedyville M. P. Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Tuesday evening when Mae Lillian, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hurlock, became the bride of Mr. Walter Scott Hill. Promptly at the appointed hour to the strains of Lohengrin, skillfully rendered by Mrs. Murray Boyer, sister of the groom, the bridal procession entered the church. First came the ushers, Messrs. J. Heighe Hill and Ralph T. VanDyke, of Kennedyville; Charles H. Harrington, of Centreville, and Wm. J. Hepbrun, of Still Pond, who with the groom wore the conventional black and steel gloves. They were followed by the bridemaids, Misses Anna W. Melvin and Jennie S. Reese, who wore pale blue satin messaline trimmed with silk net and gold embroidery and carried pink carnations and ferns. The maid of honor, Ada R. Hurlock, sister of the bride, wore maize-colored messaline trimmed with Irish lace and carried white carnations. The flower girl, little Miss Mary Wilson Jones, was dressed in white tafetta sunplaited and carried a basket of sweet peas. The ring bearer, Master Baldwin Weer, wore a white broadcloth suit and carried the ring upon a white satin pillow. The bride was beautifully attired in a white duchesse satin directoire gown trimmed with princesse lace veil en train and carried a bouquet of white carnations and ferns. Following the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. E. S. Fooks, a brilliant reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The house was beautifully decoracted with potted plants and flowers, the color scheme being green and white. Their presents consisted of silverware, cut glass and bric-a-brac. After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Hill will reside near Galena, where the groom is engaged in farming. Among the presents was a half dozen sterling silver teaspoons, the gift of the Kennedyville grange, of which the bride is a member.

Officers Elected.

The annual election of officers of Chester Lodge A. F. & A. M., No. 115 was held Wednesday evening last and resulted as follows:

Worshipful Master—Thomas Massey. Senior Warden—H. R. Graham. Junior Warden—Edward J. Clarke. Chaplain—Dr. Henry B. Martin. Treasurer—J. H. Simpers. Secretary—Wm. A. Wheatley. Asst. Secretary—Wm. G. Russell. Tyler—Harry Hodgkin.

Upon the request of the Volunteer Fire Company, the lodge accepted the invitation to lay their corner stone of the new municipal building on or about January 1st.

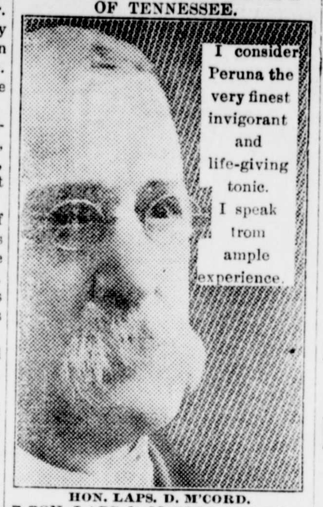
STATE ATTORNEY OF TENNESSEE.



HON. LAPS. D. M'CORD.

HON. LAPS. D. McCORD, 1325 G St., Washington, D. C., Ex-Adjutant General State of Tennessee, and State's Attorney at Nashville, is an ardent friend of Peruna. He does not hesitate to give public endorsement to this very excellent remedy.

As a tonic Peruna has no superior. But it is as a catarrh remedy it has achieved its world-wide notoriety and success.

Any catarrh remedy to become permanently effectual in the cure of catarrh must contain tonic and invigorating qualities with its anti-catarrhal qualities. Catarrh is always an expression of nerve weakness, either local or general. It is, therefore, important that a catarrh remedy should possess reliable invigorating qualities in order to thoroughly rid the system of catarrh.

Pe-ru-na for Colds.

Hon. R. S. Ryan, now residing in Nome, Alaska, was formerly a member of the English House of Parliament and Secretary to the late Irish patriot, Charles Stewart Parnell. His Washington address is, New Willard Hotel, Washington, D. C. He writes:

"I have used Peruna and can recommend your remedy as a very effective cure for colds and catarrhal complaints."—R. S. Ryan.
