THE LADIES' STORE, CHESTERTOWN, M D

JEFFERSON.

PRACTICAL CHRISTMAS GIFTS ARE APPRECIATED MOST.

IT'S TIME to get the Christmas Gift, and we are ready to supply them. The store is filled with an almost endless variety of beautiful, suitable, practical and dependable gifts.

If it is your custom to prepare a list of things you're going to give—bring the list here and we will quietly and satisfactorily meet your requirements; if you haven't decided on what to give, write the names, so you wont miss anybody, and let us help you select the gifts.

This store has helped many with their Christmas perplexities durin our business career, and it is better prepared now than ever.

EVERYTHING HERE IS DEPENDABLE.

We are proud of the fact that everything in the store, no matter how low its price is if satisfactory quality IS DEPENDABLE. This means a great deal to the purchaser at all times, but particularly in connection with goods intended for gifts, there can always be the comfortable feeling that, whatever is given will certainly reflect credit on the giver's good taste and good judgment.

$15 for Women's Tailored Suits, Regular $17 Value

Think of the saving of two dollars on a suit. Every dollar saved is one made.

Fancy Suitings in Herring Bone Serge, black, blue and brown. Every suit is smart, finely tailored and up to the top notch of good style.

We have lots of other good values in higher price suits. We have them here to please everybody's purse.

Coats for Ladies and Children at a Saving of about one-third

Having sold out of nearly everything in our Coat department, we made a search of the city's and the result is that we are here with the goods at a saving to our patrons from one-third to one-half.

Just think of a long semi-fitted coat either in black or brown, lined with satin at $5.00.

These values to be appreciated you have to see the goods.

In our Children's Department we have the largest and best assortment to be found on the Shore.

"Best Shoes You Ever Bought for the Money"

We say this withont the slightest hesitation. Come in and we will prove that the Children, Men and Ladies can get here positively unmatchable elsewhere for the price. Here's what:

For the Baby, from 25c to $1.00 a pair.
For the Children, from 75c to 2.25.
For the Misses, from 1.00 to 3.00.
For the Ladies, from 1.00 to 3.50.

Christmas Sale of Handkerchiefs.

This store has stood the test for several years as headquarters for pure Irish Linen Handkerchiefs. For a Xmas shopping it is far in advance of any previous years.

The Full Holiday Stock Comprises

Women's Plain Linen Handkerchiefs Hemstitched; at 5, 10, 15 and 25c.

Women's hemstitched and embroidered handkerchiefs at 15c, two for 25c.

Womenis fancy pla'ds and embroidered Pure Irish Linen from 25c to 75c each.

Table LINEN Bedroom

"A housewife never existed who had too much table linen in her linen chest," said a lady tenderly fingering a pile of the delicately trimmed articles fresh from the works. A good doily, mat, napkin, cloth, etc., works well, uses well, and is good as long as a particle of it remains.

The same is equally true of the bureau scarf, centerpieces, stand covers, etc., and our line is, to say the least, the cream of perfection. The assortment is equalled by few and surpassed by none.

HARRY F. JEFFERSON,

THE LADIES' STORE,

Opposite Stam's Hall. Chestertown Md

Kennedyville Items.

The old year has bid us good-bye and the new one has introduced itself, and no doubt there have been many resolutions made and many new leaves turned over, but the question is, how long will we stand by them. We will not attempt to answer, as each one can answer for her or himself.

On Sunday next, January 3rd, Rev. Mr. Fooks will preach a new year's sermon, and he desires a full attendance. Everybody welcome. The Sunday School also will have an election of officers for the ensuing year. School opens 9.30 A. M. The C. E. meeting will be led by Miss Nina Pote at 7 P. M. Preaching at 7.30 P. M.

The officers of the Jr. C. E. Society gave a Christmas treat to the members on last Sunday afternoon. A very pleasant time was spent by the society.

While we are not able to ascertain every one who partook of the Christmas hospitality in our community, we remember the following ones who made Christmas by their presence and otherwise more cheerful in our community—Misses Katie and Emma Hessner, Miss Susie Johnson, Mrs. Watts, Miss Mollie Watts, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jefferson and little daughter, Mrs. S. E. Barwick, Professor Smyth and wife and daughter, Miss Carrie Copenhaver, Mr. Frank Dodson and wife, Jesse Medders, Webster Hague, Howard Hurlock, Jack Clerdaniel and Mr. Frank Pote.

Mr. W. A. Pote spent several days in Philadelphia the past week.

The moving picture show given in Weer's Hall on Wednesday night was fine. The bad roads and rainy night was the cause of many missing the show. We hear it is coming again in the near future; we hope so, as it is a good show. CITIZEN.

Betterton Briefs.

A party of coon-hunters, among them the champion coon hunter, Mr. John Henry Crew, one day last week captured four coons.

The bay still remains open to transportation, but the fog on Wednesday night delayed the Ericsson boat that was enroute to Baltimore from Philadelphia several hours.

The Christmas holidays were spent very quietly at Betterton. Among those who visited their homes here were Mr. Scott Crownhart, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Moore, Miss Elizabeth Brice, Messrs. Jack Owens, James Brice and Frank Karas.

Miss Lillie Crownhart has returned home from Virginia, and will remain here until spring.

Misses Helen Crew and Carrie Karas are home from a sojourn in Baltimore.

The Christmas entertainment was held in the church on Thursday evening and largely attended. Much credit is due the young ladies for their untiring efforts.

This community was deeply shocked and grieved to hear on Tuesday morning of the sudden death of Mr. Thos. Shallcross. Although Mr. Shallcross has been a resident of Betterton but two years, no man has endeared himself more to the people, and was more respected than he. His loss will be keenly felt here, and the sympathy of the entire town is with his bereaved wife and family.

Miss Gertrude Emerson is visiting relatives in Wilmington and Phila.

Her many friends are glad to see Miss Bessie Leigh home from a two months visit in Baltimore.

Mrs. Lewis McDade is spending the week the guest of friends in the Monumental City.

Revival services will begin in our church this Sunday. A cordial welcome awaits all who will attend.

Still Pond Items.

Mrs. Lester Coleman, of Baltimore, spent the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Hackett.

Mr. George Winkleman and daughter, Helen, of Baltimore, spent Friday and Saturday with Mrs. Charles Jewell.

Miss Ruby Pfeffer, of Baltimore, is visiting her cousin, Miss Lillias Walter.

Miss Laura Morris is visiting her uncle, Mr. Sam Caldwell, Galena.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jarvis and Miss Marion Hackett, spent Monday with the Misses Helen and Mary Woodall, near Galena.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Crowding are visiting friends in Philadelphia.

Mr. George Baldwin, of Chestertown, visited his cousin, Mr. Elvin Ford, the past week.

Mr. Carl Norris led the Epworth League last Sunday evening for his mother, Miss Sallie Nor is. Had a nice service, Carl, reading and original piece, the reference read by Miss Lillias Walter and a piece of poetry entitled "A Christmas Carol" was read by Miss Marion Hackett.

The League this Sunday will be led by Mr. A. J. Hackett. The League which has been held up-stairs will hereafter be in the Sunday School room, where we think the young people will feel more at liberty to lead.

Revival meetings will begin at Betterton, Sunday evening.

Our Xmas entertainment was held Tuesday evening, Dec. 29, and although the roads were in bad condition, a good crowd was present.

HAPPY NEW YEAR, 1909.

We wish all our readers a Rsal Happy and Prosperous New Year.
