Probable Changes Among Colored Preachers.

The Delaware Conference (colored) of the M. E. Church will meet in Cambridge on the 18th of this month. There will probably be many changes among the preachers, and unless all signs fail, Rev. C. W. Pullett, who has been pastor of Asbury, Easton, for the past two years, will be made superintendent of Centreville District to succeed Rev. N. W. Moore, who has completed his six-year term, and who will go to Ezion, Wilmington. Rev. John R. Holland, now at Chestertown, will probably come to Easton. Rev. Hampton T. Johnson, who built the new Epworth Church at Oxford, will probably be transfered to Atlantic City, N. Y., and Rev. E. E. Parker, of Merchantville, N. J., may come to Oxford. Rev. A. Chase, who has served Royal Oak charge for a number of years, will likely be transfered to an appointment on the Salisbury district, and Rev. R. G. Riley, now at Trappe, may be sent to Crisfield.
