VOL. XLVIII—NO. 42. CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND, SATURDAY, APRIL 3, 1909. $1.00 PER ANNUM.

—THE—

Second National Bank

of Chestertown, Md.

Our Last Statement Showed Assets

Amounting to over . . .	$810,000.00
Paid in Taxes	15,506.19
Paid in Interest to Depositors .	98,582.91

TO THE PUBLIC:—

In our previous letters published in the Transcript during the past month we have shown what this bank has paid in Taxes and what it has paid to its Depositors in INTEREST, as can be seen by the above figures.

We now propose to show that since its organization the Second National Bank has paid to its Stockholders in Dividends amounting to the sum of $54,000.00

This amount has been distributed among our Stockholders by way of Dividends. In other words our Stockholders have received in Dividends during the past sixteen years twice as much as the Stockholders of all the other Banks in Kent County combined (which are now doing business) have received. We have been enabled to do this because we have acted upon the rule:- ''WE TREAT EVERYBODY ALIKE.'' This conduct has begotten in this Community a strong and certain CONFIDENCE in the conservative management of this Bank, due largely to its supervision and control by the National Government. We ascribe our success to this CONFIDENCE which is reposed in us by the Community because it believes that a NATIONAL BANK, conducted according to the LAW, is safer than any other Bank which is not organized, conducted, supervised and managed under the NATIONAL BANKING LAW.

We are held by the Government to a strict responsibility. We cannot loan all of our Deposits. We are required by the Law to keep at all times a Reserve of 15 per cent. of our Deposits.

Remember that during the Panic of 1907-1908, this Bank cashed every check drawn upon it. It never turned away any such check large or small. It not only attended to the needs of its own customers, it was enabled to respond to the calls of many people who then dealt with other Banks. We are always ready to extend this same courtesy. If you need money we are ready and willing to let you have it, whether you are a Customer of this Bank or not.

This bank is BETTER, BIGGER and STONGER than ever.

We pay INTEREST on all SAVINGS ACCOUNTS.

If you are not a Customer of this STRONG BANK we earnestly request you to become one. You will be treated ALL RIGHT.

Very respectfully,

THE SECOND NATIONAL BANK OF CHESTERTOWN, MD.

The Time, The Place
—AND—
THE VEHICLE.

With each spring the question of a new carriage comes up. When you begin to think about a Top Buggy, Surry, Runabout or a special type of vehicle, we want you to think of us. We have spent the winter planning for your needs, picking the best from the builders and hammering the prices down by means of cash payments and large orders. The result of our early buying is a complete line of vehicles of all styles, ranging from the modest road wagon to the luxurious surrey. Every vehicle is the product of a house of standing—something we are sure of, and therefore willing to offer you with our strongest recommendation.

We should like to show you over our floors at any time. We have the largest in the town and one of the largest on the Eastern Shore. You can look now and buy later, or you can buy now for later delivery.

We solicit your patronage,

OBITUARY.

The double funeral services of the late George W. Hatcherson and Mrs. Emily Amelia Nicholson were held from the late residence of the former on Saturday morning at eleven o'clock. A great concourse of friends and relatives was present, and the scene was one of the saddest and most impressive ever witnessed in Chestertown. Revs. Sam'l W. Thomas, of Philadelphia, a life-long friend of Mr. Hatcherson, and Rev. Dr. F. T. Little, conducted the services assisted by Rev. G. A. Morris, pastor of St. James and Lynch. Mr. Thomas' eulogy of the life and character of his deceased friend was beautiful and touching, while the eulogy pronounced by Dr. Little upon the life of both Mr. Hatcherson and Mrs. Nicholson was a beautiful tribute to lives so nobly lived and well spent. It was a most impressive scene as the two hearses moved toward the cemetery and it was even more so as one casket after the other was laid in the grave. The pall bearers were the same as those mentioned in our last issue. A combined choir from St. James and Christ M. P. Churches rendered favorite hymns during the services. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful, a large dayton being required to convey them to the graves. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements.

MRS. MARY P. MEREDITH.

Mrs. Mary P. Meredith, widow of the late Thomas A. Meredith, died at the home of her son, Mr. Wm. T. Meredith, very suddenly on Wednesday afternoon, of hemorrage from the effects of a recent attack of the grippe, aged 75 years. Mrs. Meredith went to her room at one o'clock to lie down, and was found dead in her chair at four. She was well-known in this county, and was a woman of fine Christian character. She is survived by two children—Mrs. Carrie Foreman, of Washington, D. C., and Mr. William T. Meredith, a prominent farmer near Chesterville. Funeral services were held yesterday. Undertaker Wm. T. Hicks had charge of the funeral arrangements.

MR. DANIEL B. NEALL.

Mr. Daniel B. Neall, a former well-known resident of this county, died at his home, 713 W. Cross street, Baltimore, of pneumonia on Saturday, aged 66 years. The deceased was for a long number of years a farmer in this county and was highly esteemed by all who knew him. He was active in politics and was a justice of the peace for one term. He was a candidate for sheriff on the Republican ticket some years ago but was defeated. He leaves three sons and four daughters—Messrs. John, Daniel and Walter Neall, and Mrs. Ella Lofland, Mrs. Mary Hoppe, Mrs. Sallie Long and Mrs. Estelle May. Funeral services were held on Tuesday with interment in London Park cemetery, Baltimore.

MRS. CAROLINE M. HARPER.

Mrs. Caroline M. Harper, widow of Dr. C. Cox Harper, died suddenly at the Louise Home in Washington on Saturday, aged 79 years. Her husband was for years a prominent physician in Centreville and died in 1879. She was the daughter of the late Judge George Stewart and Caroline Carroll Hollyday, of Kent county. She leaves a number of relatives in Baltimore and New York.

I. HILLIARY PARSONS.

Mr. I. Hilliary Parsons, of St. Mary's county, father of Mrs. John G. Westcott, of this county, died on his farm near Leonardtown, on Monday last, aged 78 years. Mr. Parsons was a practical farmer and an enthusiastic Democrat. He was elected several terms as county commissioner and as judge of the Orphans' Court.

MRS. M. V. SUTTON.

Mrs. M. V. Sutton, postmistress at Locust Grove, died at her home in that village on Thursday. Mrs. Sutton had been postmistress at Locust Grove for more than twenty years, and had given the best service and great satisfaction. Funeral services will be held to-morrow (Sunday) afternoon with interment in Galena cemetery.
