CLOTHING OF QUALITY

at low prices is our motto. You can get quality and quantity when you deal with us. Only a trial will convine you that what we offer cannot be bought elsewhere for the same price, nor within 25 per cent.

Remember this is not a manufactured sale, or trying to get rid of odds and ends, but we are offering the newest merchadise of the season at underselling Prices.

Rock Hall Items.

Mr. Frank Satterfield has improved his home on Main street very much by paint. Messrs. Tom Rich and Jim and Will Durding are doing the work. This adds greatly to the appearance of this part of the town.

Mr. Abe Casey has made an addition to his house in the way of a new kitchen.

Now that the weather is clear again the boys of the O. A. B. have resumed their military drills and have quite a number of spectators every time they make an appearance on parade.

Mr. Elmer Leary has a very badly sprained ankle, which was hurt in the lumber yard some way. He ismuch improved and able to be out again.

Harry Wilkins, of Gray's Inn, has just completed a very pretty little speed craft. He built this himself, and he thinks that it will walk away from anything in that creek.

At the town election last Saturday all the candidates on the ticket were elected. They were as follows: A. Alexander, Geo. T. Whaland, James K. Casey, Henry Urie and Charley Judge fine. The mayor has not been appointed yet.

Mrs. Charles Thompson, formerly of Baltimore, died last Sunday of a long and painful illness of complicated stomach troubles. She leaves four sons—John, Frederick, Howard and Charlie Thompson—all of Baltimore. The funeral was held at the house and Rev. J. T. Richardson preached the sermon. She was buried in Wesley Cemetery.

Mr. Frank Gadd, of Baltimore, is the guest of William H. Coleman this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Schwartz and son, Harry, are visiting Mrs. Jack Scoone for a few days.

Don't forget that A. Alexander & Son are still having their Saturday sales, and can give you some good bargains in most any line of goods you wish.

The Baseball Club of this town have been getting in some fine practice and think that they can hold down anything that comes along. We are itching to see a good game and invite any team to come down and tackle the boys. They will make it interesthg for you.

To the Parents of the School Pupils.—Remember that the Rock Hall High School Literary Society have their meetings every Friday afternoon and the faculty would be more than pleased to have you come and attend them. There is always an interesting debate on at these meetings. If the parents show their interest, it will have a tendency to help the pupils.

The flowers which were moved out of the school and put in the mounds in the yard are an improvement to the campus.
