HARRY F. JEFFERSON,

THE LADIES' STORE,

Opposite Stam's Hall Chestertown M

Chesterville Items.

Emmanuel M. E. Church South, wil observe Sunday as Rally Day in the Sunday School at 9.30, and the preaching service at 10.30. All former scholars and members are invited to attend, as well as all who are now members of the Sunday School and church. A cordial invitation is also extended to others. A service of the same character will be held in Trinity, Millington at 2 P. M. and 3.

Mr. Dulaney delivered two eloquent sermons in Emmanuel last Sunday and preached at the evening services of Monday, and Tuesday and Wednesday nights.

Mr. Harry Hamilton and brother have finished their work on the church and parsonage and returned to their homes in Georgetown. They are mechanics who need not be ashamed of their work.

Miss Esther Wiltbank died Friday morning after an illness of two weeks. The family has the sympathy of the whole community.

Miss Ada Nowland is visiting Miss Jessie Rollison this week.

Mrs. Geo. W. Jones has been confined to her home for nearly two weeks with rheumatism. Her many friends will be glad to see her out again.

Dr. and Mrs. Gowman sang a very beautiful duet at Emmanuel last Sunday morning.

Mrs. Bennett left for Wilmington where she expects to remain during the winter.

Mr. Jarman has had two buildings removed from the village. It would be a good thing for the place if someone would build a good tenement house or two in the village. They would doubtless bring from six to ten per cent on the money invested.

Mr. John Martin is to move out to "Number Ten." The neighbors about him regret that he is to leave the community.

League service in Trinity and Emmanuel Sunday night at 7.30. Preaching in Emmanuel at 8.

Galena Ripples.

Mr. Powell Ford, of Baltimore, formerly of Galena, and Miss Mary Clair, of Philadelphia, were married at the home of the bride in Philadelphia on Sunday.

Mr. J. Thomas Pennington is visiting relatives and friends in Virginia.

Mr. Joseph Dixon has begun the erection of a new dwelling on Phelps avenue for himself.

Mr. Samuel G. Caldwell is remodeling his J. W. Latimer property, and will soon have a very pretty home.

Mrs. Thomas Nickerson spent Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. Clough, in Masseys.

Mr. William Steele and sister, Miss Mary, are visiting relatives and friends in Dover.

Mrs. Vansant, of Chestertown, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Thomas Stradley.

Mr. Hiram C. Powell lost a valuable mare last week. She broke her leg and had to be killed.

Mrs. Weer, of Kennedyville, Mr. and Mrs. William Money and Mrs. Peddicord, of Coleman's, visited their father, Mr. Louis Hayes, on Sunday. Mr. Hayes has been in feeble health for some time.

Mr. Rod. Vansant launched a fine new power boat this week. The boys christened her the "Alphonsa B."

The corn crop in this section is generally good. Mr. Holt Woodall on the McCauley farm expects a yield of 75 bushels per acre from a part of his tillage. Dr. Scott also has a good prospect.

Mrs. John Briscoe returned from a visit to her son in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruth are visiting in Baltimore this week.

Worton Items.

Miss Bessie Cooper has returned home after a pleasant visit with her friend, Miss Ella Faulkner, Ford's landing.

Miss Ethel Rash has returned home after spending some time with friends in Baltimore.

Mrs. Samuel Loller and son, William, visited her mother, Mrs. Wm. Tarbutton, on Sunday.

Mrs. James P. Sutton, of Betterton, has been spending sometime with her daughter, Mrs. J. Edw. Stouffer.

Miss Mary Keyser, of Chestertown, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Keyser.

Mr. Clarence Newcomb, of Chestertown, visited his sister, Mrs. Harry Fowler, on Sunday.

Mrs. James P. Sutton and daughter, Mrs. Edw. Stouffer, and children, visited Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Tarbutton near Melitota on Sunday.

Quite a number of our farmers in and around our town have had sick horses during the past week. The fine driving horse belonging to Mr. Samuel Loller has been sick, also the young four-year-old Bedworth colt belonging to Mr. C. Romie Sutton, has had to have the attention of Dr. McDowell, of Middletown, several times. Dr. McDowell pronounces them much better at this writing.

Reports are that our cannery here will close last of this week or middle of next week. While some of our farmers have had good yields, some others have had a poor crop.
