SOCIETY REALMS.

The Trustees of the Maryland Agricultural College, and the Board of Visitors and Governors of Washington College will please accept the thanks of the editors for invitations to the annual commencement exercises of these honored institutions.

Mr. and Mrs. Satterfield, of Rock Hall, spent Sunday with their son, Mr. Charles N. Satterfield, on Queen street.

Mrs. George W. Hatcherson returned on Saturday evening from a pleasant visit with her brother, Dr. Albert Nicholson, in Brooklyn, N. Y. We are very glad to state that Mrs. Hatcherson is improved in health. Her brother, Dr. Nicholson accompanied her to Chestertown.

Miss Josephine Hicks, who holds a lucrative position in the south, as representative of Armstrong Cator & Co., of Baltimore, is at home for the summer.

Mrs. Martha McWhorter, of Millington, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George B. McWhorter, on the avenue, this week.

Clerk to the Board of Commissioners Samuel Hicks has rented Mr. Harvey Boggs' residence on Queen street and will remove there July 1. Mr. and Mrs. Boggs left for their new home in Clayton this week. Mr. Robert Moffett and family will occupy their residence which they purchased of Mr. Hicks on Washington avenue after extensive repairs have been made.

Mr. Harry Hurlock, who recently graduated in Osteopathy, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Hurlock.

Mr. Samuel Rodenhiser, one of Baltimore's well-known commission men, has been in the county and town during the week.

Miss Virginia Byron had the misfortune to lose her gold watch while in Baltimore last week. Mrs. Byron lost the watch as she alighted from a car and did not notice the loss until sometime later. It had been her property for forty years and was a valuable time-piece.

Miss Ethel Clements, of near Crumpton, has been the guest of her aunt, Mrs. William E. Jarrell, on the avenue.

Profs. Peet and Charles W. Hall, Mrs. Walker and the Senior Normal class of Washington College, were the guests of Miss Martha Pennington, one of the class, on Thursday of last week, at the beautiful country home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Liston Pennington, near Millington. They made the trip on the morning train and returned in the evening in Mr. Bollinger's auto. The guests were delightfully entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Pennington, and returned home charmed with the beauties of that section of Kent and Queen Annes.

The invitations issued by the graduating class are the handsomest ever issued by the college. They are of fine leather cover with raised lettering and finely engraved inside sheets, giving the program of exercises, the names of the graduates and class officers.

Mr. Marion DeK. Smith returned to his duties in the Civil Engineering Corps of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, in Wilmington, last week.

Mr. Lewin Wethered Barroll will please accept our thanks for an invitation to the commencement promenade of Yale University on Wednesday evening, June 15th, 1910. Mr. Barroll is one of the honor graduates, and a part of his Thesis is published in another column. It will be concluded next week.

Miss Anna Lewis is visiting relatives and friends in Wilmington, Del.

Mr. Thomas DeCourcy Ruth, of Newark, N. J., was the guest of relatives in Kent last week, having made the trip in his automobile.

Mrs. Dr. H. B. Simmons has been visiting relatives and friends in Cecil county.

Prof. Charles W. Hall, of the Washington College faculty, has resigned, to take effect at the close of the school year.

Mrs. Webster N. Haas and Miss Bessie Thurman, of Philadelphia, spent last week with Mrs. Haas' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hyland P. Smith, near Smithville.

Mrs. Walter B. Strong, of Lankford, Miss Laura Jessup, of Baltimore, and Mrs. Lois Johnson, of New York, are visiting Atlantic City.

Miss Estalena Derringer and friend, Miss Upton, of Western Maryland College, are spending the holidays with the former's mother, Mrs. Alice Derringer.

Dr. Billingslea and family, recently returned from the Philippines and her mother, Mrs. Walter R. Graham, of Salisbury, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. John N. Dodd.

Miss Mary Evans, of Baltimore, is the guest of Miss Anne Smith, on the avenue.

Miss Minne Hicks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Hicks, a teacher in the Maryland School for the Blind has been elected a delegate from Maryland, to the National Convention of schools for the blind, which meets in Little Rock, Arkansas, the latter part of the month. She will attend. She expects to be at home to-day for a short time.

Mrs. S. A. Ivens is at the University of Pennsylvania Hospital, Philadelphia, for an operation upon her limb which was fractured last January by slipping on the icy pavement. She was accompanied by her son, Dr. Wm. H. Ivens, of Philadelphia.

The tenth grade pupils of the Chestertown High School entertained the graduating class Tuesday afternoon, giving them an outing on Chester river in motor boats. The trip was a pleasant one and greatly enjoyed by all.

WEAK, WEARY WOMEN

Learn the Cause of Daily Woes and End Them.

When the back aches and throbs.
When housework is torture.
When night brings no rest nor sleep.
When urinary disorders set in Women's lot is a weary one.
There is a way to escape these woes.
Doan's Kidney Pills cure such ills.
Have cured thousands.
Read this woman's testimony.

Mrs. James D. Morris, E. Market St., Georgetown, Del., says: I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills whenever my kidneys have become disordered and from the benefit received, I have no hesitation in praising them highly. At times the secretions from my kidneys became irregular in passage. My back very weak and pained greatly, especially at night when I was unable to rest comfortable. Doan's Kidney Pills soon relieved me and I now feel better in every way."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

BEST BUILDING LOTS

In Chestertown

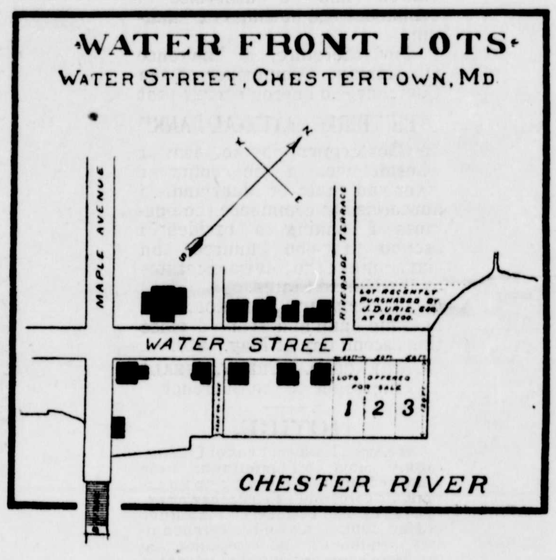
AT REASONABLE PRICES.

No building site quite equals a water front lot. These lots are on the northwest side of the beautiful Chester river, affording a delightful southwest breeze off the water.

They are within several minutes walk of the business section of Chestertown; in a desirable and beautiful section. See the below diagram.

Sewerage system; no dust to contend with. Boating advantages only possessed by Water street lots.

Nos. 1, 2 and 3 are offered for sale. When you see these lots they speak for themselves.



NO. 443—Six Acres, near Smithville, Kent county; fine level, rich soil; 4-room house, new stable; fruit, conveniently located. Price $750.

NO. 526—23½ Acres, Kent county. Price $2000, 7-room dwelling, nice condition, well fenced; some fruit, usual outbuildings, fine neighborhood, close to wharf. Immediate possession. Buildings alone worth over $2000. (Photographs.)

NO. 538—Hotel Property in Betterton on Ericsson avenue; 17 rooms, double porch front, single porch back, stable, carriage house and poultry house. Betterton is one of the growing summer towns of Maryland, and is one of the most healthful localities in the world, and the buildings on the property are in excellent repair, the house having been built only a few years ago. All during the boarding season from 30 to 50 boarders are accommodated here.

NO. 510—Store and Dwelling in Broad Neck, Kent county, Md. Buildings worth easily $800. 1½ acres of land, fruit, stable; near river. Stock of goods at $200. This can be bought at $650.

NO. 339—75x300-foot lot in Rock Hall, near the Adventist Church. Only $225. A bargain that cannot be equaled.

NO. 243—188 Acres, first district, Kent county, Md.; 15 acres in meadow, running stream and woodland, balance tillable; 2 miles from railroad station, near school. 8-room frame house, with cellar and porches, beautiful shade, few pear and apple trees; outbuildings. Price $8000. Easy terms. (Photographs.)

NO. 480—407 Acres, Kent county, 40 acres in oak, hickory, pine, cedar and chestnut; near school and 7½ miles to Chestertown. 6-room frame dwelling, stable, barn, meat-house, sheds, etc. Also 6-room tenant house with usual outbuildings, well fenced. Farm adapted to grass and grain. Excellent neighborhood. Price $18,000. Easy terms.

NO. 528—Store and Dwelling centrally located in Kent county, where once an immense business was conducted; the buildings are in fair repair; 1¼ acres land, also dwelling No. 2 with 5 rooms, stable; some fruit, shade, fine water, and only 3 miles from R. R. station and 2 miles from wharf. Only $1300.

NO. 383—185 Acres, Queen Annes county, Md.; 140 tillable, 6 fields, 45 acres in oak and pine, near Crumpton, light and medium light soil, grain, truck and fruit farm; 9-room dwelling, barn and granary, carriage house, potato house, etc.; shade, clear, cold water. Price $6,500; easy terms. This is a 7 per cent. investment to rent out. Possession January 1, 1911.
