Miss Olive Pennell, a student of Western Maryland College, is at home for the summer. Miss Pennell won one of the gold medals for proficiency in her work during the past year, and she is an honor to Kent County in that institution. Among other honor students were Kent Roberts Greenfield and Robert Gill, both former Chestertown boys.

Mr. and Mrs. Hope H. Barroll and son, Mr. Wethered Barroll, arrived home from New Haven, Conn., on this week, where they had been attending the graduation exercises of Yale University, of which their son, Mr. Wethered Barroll, was one of the honor graduates.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Emory, of Centreville, have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Mary Antoinette to Mr. Herbert H. Warren, on Wednesday afternoon, June 29th, at five thirty o'clock in St. Paul's P. E. Church, Centreville. A reception will be held from one to three o'clock at their home, "Conquest."

Dr. A. S. Hall and family left on Thursday morning for Saline, Michigan, where they will spend the summer vacation.

Mrs. Barrett and daughter, Helen, of Milford, Del., are guests of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. L. E. Barrett at the M. E. parsonage.

Mrs. H. B. Eyde and two children, formerly of Minneapolis, but now of San Francisco, are guests of Mrs. Ruth A. Cahal. Mrs. Eyde is a niece of the late A. J. Cahal, and Mrs. Cahal had never had the pleasure of seeing her and her interesting children.

Mr. Hoburn Y. Yokoyama, a graduate of the Westminster Theological Seminary, will preach in Christ M. P. Church, to-morrow (Sunday) morning. Mr. Yokoyama is traveling over the Maryland District studying religious conditions, preparatory to taking up mission work in his native country, Japan, in the fall.

Interesting Children's Day services were held at St. James M. P. Church on Sunday morning last. A feature of the service was a beautiful solo by Mr. James H. Shuster, of Chestertown. More than $22 was raised for missions.

W. W. Crossley and wife, of New York, and T. C. Perkins and family, of Atlanta, will spend several days at their old home at Lynch's. Mr. and Mrs. Crossley arrived on the 20th and Mr. and Mrs. Perkins joined them on the 23rd. They will probably leave for New York on the 27th.

Mrs. Mary Morris, who had been spending the winter and spring with her daughter, Mrs. Elmore Skirven, in Baltimore, has returned to her Chestertown home for the summer.

IN CHURCH CIRCLES.

In the absence of Dr. Barrett, on Sunday last the Rev. L. S. Matthews filled the pulpit of the Chestertown M. E. Church at both morning and evening services, delivering two interesting and forceful sermons.

Rev. Dr. Louis E. Barrett, had the interesting experiance last Sunday of officiating at the dedication of a new church, where he was pastor 25 years ago, at which the entire cost of the new building, $2,000, was paid during the dedication service. The church is located at Chesconnesix, Accomac county, Va. the congregation is one of the most aggressive of the rural congregations in the Wilmington M. E. Conference. Nearly the entire adult population of the town belongs to the Church, while most of the children attend the Sunday school, and everybody appears to take unusual interest in the affairs of the church, hence the great success of the dedication services on Sunday.

Rev. George E. Wood, a graduate of Washington College, is pastor of the church, and he is meeting with great success in the work there.

How Kent Mutual Does it.

Mr. Charles D. McCleary had two insurance policies in the Kent Mutual. The first was for $1,775 and was in force for 12 years, during which time he paid $107.28. It was cancelled by reason of transfer of the property the other day, and the company paid back to Mr. McCleary $52.68, making $1,775 worth of insurance cost him only $54.65 for the entire 12 years. The second policy was $345 and was in force for 10 years. During the ten years he paid $29 94. This policy was also cancelled last week and the company paid him back $18.30, making $345 insurance cost only $11.46 for the entire 10 years. The entire insurance of $2,120 cost in the 12 years it was in force only $64 27. This is the way the Kent Mutual protects its policy holders, and no wonder it is a flourishing company.
