DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR CONGRESSMAN FROM FIRST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

J. HARRY COVINGTON,

OF TALBOT COUNTY.

BALTIMORE has gone crazy over the flying machiaes.

THE auditing committee for Kent county, Messrs. Edward W. Hepbron, E. Thomas Massey and Henry Brown, are at work examining the accounts, etc., in the office of the County Commissioners.

THE election of Mr. A. L. Dryden to Congress from the First District will mean that Mr. John David Urie will be the recognized leader of the Republican party in Kent county, and that he will be the man to be consulted when any favors are to be handed out from the national government to Kent county. Such a victory for Mr. Dryden will greatly strengthen Mr. Urie in local Republican politics, and will make it a much more difficult proposition to defeat him in a primary contest than it would do if Dryden were defeated.

THE County Commissioners began sitting as a Board of Control and Review on Monday morning, when a number of appeals from the Seventh District, which the General Assessors have recently completed were heard. The Board appointed Mr. Charles W. Kibler its clerk. Mr. Kibler has had considerable clerical experience and his appointment by the Board will no doubt prove to be a popular one. The assessment in the Fifth District has about been completed. The work was commenced there in the last week of August. Governor Crothers has extended the time for finishing the assessment to Nov. 28th, but at the rate at which the work is being done in this county it will be well into 1911 before it is completed. At any rate, it is not thought the assessment will be finished in time to benefit the tax-payers by forming the basis upon which the 1911 tax rate will be declared.

FELLOW-DEMOCRATS, the TRANSCRIPT makes an earnest appeal to every one of you to go out to the polls on Tuesday next and cast your vote for J. Harry Covington for Congress. He is worthy of the suffrage of every man who believes in reforms in government, and though you may think you have no particular interest in a Congressional election, you will be the most mistaken man in the world after the election if you find another Republican Congress elected. Your staying home will help to elect a Republican and this means as much to your pocket as a high tax rate in your county. If a pound of meat costs you 22 cents now where two years ago it cost you 15 cents, there is a reason for it, and that reason is that you stayed at home on election day and allowed the man to be elected to Congress who helps to protect the man who makes you pay more for your meat, and had you gone out to the polls and done your duty you may have been paying 15 cents a pound for meat today instead of 22 cents. Does this interest you? Go out, man, on Tuesday and protect your interests by voting for James Harry Covington.

Halloween Party.

One of the most charming and interesting entertainments in Kent society for many years was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins Burgess, of Gratitude, on Monday evening by their daughter, Miss Rhetta Warfield, of Kent and Baltimore.

It being Halloween, the decorations and games played were in keeping with the occasion. A large Jack o' Lantern greeted us at the door, and once inside we found ourselves veritably lost amid a scene as weird and grotesque as one felt safe to enter. Bowers of autumn leaves and large branches of trees framed cozy corners in every direction—at first sight most tempting, indeed, yet, looking again, we found a witch or ghost always ready to place upon us their icy hand and wreak vengeance. Guided only by the light of Jack o' Lanterns sending their ominous rays through sharp teeth and glaring eyes, we quietly stole from room to room, trusting somewhere to escape the witches ever presence. Finding it useless, we all joined in the merry games until eleven, when we were called to another scene which outrivalled the others. Before us was the table fairly groaning beneath the weight of all the good things that hospitable old Kent can provide and served in Mr. Burgess' inimitable style. Not until long after midnight did we find ourselves able to say the parting word.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins Burgess, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Stevens, Misses Bertie Beck, Bessie, Nannie and Nealie Willson, May Sutton, Hattie Strong, Rhetta Warfield; Messrs. Earle Nicholson, Hynson Beck, Harris Crewe, Richard Willson, Jr., Walter Kenley, Miller Strong, Ringgold Jones, John Willson, Prof. Davis and others.

ELECTION FORECAST.

Democrats Will Make Sweeping Gains All Over the Country, and Will Control the Next House of Representatives.

After a careful survey of general conditions existing throughout the entire country, and the feeling of distrust and unrest on the part of the people with the present affairs of government, causing excessive high cost of living, and almost overpowering burdens to the masses, we predict the following results throughout the country on Tuesday next:

Kent county will give Covington a majority of 137, and the First District will be Democratic by 650.

Maryland will elect four Democratic Congressmen and two Republican Congressmen.

Harmon will be elected Governor of Ohio, and there will be large Democratic gains of Congressmen in that State.

Indiana will elect Kern, Democrat, United States Senator over Beveridge, Rep., and will increase its Democratic representation in Congress.

Taylor will be elected Governor of Tennessee by a small majority.

Woodrow Wilson, Democrat, will be the next Governor of New Jersey, and the Democrats will gain several Congressmen in that State.

Tener, Republican, will be elected Governor of Pennsylvania by a greatly reduced majority, but the Democrats will gain several Congressmen in the Keystone State.

Roosevelt will be licked to a frazzle in New York, and Dix, Democrat, will not only be elected Governor, but the next Legislature will elect a Democrat to succeed Chauncey M. Depew, Republican, in the United States Senate.

Judge Baldwin, Democrat, will be elected Governor of Connecticut and the Democrats will gain several Congressmen in the Nutmeg State.

Foss, Democrat, will be elected Governor of Massachusetts, and the Democrats will make great gains in their Congressmen.

The next House of Representatives will be Democratic by a majority of 20, and Champ Clark will be the next Speaker of the House in place of poor old Uncle Joe Cannon.

Governor Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey, will be the Democratic candidate for the Presidency in 1912, if Mayor Gaynor, of New York, does not want the job. Either will make a powerfully strong candidate for the Democrats.

Wedding Bells.

HENRY--ROGERS.

An event of much social importance last Saturday at noon was the wedding of Miss Mary Ingraham Rogers, granddaughter of Mrs. Richard Hynson, and daughter of Mrs. Marian Rogers, to Capt. Guy Vernor Henry, Twelfth Cavalry, U. S. Army, in Emmanuel P. E. Church. The wedding was military in character, and was one of the most distinguished events ever seen in the town. The church was beautifully decorated with potted plants and ferns, and was well-filled with friends and relatives of the couple. Promptly at the appointed hour to the strains of the wedding march skilfully rendered by Miss Mabel Toulson the bride, leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. R. Hynson Rogers, by whom she was given in marriage, entered the church preceded by her maid of honor, Miss Nellie Roeder, of Baltimore, and the ushers, four army officers, dressed in full uniform of their rank, clanking their swords upon the floor of the church as they proceeded to the chancel, where they were met by the groom and his brother, Mr. Seton Henry, of New York City, who was best man. The beautiful ring ceremony of the Episcopal Church was solemnly and impressively performed by the uncle of the bride, Dr. J. Houston Eccleston, of Baltimore, assisted by the rector, Rev. Dr. H. B. Martin. The ring used was of alluminum set with diamonds. The bride wore an exquisite creation of white panne satin, trimmed with pearl and crystal trimmings and rose point lace. Her tulle veil was caught with orange blossoms fastened with a handsome diamond brooch. the gift of the groom. She carried lilies-of-the-valley. Her maid of honor, Miss Roeder, wore a beautiful gown of yellow satin veiled with chiffon, with a large and beautiful black picture hat. She carried mammoth yellow chrysanthemums. The ushers, dressed in full dress army uniforms, were Captain Frank Ross McCoy, Third Cavalry; Lieut. A. R. Chappee, Fort Myer, Va., and Messrs. DeArmond and Gordon Johnston, United States Army. The best man, Mr. Seton Henry, wore citizen dress. Immediately following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at the home of Mrs. Hynson on Front street, in charge of Caterer Hughes, of Balto., to the wedding party and a few close friends. The spacious home was a perfect bower of beauty. Beautiful potted plants and ferns were used with charming effect in the parlor, library and dining-room. Large pink chrysanthemums adorned the parlor, beautiful red roses the library, and mammoth yellow chrysanthemums added much to the attractiveness of the dining-room. Immediately following the wedding breakfast, Captain and Mrs. Henry left by automobile for Middletown, Del., where they took a private parlor car for an extended wedding tour. They will reside at West Point, where the groom is now stationed. The presents were both costly and magnificent. They consisted of fine cut glass, rare silver, Eastern rugs, bric-a-brac, pictures, fancy embroidery, etc., and were numerous, the silverware being especially rich and handsome. This was from members of the family and relatives of the groom as well as his ushers. Among the out of town guests were Mrs. Henry and daughter, mother and sister of the groom, of New York City; Miss Oudesslys, of Baltimore; Miss Julia Cacy, of Milington; Mrs. Harriett Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hill, of Baltimore, Col. and Mrs. Blunt, of Staten Island, Miss Donaldson, of Baltimore. The venerable and esteemed grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Richard Hynson, and the aged and esteemed aunt, Mrs. Dr. Houston, also attended. The groom entertained his ushers at the Voshell House on Friday evening. A novel feature of the reception was the unique refreshments in the shape of a battle ship with the crew and officers in full uniform represented by the ices.

MRS. EDITH GREENWOOD.

Mrs. Edith Greenwood, wife of Mr. Walter B. Greenwood, tenant on the county farm, died suddenly at eleven o'clock on Thursday morning, aged 35 years. The deceased was before marriage a Miss Moore, of Betterton, daughter of Mr. Thomas Moore. She was a young lady of sweet disposition and most estimable character and her extremely sudden death is a severe shock to her husband and many friends throughout the county. She leaves besides her husband an infant child. Funeral services will be held Sunday morning at ten o'clock from the residence, conducted by Rev. A. H. Covey. Interment will be in Still Pond Cemetery. The pall-bearers will be Messrs. Thomas, Horton and Ray Silcox, Carson Greenwood and Lester Bowers.

The remains of Thomas Copper Benjamin, a former resident of Chestertown, were brought here by train on Wednesday and interred in Chester Cemetery. Services at the grave conducted by Rev. George A. Morris. The deceased was a native of Chestertown, son of the late David Benjamin. He was 41 years of age and leaves several sisters. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of the burial arrangements. Funeral services will be held in Christ M. P. church.

G. B. Krusen, of Vineland, N. J., eldest son of Mr. C. B. Krusen, of Still Pond, died in Aurora, Col., on Saturday evening last, aged 40 years. Funeral took place from the home of his brother, William H. Krusen, yesterday at twelve o'clock and was private. Interment was in the cemetery at Still Pond.
