PROCLAMATION.

BALTIMORE, MD., November 14, 1910.

To the Officers and Members of the Subordinate Councils of Maryland, Greeting:

Whereas, it has become a custom of the Daughters of America to follow the example of our National President, in issuing a proclamation to set aside one day in the year, in which to give thanks to Almighty God for the countless blessings received as a nation and a people, and acknowledge our indebtedness to Him for the prosperity and success with which He has blessed our beloved Order.

Therefore, I, Anna Reviol, State Councilor of Maryland of the Daughters of America, by virtue of the power in me vested, do hereby set aside Sunday, November 20th, as a day of Thanksgiving, and do earnestly request that all members of the Order in Maryland attend divine service on that day, and in giving thanks for the blessings of the past, let us remember to ask Him to comfort and strengthen those of our sisters and brothers who are sick or in distress.

Given under my hand and seal of the State Council of Maryland, this fourteenth day of November, one thousand, nine hundred and ten.

1t. ANNA REVIOL, State Councilor.

Appointed Trustee.—At a meeting of the creditors of Hague & Hackett, of Still Pond, held in the office of the Referee in Bankruptcy, Sidney P. Townshend, Esq., on Wednesday, Mr. Tilghman Shafer, representing the largest number of creditors, was appointed Trustee to settle the affairs of the firm.

Mock Trial.—The local camp of the P. O. S. of A. will hold a mock trial on Tuesday evening next at the meeting in Fraternal Hall. Mr. J. Frank Wheatley is the prisoner. He is held on the charge of stealing a horse and carriage from Mr. John C. Davis and eloping with a dashing widow, and owing to the seriousness of the charge, he has employed the best legal talent in the camp to defend him. The verdict is awaited with feverish interest.

Gunning Notes.

Mr. George Peacock, manager of the Peerless Company's fertilizer factory, has been among our most successful gunners so far this season. Mr. Peacock has been out with his fine bird dog four times and has bagged 29 partridges. Mr. A. L. Carmine has killed 19 in three afternoons sport with his fine setter, and Mr. Thomas Massey has also been very successful. Mr. Carmine is of the opinion that we begin gunning for partridges too early in this county, as many of the birds being killed are young and small.

Swan are reported to be more plentiful in the Chesapeake bay at this season of the year than for many years past, and gunners on Eastern Neck Island have been enjoying fine sport.

The ten-year-old son of Mr. Wm. C. Townsend, of Quaker Neck, was shot in the limb last Friday by a companion and painfully injured. The shooting was purely accidental, and the little fellow is improving.

Gunners around Betterton are having fine sport killing ducks. The ducks on the Susquehanna Flats and in the bay are small and of inferior quality, as yet, and the weather will have to get colder before the sport improves. There are very few good ducks in Chester river yet.

Two Chestertown sportsmen went rabbit hunting in Queen Annes on Wednesday, as guests of one of that county's prominent farmers. One killed 13 rabbits and the other got 9, and they were as tired and hungry as wolves when they reached home.

Game is reported to be more plentiful in Queen Annes than in Kent, and that county has been alive with gunners and dogs all the week.

Our Advertiser's Interest.

Look at B. S. Sutton's great prices for November. Rock Bottom prices on all useful articles. He will give 40 cents per dozen for eggs next Wednesday.

Read Mr. Kramer's change of adv. Mr. Kramer is doing a fine business in Rock Hall, not only because he has the attractive goods, but he has the prices that attract the people. You can't beat his goods for the same money in Kent county. See him.

Hog Killing Supplies of every description at M. A. Toulson's big drug store.

The astonishing prices offered by the Hub, Millington, have brought crowds to the big store. They are offering the best factory made goods at the lowest prices and they have enough to supply all your wants. But go quick. They are the kind of goods that sell as fast as lightning.

Public sale of Household and Kitchen furniture of the late Wm. J. Hurlock at his late home in Kennedyville today. Chance to secure some valuable furniture and household effects.

Read Davis & Satterfield's change of adv. If you want a good Corn Sheller or poultry food to make your hens lay, you can't beat Davis & Satterfield.

James H. Sides is having a big Closing Out sale. Now is your chance to get a fine wedding or Christmas present at greatly reduced prices.

Read Vansant & Newsome's change of adv. this morning. Something worth reading in the clothing and gents' furnishing line.

A. W. Carmine, temporary quarters High and Mill streets, permanent location after January 1, 1911, at Sides' Store, has a full and complete line of groceries at all times. They are good too. Try his fine cheese.

Visit the store of Graham & Clements during the week of Nov. 28th to Dec. 3, and witness the demonstration of the great Domestic Range. This is a sight to housekeepers, and there is no better range made than the Domestic.

Read Bordley's Clothing adv. in this issue. It will save you from $2.00 to $4.00 on either suit or overcoat. He has just returned from the city with a tremendous new stock, and because of the lateness of the season with the wholesalers, will be sold for 33⅓ per cent. less than they are worth.

W. P. Newman, the music dealer, offers a fine gold watch free to any one who will send him the name of any one who you think will buy a piano. See adv. for particulars.
