of Chestertown people will [illegible] great contest.

Washington College will contest for honors with John Hopkins University foot ball team on Homewood field on Thanksgiving Day. A special excursion will be run from Chestertown to Baltimore and return and it is expected that a big crowd of rooters will accompany the local squad. It is a splendid thing that friendly athletic relations have been established between these two institutions and Coach Thompson and the athletic committee, of the college, as well as manager Huston are to be commended for the splendid work they have done for college athletics during the year. The management should be encouraged in a far more substantial manner than they were in the Rutgers game, and it is hoped that a large number of the friends of the local team will go on the excursion and help defray the expense of the venture. Let's all pull together and help make Washington college one of the greatest colleges in the country. The special boat will leave Chestertown at 7 A. M. and re turning will leave Baltimore at 11.30 P. M. This will give excursionists a splendid opportunity to see Baltimore on Thanksgiving day and to witness the game, attend the shows, and return home in time to get a good nap before breakfast.

Governor Crothers and Mayor Mahool have been invited to be present at this game, and both have accepted the invitation. The ball will be put in play by Governor Crothers throwing it into the field from the grandstand.

AGED HORSE IN HAVEN OF REST.

Samuel J. Tilden, 42, Takes Up Life of Ease as Refuge Guest.

Samuel J. Tilden, whom his owner, Mr. Joseph Guest, of Chestertown, declares to be the oldest horse in the United States, started in Monday to be a beneficiary of the Animal Refuge Association in Baltimore, for the rest of his life.

Mr. Guest tearfully said his final farewell to his aged horse, and Samuel was taken to the stable of Mr. Frank Kinnear, 415 North Central avenue, whose wife is vice-president of the association. He will stay there this winter and in the spring will go to the horses' rest farm on the Philadelphia road, where he will join other retired horses in a life of ease.

A veterinarian examined Samuel and found him to be a remarkable animal in spite of his 42 years. All that is the matter with him is a swelling of one hoof, and he has been experiencing a little trouble with the few teeth he has left.

Samuel left town on the steamsr Ford on Monday morning accompanied by his owner, and it was truly pathetic to see the old friend that has become familiar to us all here leave, never more to return.

Held on Murder Charge.

Dan Griffith and Martie Reed, two colored boys, aged about 11 years, were given a hearing Tuesday before Justice Abram Crawford, charged with the murder of Frederick L. Cottman, another colored boy of about their own age. As a result of the hearing both boys were held for action of the Grand Jury without bail. The boys were first arrested last week and the evidence at the coroner's investigation tended to show that the killing was accidental and the boys were released. The testimony given at that time was to the effect that the three boys went out gunning on Wednesday afternoon in Mr Robert Joiner's woods, near Melitota Two of the boys had guns. After they had gone some distance the three sa down to rest, when one of them, Griffith, picked up a gun and playfull pointed it at Cottman, accidentally pulling the trigger, discharging the gu and killing Cottman instantly.

After the exoneration of the boys b the coroner's jury, however, they we overheard to remark that "they h gone after Cottman, and had got him other evidence developed which in cated guilty premeditation and the bo were re-arrested, and after a heari as above stated, were held for n April court.
