THERE is no "IF" about it. It is a plain statement of fact, which cannot be contradicted.

"IF" a bull frog had wings he wouldn't be hopping around on his legs. Ain't it so?

SAY, YOU, Baltimore Sun State Press Critic, what difference does it make whether the farm in the Fourth District of Cecil county or its owner, C. K. Lynch, contains 86 acres, just so Turner Bros., of Betterton, got a good thing when they saw it? Do you want us to establish a school of English for your benefit?

BALTIMORE CITY has a good sized school squabble on its hands. Whatever you do, protect the teachers' interests, and if the members of the School Board cannot work in harmony for the good of the system the Mayor should investigate the matter and put out the disturbing element.

COUNTY Surveyor Gilbert B. Taylor will please accept our thanks for a very comprehensive drawing of a plat of land in Talbot county which he resurveyed by warrant of the circuit court for that county, in the case of Turner vs. Goldsborough, agent. The map is a fine specimen of Mr. Taylor's splendid ability as a draughtsman.

GOVERNOR CROTHERS has appointed a number of editors of Democratic papers throughout the State as a committee on publication to further the interests of the great jollification meeting to be held in Baltimore on January 17, 1911. It is planned to have all the leading Democrats of the country present to enjoy a great Jackson Day celebration of the recent Democratic victory throughout the country. The TRANSCRIPT is represented on the committee by the Senior editor, and the paper will do all it can to assist in making the celebration a great success.

THE Baltimore Sun one day last week contained a most excellent article descriptive of Chestertown and it advanvantages, from a staff correspondent. The people of this town greatly appreciate the compliments paid them by the Sun, which is doing much to bring to the attention of the world the attractions and business advantages of our Eastern Shore towns. Chestertown is the center of the Garden of Eden, and its people are duly grateful for their goodly heritage. If the Bentztown Bard wants to sing of Mince Pie, hambones are sweet, possum meat is very, very fine, or sausage and buckwheat, to a new tune, let him come over for his inspiration.

THERE is a right and wrong side to every question. Judge Pearce is certainly on the right side when he upholds the reason for declaring a tax-rate of $1.85 to be, to pay back debts. That is the only reason such a rate was levied, and until the contrary can be proven to the people beyond the question of a doubt, there is no room for "IF" nor "BUT". Judge Pearce's letter to the commissioners is the worst blow yet, and the enemies of the commissioners, who are seeking to ascribe improper motives to them without being able to prove their charges, are being brought to account by such public spirited citizens as Judge Pearce and hundreds of others in the county.

New Telephone Lines.

The Diamond State Telephone Company is making a most commendable effort to give Kent county splendid service and this week the following telephone companies have been organized:

Worton Telephone Company.—Subscribers—Ralph P. Williams, Harry T. Williams, George T. Williams, agent, Cooper Bros., Herbert M. Matthews, Henry S. Rasin, George W. Meekins.

The terminus of this line will be at the home of Mr. Rasin, near I. U. Church. Work has been commenced and the line will probably be opened for service January 1.

The Worton Point Company—Subscribers—C. R. Skirven, J. R. Usilton, Carroll B. Hazazar, Walter Taylor, Willard Pinder, agent, Wm. B. Willis, Carson W. Harris, J. W. Ivens, Jr., Walter T. Morris, Churn Creek, Laurence S. Costelle, S. Grollman.

The terminus of this line will be at the home of Mr. Harris, and it is hoped to have the service ready by January 1.

The company is stringing two wires to Locust Grove to take in ten subscribers. The line will be ready for service next week and the subscribers are A. R. Chrisfield, G. M. E. Glenn, Robt. R. Hill, G. W. Sutton, W. S. Hurlock, J. Harry Jarvis, E. B. Pennington, Jr., E. S. Hurtt, Jas. Archibald, Raymond H. Bonwell. The service is free as far as Locust Grove, beginning next week. Let the good work go on until there is free service from one end of the county to the other.

IN CHURCH CIRCLES.

Chestertown M. E. Church—Rev. Louis E. Barrett, D. D., Pastor. Services next Sunday, Dec. 4 th, as follows: 10.30 A. M., preaching by the pastor. Subject — "Who? Why?" 2.15 P. M., Sabbath School and Pastor's Bible Class. 7 P. M., song service, followed by sermon by the Pastor. Subject, "The Prodigal Coming to Himself." Fourth in series on parable of Prodigal Son. All welcome to these services.

Rev. Dr. F. T. Little preached an able and impressive sermon to the fraternal orders of the town on Sunday morning. It was an inspiring sight to see so many men assembled together in church. Dr. Little's sermon was full of patriotism and force.

Miss Bertha Stone, of Baltimore, sang a beautiful solo in Christ M. P. Church last Sunday evening. Miss Stone has a sweet voice, and her singing was very much appreciated.

Mr. J. Frank Wheatley led the Christian Workers service in Christ M. P. Church last Sunday evening. A feature of the service was a quartette by Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Usilton and Mr. and Mrs. J. Hydie Thompson.

Special committees on church union from the Methodist Episcopal, Methodist Protestant and Methodist Episcopa South, General Conferences have been holding interesing sessions in Baltimore this week. The great rock upon which the question of union seems now to be stranded is the present power of the bishops. The Methodist Protestants desire to limit this power before a union is made, it is claimed. The question of union will finally be settled by the votes of the members of the churches in their respective conferences, and here is another rock.

The Dorcas Society supper on Wednesday evening was largely attended, and a sumptuous repast, consisting of roast pig, fried oysters, fine ham, salads, Maryland biscuits, pickles, etc., with coffee, chocolate and tea, was served in splendid style. A good sum was realized.

The new "Convention Heater" of the Manuel Heating Company, Indianapolis, Minn., is now being installed in the Kennedyville M. P. Church, to be used for the first time next Sunday. Revival services in the evening at 7 o'clock.

Our Advertiser's Interest.

Mr. John Schofield, Still Pond's Big New Store proprietor, is getting ready for a fine Christmas display, and is going to think for the public what to give as gifts. They have nice packages already prepared for the ladies, and articles of all descriptions to please the children, as well as the grown ups. His big store will be a wonderland next week. So go early and get a choice selection.

Watch for Kilbourn & Bramble's big adv. next week. They will tell you a Christmas story worth remembering and full of profit to your pocketbook. They are making big preparations for Christmas. Watch and wait.

Old Kriss will be at Medders & Co.'s big stores next week. He'll tell you all about it in his big adv. next week.

Pollack's, one of Baltimore's biggest and best furniture stores, is offering fine inducements in handsome rugs and furniture for Christmas gifts. See adv. for particulars.

If you want to take a fine Christmas cruise, consult the adv. of the Merchants & Miners' Transportation Company in this paper.

Abe Coher, Sandy Bottom's department store man, is right there with the goods and the prices this week. Big bargains on best goods. His Christmas assortment will be great. Watch for it next week in the TRANSCRIPT.

The general commission firm of W. S. Bishop & Co., of New York, has been in business for 50 years, and they are known far and wide for their reliability and prompt attention to business. Send your poultry where you are sure to get your money. They pay top prices for poultry and furnish you with quotations every day. See adv. page 1.

The Stam drug store company has a fine display of Chriatmas goods. They are open for your inspection now.

Beck & Ivens, real estate brokers, will have an important change of adv. for next week. This firm has some of the most desirable farm and water front sites in Kent county for sale, and they will offer you some real bargains next week.

Fine display of Christmas novelties at M. A. Toulson's big drug store on the Square.

The Transcript is a Winner.

The fact that the TRANSCRIPT is a most admirable advertising medium has been demonstrated in a most striking manner on four different occasions within the past two weeks.

And so it goes. Here is the evidence of the value of the TRANSCRIPT to all advertisers. It is the most widely-read paper in Kent county, and hence it cannot help but be a big drawing card for those having any business with the public. Try it for your Christmas business. It is a winner every time.

THE TRANSCRIPT wishes the merchants of the town and county the best Christmas trade they have ever had, and we can assure our readers that if they do their Christmas shopping among our advertisers they will get full value for their money.

House of Correction Needs More Prisoners.

Governor Crothers is anxious that judges and magistrates heed the needs of the House of Correction and send more prisoners to that institution in order that it may have enough labor to meet its obligations to contractors. "I desire it known," said the governor, "that I want the judges, magistrates and justices throughout the State to send prisoners who come before them to the House of Correction when the conditions permit. The State's contracts to furnish labor should be adhered to, and whenever it is possible I think that prisoners should go to the House of Correction instead of to other institutions. I would like to have mention made of this, and a more direct notice may be given to those in authority about the matter later on." The manager's complaint was that the House of Correction has not been getting its full share of prisoners.

Worth of Suits and Overcoats have just been opened and added to Bordley's already large stock of Clothing.

These goods were purchased last Tuesday, and because of the lateness of the season with the wholesalers, were bought for 33⅓ per cent. cheaper than they could have been bought two months ago, and will be sold in the same way.

Among the goods were fifty Scotch Cheviot Suits, worth $12.50. They will be sold for the astonishingly low price of $8.50.

Overcoats worth $10.00 and $12.00 will be sold for $6.00 and $8.00.

☞ All the stock that was saved from the fire will be sold for any reasonable offer made.

Respectfully,

Thomas S. Bordley.
