LOCAL MATTERS

Chestertown Man Elected.—Mr. C. H. Wise, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Elliott, of this town, has been elected a member of the City Council of Norfolk, Va. Mr. Wise received 33 votes against 19 for his opponent, and only two candidates ran ahead of him. Mr. Wise is superintendent of a large laundry in Norfolk and is very popular there. His many friends here congratulate him upon the honor he has won.

Found Dead in Marsh.—Mr. John Elliott, a well-known fisherman and trapper of Queen Annes county, was found dead in the marsh of Southeast creek last Sunday morning. One half of the body was in a muskrat lead and the other lying out on the marsh. It is thought that Mr. Elliott had made an effort to pull his boat on the shore, got caught in a muskrat lead, and had an attack of heart failure. His funeral took place in Church Hill on Monday.

Farm Hand Accused.—Considerable excitement was caused in Centreville on Friday when it became known that Mrs. William Pinder, the wife of a farmer living near the town, had complained to the authorities that she and her daugther, Gracie Pinder, 13 years old, had been assaulted by William Hignet, a hired man on the place. By the time the authorities started out to arrest Hignet he had disappeared and a subsequent search proved fruitless. It is believed that he has gone to Crisfield, where he has relatives, and the officials of that place have been asked to keep a lookout for him.

NEWSY GLEANINGS.

Capt S. T. H. Pfeffer has purchased from Mrs. Ephriam Dill, the schooner Chesterfield which belonged to her late husband.

Senator Wm. M. Slay was elected a director of the People's Bank on Wednesday to succeed Mr. I. R. Leaverton resigned.

The Chestertown Automobile Club was entertained by Dr. H. B. Simmons on Tuesday evening at his home on Spring avenue.

Prof. J. S. W. Jones has purchased of Mr. F. H. Russell his building lot on Washington avenue adjoining the property of Mr. D. B. McMenamin.

Bell Telephone subscribers may telephone their telegrams to Western Union offices at established rates, and have bills rendered by telegraph company.

The thoroughbred white Wyandotte pullets working the patent feeder in Mr. Walter Bramble's show window have been the source of much attraction during the week.

Mr. Thomas B Elliott has just finished doing some fine papering for Mr. Andrew Vansant on his farm near Galena. Mr. Elliott also has the contract to paint Mr. Wiliam Robertson's home on Queen street shortly.

Dr. Jarman has been inspecting the fine herd of Guernsey cattle belonging to Mr. Pierson, a wealthy New Yorker, who removed to Claiborne, Talbot county, some years ago. Dr. Jarman was entertained by Mr. Pierson at his palatial home, near Claiborne, during his professional visit.

Mr. Irving L. Dempsey, of Galena, has patented a corn planting machine that entirely eliminates all chain devices for running rows. It is said to be a marvel of ingenuity and does the work that manufacturers have spent hundreds of thousands of dollars to accomplish without success. Mr. Dempsey will no doubt reap a fortune from his invention.

The second in the series of fine lectures being given at Washington College during the winter was delivered on Wednesday evening by C. Delisle Burns, B. A., M. A. (Cantab) Professor of Philosophy at St. Edmund's Old Hall, Ware, England, and staff lecturer for Cambridge Univeraity Extension. The next lecture will be given on Wednesday evening, Feb. 1, by A. Foxton Ferguson, "Folk-lore and Folk-songs of England."

A letter from Mrs. James Brice states that they are having a fine time in Tampa, Florida. Mr. Brice went out gunning the other day and killed 13 quail, and Col. Evans goes fishing almost every day. He went out one day last week and caught 100 big trout. While the gentlemen are enjoying themselves, the ladies go to the orange groves and eat all the oranges they want. We'd go on the next train, if we could.

"500" Club Entertained.

On Wednesday night Miss Edith Robinson entertained the members of the "500" club at her home at Shrewsbury. A number of very interesting games were played after which a salad course was served. High score was made by Mr. Ed. Wallis and Miss Mattie Hepburn; the souvenirs were a silver match box and an irish crochet collar. Mr. Harry Hendrickson received the consolation souvenir.

Those attending were:- Mr. and Mrs. John Comegys, Mrs. Biddle Hossinger, Mrs. Paul Massey, Misses Mattie and Edith Hepburn, Elizabeth Pennington, Emma Davis; Messrs. E. B. Pennington, Jr., Edmund Hurtt, Edwin Wallis, Walter Davis, Edward Hepburn, Harry Hendrickson, Hanson and Wroth Stavely and Wilfrid Robinson.

The Transcript a Necessity.

One of our most highly esteemed subscribers living in Baltimore sends us the following greatly appreciated indorsement of the TRANSCRIPT:

Baltimore, Md., Jan. 21, 1911.

EDITORS OF THE TRANSCRIPT—DEAR SIRS:—I am enclosing money order for $1.00 to pay my subscription to your paper for another year. The TRANSCRIPT continues more and more to be a welcome visitor at our home. Indeed, it is a necessity, and when, by some delay of the mail, it does not reach us on Saturday, we are all disappointed. With hearty congratulations and best wishes for the new year, I remain

Yours truly.

ANOTHER ONE.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 23, '11.

EDS. TRANSCRIPT—DEAR SIRS:—Here is the small account I owe your firm. Were I to delay this matter any longer would feel as though committing highway robbery, for your paper is worth every penny asked—and then some.

Thanking you kindly for past favors, I am

Yours sincerely.

THE GRIM REAPER

MRS. CATHERINE MILLER.

Mrs. Catherine Miller, wife of Mr. Henry Miller, a well-known barber of Baltimore, died at her home in that city last Saturday morning. The deceased was before marriage Miss Kate Green, and was well and favorably known in Chestertown, having clerked for Mr. Charles S. Smith for several years. "Aunt Kate" was a faithful saleslady with a most agreeable and affable disposition. Besides her husband she is survived by two brothers, Messrs. Nicholas and Thomas Green, and a number of nephews and neices, among the latter being Mrs. Charles S. Smith.

The body of Mr. John W. Bordley, whose death was recorded in last week's TRANSCRIPT, reached Chestertown from Chicago Monday afternoon. Funeral services were held from the residence of his sister, Mrs. M. A. Toulson, conducted by Rev. Dr. L. E. Barrett. Interment in Chestertown cemetery. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements. The pallbearers were: Messrs. Clinton G. Wroth, T. S. Bordley, M. A. Toulson, W. M. Thomas and W. B. Copper.

Mrs. Henrietta Anderson, widow of the late Patrick Anderson, of Cecilton, died on Tuesday evening of last week of diabetes, aged sixty-six years. Mrs. Anderson's health had been in a critical condition for a long time and her death was not unexpected. She is survived by four children—Mrs. Mary Manlove, Mrs. William H. Brown, Mrs. William B. Wolleyhan and Mr. John Anderson. The funeral was held Friday afternoon at her late home, interment being made in the Cecilton cemetery.

Mrs. James Baker died at the home of her son on Main street Rock Hall on last Sunday afternoon. Funeral services were held Wednesday. Mrs. Baker is survived by four children: Mrs. Maggie Hartman, and Messrs. Geo. M. and James Baker, of Rock Hall, and Mr. Charles Baker of Havre de Grace.

The little two-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jarrett T. Price, of East Neck Island, died last Sunday afternoon of double pneumonia. Fumeral services were held Tuesday, interment in Wesley Chapel cemetery.

CHURCH WORK.

Mass on Sunday at St. John's Church, Rock Hall, at 8 o'clock sharp, and at Sacred Heart Church, Chestertown, at 11 o'clock.

The Sunday School classes taught by Misses Bessie Wheatley and Fannie Baker held a pleasant "7 social" on Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter U. Lusby. You paid 7 cents to get in, 7 cents to get something to eat, 7 cents to tip the waiter and 7 cents to get out, and everybody had a good time going in, eating and coming out. About $16 was cleared.

On Feb. 5th the Rev. Wm. M. M. Thomas, of Brazil, will deliver an address on missions at the evening service of Shrewsbury Church. At night he will address the congregation of Holy Cross Chapel, Millington.

Special evangelistic services will be held in Christ Methodist Protestant Church in this town, beginning the first Sunday in February. Miss Annie Agnes Smith, of Stapleton, N. Y., will assist Dr. Little, the pastor. Miss Smith comes splendidly recommended by pastors of various Methodist churches in which she has labored from time to time. She is a young lady of fine gifts, educated, refined and an excellent talker. Everybody invited to the meetings.

Rev. Dr. J. M. Sheridan, pastor of the M. P. Conference, will preach at St. James Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and at Lynch in the afternoon at 3 o'clock. A very important subject will be discussed and the public generally is cordially invited to be present. Later, Mr. Sheridan will be unable to fill his engagements in Kent owing to the death of his brother in Baltimore on Thursday.

Sunday service at M. E. Church, Still Pond, J. H. Beauchamp, D. D. pastor. Sunday School at 9.20. Preaching by the pastor at 10.45. The missionary anniversary will take place at 7.30.
