Mr. George's Will.

The will of the late Joseph George, one of the wealthiest men in Queen Annes county has been admitted to probate, and its main features are as follows:

He leaves his daughters, Mrs. Merrick and Mrs. Roe, each two farms.

His son, Mr. John E. George, receives the Wye farm, which came to his father by the will of Mr. John E. George's grandfather.

To his invalid son in Cecil county is left the proceeds of four farms during his life.

The balance of the farms, about 30 in number, are left to his widow for life, then to go to the children, except the home farm which he bequeaths to his grandson, Mr. Dudley G. Roe, on condition that he go to live with his grandmother. Mr. Roe will manage the farms left to his grandmother.

Mr. George also left the income from a number of shares of bank stock for the maintenance of St. Luke's Parish, which includes St. Luke's, Church Hill, and St. Andrew's, Sudlersville.
