RULES ON CONTEST LAW

Court of Appeals Gives Reason For Adverse Decision.

Chief Judge Boyd delivered a detailed opinion in the Court of Appeals at Annapolis on Wednesday giving the reasons of the Court for declaring that a defeated candidate in a primary election has no right to contest the nomination of his opponent under the Primary Election law enacted by the last Legislature. The decision was handed down in the Kent election cases.

The case were argued early in the October term, and a per curiam opinion was delivered promptly. More detailed reasons were withheld until Wednesday.

The principal appeal was that of Garret Foxwell, who was defeated for the nomination as State Senator by William W. Beck by five votes. He instituted a contest, alleging irregularities. The lower court refused his petition.

In upholding the decision of the lower court, the Court of Appeals declared that there is no provision in the Primary Election law by which a defeated candidate for a nomination is given the right to contest. The effect of this is to declare that the candidate declared by the returns and by the Supervisors of Elections to be the nominee is the party's candidate.

After summing up the cases, the court says that if by experience it be found necessary to adopt some method of procedure for a contest or a recount in order to protect candidates for nomination against fraud, some less cumbersome and more expeditious plan than that now provided for contest of a general election doubtless will be provided.

LEGAL HOLIDAY.

GET THE BEST.

In buying shoes bear in mind the fact that there is no part of your apparel that is obliged to stand as much service and exposure and should, therefore, be selected with the view of securing only those composed of the best materials and put together in a substantial and thorough manner.

I have a full and complete stock of Carroll, Adams & Co.'s strictly first-class shoes, including the celebrated FAULTLESS line for fall wear. The best shoes for every-day wear on the market, and a trial will convince you.

I have the most complete up-to-date shoe stock in this vicinity.

Give me a trial.

NOW IS THE TIME

To See About Your Painting.

I give my personal attention to every detail of every painting job. A large part of my success is due to the fact that we use only the best material. Lewis white lead, (Dutch Boy painter, trade mark) and absolutely pure Linseed Oil, our other materials are of equally high value. Always ready to show sample cards and quote prices. Let me estimate on your painting.
