Competition is the Life of Trade

under the present trade conditions. It's up to the merchant alone if he's to be successful or not. The public demands full value for their hard earned dollars, and the stores that can't compete in a legitimate way will sooner or later be forced out of business. The true facts about THE HUB'S BIG DOUBLE STORE'S GREAT SUCCESS in the Clothing Line for men, women and children, is due only to our honest dealing and our KEEN UNDER-SELLING PRICES. Our reputation for selling high-grade clothing at moderate prices in the last few years has set "AGOG" many of the high-priced clothiers within a radius of 25 miles of Millington. REMEMBER, in any event, if goods are advertised elsewhere it's always cheaper at THE HUB'S BIG DOUBLE STORES.

THE NEXT LEGISLATURE.

Democrats and Republicans are much interested in the organization of the next Legislature. The Democrats will control both branches and will elect the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House. The Republicans are most concerned about the committee appointments. For President of the Senate the following names have been suggested—Senator Blair Lee, who can have it without asking for it; Senator J. Frank Harper, of Queen Anne's; Senator E. E. Goslin, of Caroline; Senator Jesse D. Price, of Wicomico, and Senator Campbell, of Baltimore City. Should Senator Lee decline the presidency, there may be a hot fight for the place.

For Speaker of the House, the fight is believed to be between Mr. Ogle Marbury of Prince George's county, and Mr. Harry A. Osborn, of Harford county, though Mr. James A. Dawkins, of Baltimore, has the backing of the Baltimore city organization. It is not thought, however, that Mr. Dawkins will make a fight for the place.

Mr. Albert J. Almony has good backing for Chief Clerk of the House; Mr. Emerson Crothers, nephew of the Governor, is spoken of for Secretary of the Senate; Mr. W. Trickett Giles has a good chance for reading clerk of the Senate, the position held for so many years by the late Walter R. Townsend.

Mr. Humphrey D. Wolfe will probably be re-elected reading clerk of the House.

There is a plan on foot to elect all employes in each branch of the Legislature.

Diamond Cut Diamond.

Nine of William Smith's cows that had strayed upon S. M. Lockwood's farm at Mt. Pleasant, near Middletown, some weeks ago, were released on payment of $1 per head, the legal allowance for their detention. The very next day thirty seven of Lockwood's sheep were found on Smith's place. He drove them to his barnyard and demanded $37 from Lockwood for their release. The latter refused to pay, and Smith served notice that he would sell the sheep within ten days. Besides the $37 Lockwood may be taxed 25 cents per day per head for feeding the sheep. Mr. Lockwood was seeking to replevin the sheep, but whether he has filed the needed bond has not yet been stated.
