...LD'S CASH STORE,

STILL POND, MARYLAND.

WELL! WELL!

Christmas is Here Again.

DEAR FRIENDS—Another year has slipped by and Christmas is almost here—just two weeks time for prepartion, and believe me, I'll be busy every minute. It seems that I'm being more gladly welcomed than ever before, and this will surely be my biggest Christmas. I am holding informal receptions daily at Schofield's, and it's delightful to see the many happy faces. The grown ups are just as glad to see me as are the children. There's a beautiful something that creeps into their hearts about this time—a desire to make other people happy, and its no longer a secret that there's no surer way to make ourselves happy. I never ... more general disposition on the part of men and women to ... me. My Still Pond headquarters will be at Schofield's until Christmas because I regard this as the brightest and best Christmas ... store in the town.

Sincerely yours,

SANTA CLAUS.

Every Saturday will be Children's Day at Schofield's. Santa Claus will be here from 1 to 5. Let all the children come and receive a treat from Old Santa Claus.

Pomona Items.

Revival Fires are still burning at Bond and Mowbray M. E. Churches. On Sunday 8 were converted at Mowbray Church. This makes a total of 38 conversions on Pomona charge this fall. The pastor, Rev. W. M. McCann, has charge of all the meetings and has preached every night for 5 weeks with two exceptions. Since August 6th, 28 have been received on probation and 12 as full members. This is the largest number of conversions during one year Pomona has had for years.

Mr. Neal Hadaway was elected judge and Messrs. Loud and Henry Brown tellers of Bond lay election, to elect one person to attend conference in March, 1912.

The ushers union met at the home of Mrs. Hattie Brown on Thursday evening. It now has close to 40 members.

The Pennsylvania Railroad.

A new departure in railroad industrial work is furnished by the Baltimore, Chesapeake and Atlantic and the Maryland, Delaware & Virginia Railways, which have just issued a directory of shippers of oysters located on their lines.

Chesapeake Bay oysters have long been famous throughout the United States, and the oyster industry in this region has grown so rapidly of late under stimulus from transportation companies eager to increase their freight revenue from this source, that few realize its present magnitude.

The directory contains the names of 344 shippers of oysters located in 131 towns. Chrisfield, Maryland, furnishes the greatest number, and in this town alone there are 31 individuals and firms that ship oysters.

The celebrated Chincoteague oysters come from the neighborhood of Franklin City, Virginia. An idea of the extent of the traffic can be had from the fact that last winter the Maryland, Delaware & Virginia Railway, the Baltimore, Chesapeake & Atlantic Railway, and the Delaware Railroad hauled 209,793 barrels of shell, and 89,000 packets of shucked oysters and clams from this section.
