FAIRLEE, MARYLAND.

PEOPLE YOU KNOW.

Mrs. Golt, of Wilmington, Del., is the guest of her brother, Senator Garrett Foxwell, on Washington avenue. We are very glad to state that Senator Foxwell is able to be out.

Mrs. D. W. Ingersoll, of Quaker Neck, is visiting her mother in Chicago. Mr. Ingersoll accompanied her as far as Washington, D. C., where he spent the greater part of last week visiting among a number of friends among whom is Representative Oscar Underwood, democratic floor leader in the House, and a candidate for President of the United States.

We are glad to state that Master Belt Townshend, who has been quite sick with pneumonia, is improving.

Mrs. J. T. Twilley has been on the sick list during the week. We hope she will soon be restored to her usual good health.

We are very glad to state that Mrs. George H. Cannon, who has been suffering with an injured limb for some time is improving.

Mrs. Walter T. Morris and little son, Walter, have been visiting her parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Sheridan, in Baltimore.

Mrs. H. S. Barnett, of Baltimore, spent Sunday with her sons, Messrs. Vernon and Ralph Barnett.

William W. Beck, Esq., Kent's representative in the Senate, was taken suddenly ill on Saturday night, and was detained from his duties at Annapolis several days.

Mrs. W. B. Copper has been quite sick with la grippe during the past week.

Mrs. Chas. T. Jarvis has returned to her home in Middletown, Del., after spending several weeks with her sister, Mrs. Mae Stradley, of Galena. Mrs. Jarvis expects to start for Water Valley, Mississippi, in a few days, where Mr. Jarvis is engaged in business.

Miss Louise Carroll, a member of the Baltimore county teaching corps, and daughter of Town Commissioner and Mrs. Wm. S. Carroll, was taken to a Baltimore hospital last Saturday for an operation for appendicitis. We are very glad to state that the operation was successful and that Miss Carroll is improving.

Master Julian Duyer, who has been at the State Sanitorium for several months was taken to a Baltimore hospital on Monday for a surgical operation.

We are very glad to state that Mrs. J. A. Bradley is able to leave the Hahnemann Hospital and is now with relatives in Philadelphia.

Miss Claire Ahern, of Millington, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. D. B. Ford, on Maple avenue.

Mr. Warren C. Hurlock has returned from Baltimore, where he has been for a month or more on business.

Chautauqua on the Move.

Notwithstanding the very inclement weather on Monday evening, twenty-five or thirty of the town's representative citizens assembled in Firemen's Hall to hear the advantages of the proposed Chautauqua for Chestertown discussed. Mr. Collier and President Turner of the Chautauqua movement, were present and discussed at length the plan for a week's fine course of entertainments and lectures. The scheme is to have both those who are at the head of the Chautauqua movement and the people of the town and county finance the Chautauqua. The cost for entire week's entertainment is $1,800 divided proportionately between the town and the promoters, and season tickets are to be sold at $2 per ticket for the entire course. The meeting resulted in the appointment of a committee composed of the four bank cashiers, and this committee was given the privileve to enlarge the committee so as to include a lady and representatives of the three newspapers. The orignal committee held a meeting on Tuesday evening in the directors' room of the Third National Bank, when plans were discussed for raising the necessary finances to make the Chautauqua a success. This is one of the greatest schemes to advertise Chestertown that could be devised. The character of the work to be done by the Chautauqua, the scope of the entertainments and the campaign of publicity to be inaugurated cannot help but advertise the town far and near, and it affords our merchants and business people generally a most excellent opportunity to profit financially by such advertising. A determined effort should be made by our citizens to provide a series of entertainments that will be uplifting both educationally and morally, and it can be accomplished if every one puts his shoulder to the wheel and pushes the movement along.

Gave Birthday Party.—A reunion of the family of Mr. and Mrs. Perry W. Ruth, 202 East Federal street, Baltimore, was held Sunday to celebrate Mrs. Ruth's sixth-fourth birthday. Besides eight grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Ruth, the following were present: Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Rhine, Mr. and Mrs. Sewell T. Clark; Mr. and Mrs. John Harrison, of Crumpton, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. Perry W. Ruth, Jr., of Norfolk, Va., and Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Ruth.

In a recent account of the sale of Charley Mitchell, the well-known race horse, we stated that he was bred and raised by Senator Andrew, of Harford county. This is a mistake. He was bred and raised by Mr. Morgan Mitchell, of Aberdeen, one of the largest packers in Harford county, and also a breeder and owner of some of the finest horses ever raised in the State.

UP AND DOWN.

The following was sent us through the mail:

They took a little gravel
And they took a little tar,
With various ingredients
Imported from afar.
They hammered it and rolled it,
And when they went away
They said they had a pavement
That would last for many a day.
But they came with pick and smote it
To lay a water main,
And then they called the workmen
To put it back again.
To put in a tram cable
They took it up once more,
And then they put it back again
Just where it was before.
They took it up for a conduit
To run the telephone
And then they put it back again
As hard as any stone.
They took it up for wires
To feed the electric light,
And then they put it back again—
Which was no more than right.
There's the pavement full of furrows,
They are patching everywhere;
You'd like to ride upon it
But it's seldom that you dare.
It's a very handsome pavement—
A credit to the town;
They're always taking pavement up
Or putting pavement down.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT has announced his candidacy for a third term as President of the United States. The candidacy of Roosevelt has behind it a so-called "Progressive" element of the Republican party which is simply another name for Wall Street and the great moneyed interests of this country, and the Roosevelt platform is but a purloining of the great issues upon which the Democrats are now waging a successful fight. Such a candidacy is therefore directly against the great interests of the masses of the people, and is entirely out of harmony with the traditions established by George Washington and his successors. This country is a Democracy and not an aristocracy. It is a country whose constitution is based upon the sovereign right of the people to rule, and the injection of aristocratic tendencies, which is undoubtedly embodied in the candidacy of Roosevelt is subversive of the best interests of the great body or the people, and also of the basic principles of our government. The people of this country should not be blind to the motive back of Roosevelt's candidacy. His two terms as President of the United States are an open book. The high cost of living, the excessive expenditure of the people's money in fabulous appropriations, and a general catering to the interests of the great moneyed class were just as actual and real in those two terms as they are to-day, and should Roosevelt be nominated and elected for a third term, conditions would be precisely the same. The American people are an intelligent people. They believe in popular government, and no man was ever greater than the people whose servant he should be. Give Theodore Roosevelt a third term and all the reforms which a Democratic Congress has instituted and which it is at present enacting, will be thrown to the winds, and the great mass of the people will be at the mercy of the great moneyed interests as they have been for years. Roosevelt is the candidate of the plutocrats, and is one of the greatest fakirs of the age.

THE CHIEF JUDGESHIP.

The Easton Star-Democrat, of which W. Mason Shehan, the new State Insurance Commissioner is part owner, and which is regarded as the Democratic organ in Talbot county, had the following clear cut editorial in reference to the chief judgeship in a recent issue:

"As the time for the judicial primary election approaches the people of the Second Judicial Circuit of Maryland are beginning to consider the successor to the Hon. James Alfred Pearce, who will soon retire from the position of chief judge, which he has occupied with such distinction to himself and credit to this circuit. We are informed that the Cecil county bar has endorsed Mr. Albert Constable for the chief judgeship. It is not surprising that Cecil county, or any other county, not having a resident judge, should desire a member of its bar for a position of this character; yet the interest in behalf of a local condidate should not outweigh the considerations of justice and expediency. We believe that the people recognize both the justice and expediency of the claim that Judge Adkins's friends are making in his behalf. Judge Adkins has had over five years of valuable experience on the bench, and, after Judge Pearce, is the ranking member in point of service in this circuit. He has served conscientiously and with marked ability, and the spirit of fairness, if nothing else, would demand that he be elevated to the position of chief judge.

"It would be unfair to Judge Adkins, with his years of experience on the bench and his untiring energy as a jurist, to place in this high position any new man without judicial experience, even though he possessed the high character, ability, and likable personality of Mr. Constable.

"The mere fact that should Judge Adkins be elevated to the position of chief judge would enable Governor Goldsborough to appoint his successor ought not to be considered against him to defeat a laudable ambition and to deprive him of an honor to which he is justly deserving. To do so is merely playing petty politics at the expense of a man who has contributed nothing whatever to the unfortunate political conditions that confront the Democratic party.

"The appointment of an associate judge is for one year, at the end of which Kent, Cecil and Caroline will have an opportunity to enter the field should they desire. This is a vastly better course to pursue than to endeavor to take from Judge Adkins a rightful promotion and a deserving one."

Lieutenant and Mrs. Francis E. Fitch, of Ransalits, Cal., are guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Ahern, in Millington. Lieut. Fitch has been transferred to the U. S. S. "Senaca".

IS THERE ANY POLITICS IN OUR ROAD WORKING?

MESSRS. EDITORS: I am a man 36 years old and a voter for 15 years. I have never voted anything else but a Democratic ticket. I pay my taxes. In 1910 I paid $21.00 on a five room house, 40 feet front, including incorporation tax. SOME TAXES. I live in the Fifth District of Kent county—Rock Hall. Desiring a job when it was frozen up to haul shells on the public road now being hauled by a Mr. Lamb, I called up the Road Engineer, Mr. Gibbs. He informed me that he would have to come down and see where we most needed them, or if we did need them as soon as it was thawed out.

Supposing we had concrete roads and asphalt pavements for the last two years, he has overlooked our district, and is allowing shells to be hauled in the Sixth District at the same time from here. Is it good judgment or poor politics?

When I went to see a young Mr. Lamb, he told me I would have to see his father, which I did only to be turned down. The father is somewhat of a LAWYER. Questions—

Did you sign that petition?
How did you vote?
Are you an Organization man?
And will you make the road day?

Favorably answered and on the impulse of the moment. Yes, put on your wagon Monday was his reply. The next day or so I was informed that I was not needed. Now was this because my wagon was too small? Or was I not worthy of the job, or because my father and brother signed the petition I was asked about, or they being Anti-Organization men, on one side and a father-in-law, a Republican, on the other side? How about being an Independent voter, if not an Organization man. Would this give me a job? Think it over voters, and guess who.

FIFTH DISTRICT.

Worton, Md.,
February 28, 1912.

Messrs. Editors Transcript, Dear Sirs:—Will you kindly inform me where our road engineer stands politically?

I understand from good authority, that Mr. Aaron W. Taylor, of this district, (third) has been going over a portion of the district giving out road work, to Republicans.

Has Mr. Gibbs authorized Mr. Taylor to give this work to Republicans, in fear of a protest from the Republicans to Governor Goldsborough in case the present road bill, which has passed the House and is now in the hands of Senator Beck, is not repealed?

It appears to me he is giving the candy to the Republicans, which the Organization stole from the Antis, through the Legislature of 1910.

I think he can find quite a few Organization voters, in this district who would be glad to have the work, rather than have it given to Republicans, but not under the supervision of Mr. Aaron W. Taylor. Is he afraid of losing his job?

Yours very truly,
THIRD DIST. ORGANIZATION DEMOCRAT.
