MR. EARLE FOR JUDGE ADKINS.

James T. Earle Esq., of the Queen Anne's bar, addressed the following strong letter to the Centreville Observer last week, and also published the same in the Centreville Record:

To the Editors of the Centreville Observer: Gentlemen—In an editorial of your paper of April 13th, 1912, you make the statement—"that the Record (referring to the Centreville Record) made a most decided mistake in asserting that the local bar is behind Judge Adkins as a unit". I have found that is a gross error and might mislead some people and therefore ask space in your paper to contradict same. I circulated a petition among the members of this bar and found that Messrs. H. B. W. Mitchell, James T. Bright, Charles E. Tucker, Thomas J. Keating, J. Frank Harper, Madison Brown, Madison B. Bordley, Edwin H. Brown and the writer were solidly behind the candidacy of Judge Adkins; that Messrs. J. H. C. Legg and Richard T. Earle were the only members of this bar who were supporting Mr. Constable. From the tenor of your article you might be able to convey the impression to your many subscribers and readers that the above was not the case, but that it was reversed and that Mr. Constable had a majority of this bar instead of the two supporters that he actually has out of the eleven members of this bar.

I think that Judge Adkins should get the support of the Democratic voters of this county on account of his five or more years of honorable and faithful duty on the bench; that he, with this experience, is better qualified to serve on the bench of the Court of Appeals than a man who has never sat upon the bench as is the case with Mr. Constable.

It also occurs to me that had we not received the assistance of Talbot county we could not have elected Judge Hopper and this is a debt that we now have the opportunity to pay and Talbot county would appreciate the settlement of same.

The chief argument that I have heard advanced against Judge Adkins is that if he be elected Gov. Goldsborough will probably appoint a Republican to succeed him. To this argument I answer yes, but as a successor so appointed will serve only two sessions of court in that county prior to the general election in 1913 when there will be a Democratic candidate for the office of associate judge; a judicial candidate in 1913 will undoubtedly be very helpful to the local tickets in all counties of this judicial circuit and I believe that this answer is sufficient to any argument of the character above mentioned. It has always been the experience in politics throughout this judicial circuit that a judicial candidate gets a very large vote and the very fact that there will be such a candidate in 1913 will be of great service to any local ticket and more than balance the fact that for a brief period of a few months we might have a Republican on the bench.

The fact that Judge Adkins was elected by a majority of more than 2000 over his Republican competitor is a good indication of the chances of a Republican judge being elected in this circuit in the future.

I do not intend by this article to belittle the candidacy of Mr. Constable in any way. Mr. Constable and I are good friends personally and have been such for a long time; no one knows better than I the many good qualities and merits of Mr. Constable, but I think at this time we should rally to the support of Judge Adkins and render unto him the things that ought to be his, thereby giving him the proper reward for service well and faithfully rendered.

I trust that the Democracy of this county will give Judge Adkins a good majority on the sixth of May, and thereby show our appreciation of a fearless, faithful and honest public servant.

Respectfully yours,
JAMES T. EARLE.

BALTIMORE'S BEST STORE

Hochschild, Kohn & Co.

HOWARD AND LEXINGTON

THE STORE WHERE YOUR MONEY BUYS THE BEST VALUES

There are two ways in which merchants attempt to increase the purchasing power of their customers' money. One is the "catchpenny" method of clipping a cent or two from the price of a more or less standard article. The other—the Hochschild, Kohn & Co. way—is to pay the very top price for each article to be sold at a given price, thereby insuring the utmost value in that article.

In other words, the Hochschild, Kohn & Co. policy is to sell the best 25c stockings, the best 25c handkerchiefs, the best $1.00 gowns, the best $10.00 trimmed hats, the best $25.00 tailored suits that can be sold at these prices.

So, while on individual purchases, our prices may seem a penny or two higher, the woman with $1.00 or $5.00 or $10.00 or $25.00 or $100.00 to spend will get more real value for the amount expended than she can possibly get in any other store.

Spring is here—and the Hochschild, Kohn & Co. stocks of merchandise for spring are wonderfully attractive. See them when you come to Baltimore.

Four Professors Resign.

Trouble that has been brewing among the faculty of St. John's college for a long time has reached a climax. Four members of the faculty have decided to quit. They have handed their resignations to Dr. Thomas Fell, the president, who will in turn submit them to the consideration of the board of governors and visitors. The resignations are to take effect at the close of the present academic term in June. Those who have resigned are:

Prof. C. W. Stryker, of the chair of history and political economy.

Edward H. Sirich, modern languages.

Bartgis McGlone, biology and botany.

Edward S. Armstrong, English.

Because so much attention is paid to athletics that the academic training of the cadets is made a matter of secondary consideration is said to be the underlying cause of the resignation of the four instructors. It is held by them that students are permitted to participate with athletic teams when they are not by any means up to the requirements in scholastic work.

Grange Notes.

Everybody who has any interest in chickens, whether raising them or eating them, is especially urged to be present at roll call next Tuesday afternoon, at the Grange room in Still Pond. All the members who attend the Pomona meetings are especially urged to be present, as matters of the greatest importance will be discussed. The F. F. F.'s will serve the "eats."

The Fairlee Grange will hold a special meeting in Fairlee Grange Hall, next Wednesday afternoon at 2.30 P. M. Special programme.
