HOW TO RAISE THE MONEY.

That Union county (New Jersey) editor who proposes to raise $3,000 as his county's share of the Democratic campaign fund, and has already collected $500 of it from his subscribers, proves what can be done to finance a just cause, without going to the usual sources of supply.

He calculated that $2,000,000 would be needed for the whole country, then figured out New Jersey's share, and finally Union county's proportion, which he found could be raised by contributions of 33 cents from each Democratic voter.

Huge campaign funds are not needed in any honest campaign, and when they are raised much of the money is used in the effort to corrupt voters. And a large part of it goes into the private pockets of professional politicians. The people can finance this campaign, and the Democratic voters of Union county, New Jersey, are showing them how. —Ex.

The TRANSCRIPT is asking the people of Kent to contribute $1. Ten dollars have been subscribed during the week. Don't wait for us to come after your dollar. Send it by mail or bring it to our office and we shall give you due credit for it. Remember this thing now and show your interest in a worthy cause.

THE RIGHT RING.

In an interview in the Sun of Wednesday, Mr. John F. Williams, a prominent Democrat of the city says:

"A man who wins at a primary and has red blood in his veins, is naturally expected to rejoice. The man who loses, unless a hypocrite, is not expected to say he is glad. He wants a little time to get his breath, but if loyal and a thoroughbred, will always be found in the thick of the fight, and can be depended upon on election day.

"Maryland is Democratic when Democrats are together and good candidates are before the people. But the recent past shows that we must bury factional differences, and personal ambitions must be subordinated to the general good, or the common enemy will carry off the stakes as they have recently done.

"Don't curb any enthusiasm. Bring the young man to the front. Get together."

That has the right ring to it, and if all Democrats will follow its advice, there will be no doubt as to Wilson's overwhelming majority in this county and State in November.

Kennedyville Items.

You may theorize all you choose, but if you want to see practical gardening and the growing of most splendid plants and vegetables, just pay a visit to the large garden of Mr. John Bennett, of Kennedyville. His plums, too, are delicious, and grapes galore.

The farmers are now rushing the grain threshing in order to finish up before another rainy spell. The large new engine and thresher of Mr. John Clendaniel is the most powerful, and has the greatest capacity of anything the writer has seen in the county. It is just a treat to stand by and look on, to see how splendidly it does that for which it was created.

The yield of wheat on the home farm of Mr. W. M. Clendaniel is about thirty-one hundred bushels. Mr. Clendaniel speaks of a fair average.

Miss Eva Busick, of Baltimore, spent the end of the week with Miss Lulu Van Dyke.

Mrs. Wm. H. King and her son, Ray, of Philadelphia, are visiting at the home of the former's brother, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Pennington.

Mrs. Delia Jones, of Cordova, Md., attended services at the M. P. Church Sunday morning, and is spending several days in the community with friends and relatives.

Miss Vera Pennington, of Chestertown, is spending a part of her vacation with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Pennington.

Beginning with Wednesday evening of this week, Mrs. Lulu Dukes will have with her as guests for a few days, Mrs. Mary Copeland and little son, Master Harry, of three years old, and Miss Clara Pennington, all of Ridgely, Md.

Mrs. Catherine Pennington and her little granddaughter, Dorothea, have both been on the sick list, but are much improved at this writing.

Mrs. Elias T. Othoson has been very much indisposed for several days past.

Mr. Howard Baldwin, with his splendidly equipped tomato factory of Kennedyville, is making ready for the growing of the "golden apples," as they used to be called, by a carload, recently, of forty tons of coal, and the laying in stock of a supply of brand new cans. There is a larger acreage and a greater capacity for work than last season.

At the close of the morning service of next Sunday, Aug. 4th, in the M. P. Church, there will be a business meeting in the interest of church enterprise, when it is desired that all qualified members be present. Song service and brief sermon in the evening, beginning at 7.45. All are most cordially invited, and the young people are urged to be present to help with the music.

The Biggest Apple Crop.

The biggest apple crop ever known is said to be in sight for 1912. The New York Journal of Commerce learns from apple men who have earned something of a reputation in the predicting of the size of crops that probably 50,000,000 barr[illegible]ples will be marketed this ye[illegible]ainst 30,000,000 barrels in 191[illegible] State where apples are gro[illegible]ere the prospect of a failure in N[illegible]ork, Maine, Massachusetts and M[illegible]gan [illegible]tlook is the best ever known in Pennsylvania, Maryland, West Virginia better crops are expected than last year, in Arkansas, Missouri, Kansas and Illinois the [illegible]omises to be larger than for s[illegible] past.
