PASTOR TOLD TO RESIGN.

Wilmington Preacher Refuses to Yield to Indignant Congregation.

Wilmington, Del., Jan. 19.—William H. Hantzman, who six months ago came here from Washington, where he had been a Young Men's Christian Association worker, and became pastor of the First Methodist Protestant Church, was called upon to resign tonight.

The congregation demanded his immediate resignation as the result of the publication by him of a communication in a Wilmington paper today in which he bitterly attacked Rev. George L. Wolfe, the "marrying parson," for carrying on the "marriage trade."

Mr. Wolfe was minister of the same church for a number of years, being succeeded by Mr. Hantzman.

Mr. Hantzman, who is not an ordained clergyman, refuses to resign. He said that as he was sent to the pastorate by the president of the Maryland Annual Conference he would continue to preach until the president told him to get out.

Mr. Hantzman declared in the newspaper article that if the people of Wilmington would present a petition to the Maryland Conference at its forthcoming meeting at Lynchburg, Va., against Rev. Mr. Wolfe he had "no doubt that the conference would remove him without question."

The demand for the resignation was made at the close of the sermon and during an exciting scene. Mr. Hantzman is the son of a Washington architect. He is 24 years old. Rev. Mr. Wolfe is a native of Baltimore.

Horse Notes.

S. M. Harrington, of Dover, has sold Florence Wilkes, 2.17¼, by Correction, dam Mary B., to E. H. Johnson, of Casonia Stock Farm, Dover. Florence Wilkes will therefore remain here, although she will be campaigned next season with a number of other fleet horses including Silver J., 2.14¼; Dr. Volman, 2.15¼, Flossie M., 2.15¼; Stitson, 2.17¼; Somerset Boy, 2.37; and others that are most promising. These track horses will be trained at Casonia Stock Farm. G. T. Satterfield, of Townsend, Delaware, will train Rowdy Boy, 2.12¼; The Kid, 2.14¼; Wachila Florida, 2.10¼; and some fast green ones. These horses will be seen in matinees on the local tracks this summer. It is said that the string of horses shows class and a position second to none that race over half-mile tracks.—Dover News.

Boston, the famous old Talbot county trotter, the property of William Penn Bartlett, of New York, died on the farm of James Bartlett, near Kirkham, last week. He was over 27 years of age, and was on a pension during the last few years of his life. He was a wonder in his day and was known by every horseman in Maryland for his speed and had won many races.

The Chestertown Driving Association has determined to issue more stock, in order to provide for the erection of suitable buildings for the development of a first-class and modern agricultural fair. Secretary Clifton L. Jarrell has been busy during the week sending out letters and the association is receiving quite a number of inquires in regard to the sale of their stock.

The pari-mutuel system of betting on horse races will it is believed, have the tendency to lessen the evil of race gambling in the State of Maryland. It is likely that the next Legisiature will give serious consideration to the matter of racing in the State, and some drastic legislation is expected to be passed, curtailing this new evil in our commonwealth.

Mr. Wm. T. Nicholson, of Fancy farm, has two fine Picknell colts, one a trotter and the other a pacer. Mr. Cooper Tarbutton also has two fine youngsters by the same sire.

Mr. Robert J. McWhorter has been driving a sorrel pacer on our pike during the week that shows signs of considerable speed. Mr. McWherter also has a yearling black colt that gives promise of speed.

WHAT IT COSTS TO MARRY

$10,000 A YEAR THEIR LIMIT.

Girls Resolved Not to Marry Men Who Make Less.

New York, Jan. 14.—Any batchelor who comtemplates marriage on an income of less than $10,000 a year may as well abandon the idea, according to Miss Angette Perry, who, in an address before the Mothers' Club here, said that sum was set by a large number of representive girls from which she had been collecting data. Most of the girls were just out of college, she said.

"Many of them told me," she continued, "that after carefully estimating the cost of maintaining a home they had arrived at the conclusion that less than $10,000 would mean living without some of the comforts essential to their happiness. And these girls were not the daughters of millionaires, but belonged to well-to-do families.

Why don't the young ladies of Kent county pass a similar resolution. Any good wife is worth at least $10,000 a year.
